LOCAL NEWS.

Tuesday was Memorial Day. Miss Daisy Downing returned to Fossil Monday. Mrs. G. W. Rhinehart returned from Lost Valley on Monday. Dr. Shaw, of Fossil, was in town Saturday on professional business. Mayor Dunn went to Arlington Sunday on a business trip. Messrs Bryson, of Portland, and Maybee, of Arlington, spent Sunday in Condon. Mrs. M. A. Harding, of Minnesota passed through Monday, enroute to Fossil where she will reside. The Heppner Times reports a severe hailstorm at that place on Tuesday evening of last week. During the heavy thunder storm last week, a young child of four years of age, Gibson's work horse near Mayville. Sheriff Matlock, of Morrow County, has gone to Indianapolis, Ind. for medical treatment. His life is almost despaired of. Mr. and Mrs. John Stitt were in town Friday evening attending the concert in which Mrs. Stitt was one of the performers. Dunn Bros. have sold their '99 clip of wool for ten cents per pound. Their '98 clip has been shipped to Boston but is not yet sold. Fill up on strawberries and ice cream next Saturday evening, at Armory hall and be happy. Social for benefit of Catholic church. James M. Brown has been suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia for the past week, but at this writing we are pleased to state, he is improving. Sheriff Wilcox received a new wheel the other day and has quit walking. He says if his wind would only hold out he would soon become a long distance rider. Dr. Luna was called to Clem Saturday, to see a brother of C. W. Wester who is there from Washington on a visit. The gentleman was seriously ill but was better when the doctor left him. Mrs Elizabeth Slater has been very ill for several days at her home in this city, suffering from a violent attack of inflammatory rheumatism and heart failure. Her recovery is considered very doubtful. A spirited horse race was held on Sunday afternoon between Rundle Palmer's black mare and Winnie Keizer's brown horse, for $5.00 a side. The race was a close one, the brown winning by half a neck. The Ladies of the Baptist church will give an Ice Cream Social in the Armory hall Saturday evening June 24th 1899. All are cordially invited to attend. Proceeds will go towards building a church at Condon. Eastern Oregon is getting plenty of good warm showers lately and the wheat is making rapid growth. The farmers are feeling jubilant in consequence and consider prospects for a heavy crop exceedingly promising. Minor & Co. the well known firm of Heppner merchants, have taken a big space in the Globe advertising columns and have it filled with interesting matter concerning their grocery and hardware departments. It will pay you to read it. The Houser & Haines Mfg. Co., of Stockton, California, employ a force of 120 men and are working day and night, rushing shipments of their Combined Harvesters to California points in order to make room for their Two Wheel Side Hill machines for the Oregon and Washington trade. The demand for their machines this season, shows the popularity of the Celebrated Haines-Houser Combined Harvesters. E. Y. Judd, of Hartford Conn., the well known wool man, who is a heavy stock holder in Pendleton Woolen mills, is of the opinion that the price of wool will advance a little, and that Eastern Oregon wool growers will sell this year without holding for higher prices as they did a year ago. Those who held last year lost two or three cents a pound and he thinks they will not wish to again try the experiment. The Fossil Journal charges that the Gilliam county write-up in the Arlington Record's special edition was stolen bodily from the New Year's Oregonian, the original article being written for the Oregonian by the editor of the Journal. Those fellows Kistler & McDermott would better steer clear of the Record office in the future or Brother Maxwell is apt to "pi their forms" with a "shooting stick" loaded with "60 point slugs" for so imposing on him. We don't know Kistler & McDermott, but we do know the country is full of traveling advertising fakirs who gull the people of almost every town they strike. The concert given by members of the Congregational choir at Armory hall last Friday evening was highly enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience. The program consisted of eleven choice selections, from the best known composers, and was rendered in a highly artistic manner. The appreciation of classical music by a Condon audience, was evidenced by the numerous and hearty encores given the performers during the evening. It would be unfair to give special praise to any of the performers without mentioning all, as every number was received with the heartiest enthusiasm. The concert was without doubt the most successful affair of the kind ever given in Condon.

Tim Connolly has sold his wool at Arlington for 9 1/2 cents per pound. The Habesohn wool crop has been sold at the corral to a well known buyer for 8 1/2 cents per pound. R. E. Smith and Henry Cross, two of Arlington's best known citizens were Condon visitors during the week. J. G. Stevenson returned from Wheeler county on Tuesday, where he has been buying some heavy draft horses. George Fletcher again started for Buffalo Hump last Saturday and as he swore he'd not stop in Arlington, this time, we presume he has reached the Hump ere this. The ladies of the Catholic church will give a Strawberry and Ice Cream festival, in Armory hall, on Saturday evening, June 3rd, 1899. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present and assist a worthy cause. Proceeds for the benefit of the church. The Globe acknowledges receipt of complimentary tickets to the Greater American Exposition to be held at Omaha Neb. from July 1st to November 1st. If the management will kindly attend to the transportation and incidental expenses we will make an effort to grace the occasion with our presence. Mrs. H. C. Strickland started for Portland yesterday with her little daughter Hazel who has been a sufferer from bone disease for almost a year. She will be placed in a hospital for treatment. Mrs. H. N. Frazer who accompanied them expects to remain in the valley for about a month visiting friends and relatives. Fred Earle drifted into town a few days ago and on Tuesday of last week he accumulated such a fine jag that the marshal found it necessary to run him in. Next morning he was taken before Judge Tatum who with that bland smile of his, assessed Fred $5.00 and trimmings which he paid. C. O. Portwood has resigned his position with Dunn Bros. and will, after a business trip to Portland and vicinity, spend some time getting acquainted with the neighbors down at his ranch in Ferry Canyon. Mr. Portwood has many friends in Condon who will regret to see him leave town, all of whom will hope that his absence will not be permanent. John Jackson returned from Portland Monday. While in the metropolis John put himself in the hands of a skillful artist and had an excellent reproduction of himself made in bronze. Only the head and features are shown as John did not want to be accused of getting on a "bust" while in Portland. This work of art is on exhibition at Mr. Jackson's store and if you do not say that the resemblance is striking you will be expected to set up the cigars. Attorneys Sam E. Van Vactor and Jay Bowerman, returned from their trip to Canyon City on Tuesday, where the former gentleman was retained in the defense of Dick Hinkle, who was charged with complicity in the murder of Geo. A. Scott in 1895. Mr. Van Vactor was successful in acquitting his client, the jury bringing in a verdict of acquittal in just 35 minutes. Van and Jay had the appearance of a couple of veterans just out of a wet season campaign in the Philippines, when they drove into town, and the big stories they told about the mud in Wheeler county was reluctantly believed by their friends because of the corroborative evidence furnished by their clothes. On account of lack of space in which to do the subject justice we will defer any mention of Van's whiskers until next week. A Fire Company Needed. Now that Condon has a good water system the next thing in order is for the citizens to organize a fire company. We have a good water supply, plenty of hose etc, but if a fire should break out tomorrow we would find ourselves sadly hampered because of the lack of organization. The fire hose is scattered all over town in different places and there is perhaps not one man in town, besides the marshal, who knows where all of it is kept. More than this there are doubtless but few persons in town who understand how to connect the hose, turn on the water, or do many other things which would be of prime importance in case of fire. We need organization and discipline along this line and no time should be lost in getting to work. The city council should take this matter up at its next meeting and take such action as may be necessary to insure the early organization of a company. Every citizen should agitate this question and insist on an early organization, for upon it may depend the safety of every home and every business interest in Condon. Caught On a Shaft Little Ruth Halstead, the six year old daughter of Herbert Halstead, of Lost Valley, while playing in her father's saw mill last Saturday, met with an accident which might have cost her her life. A rapidly revolving shaft caught the child's clothing and whirled her around at a great rate until the clothing finally gave way and released her. Her sun-bonnet was tied around her neck and was twisted so tightly that she was almost choked to death when help reached her. Strange to say beyond a few bruises she was not seriously injured and next morning was not much the worse for her thrilling experience. School Report Report of school district No. 33, for the month ending May 26 1899: Those averaging 90 and above are: Guselo Wester, Sarah Dodson, Alice Dodson, Roy Nondet and Kenneth Welshons. Those averaging 80 and above are: Anna Wester, McMillan Dodson, Marsh Welshons, Francis Wester Grace and Byron Chamberlain. Those not absent or tardy during the month are: Sarah Dodson, Anna Wester, and Francis Wester. F. FERN O'BRYEN, Teacher.

ARLINGTON. Measles are prevalent here now about 20 cases being reported. The river remains low for this season, with good prospects for a flood. Wheat comes in in large quantities. The price has been about 46 cents, but not much changing hands. Several clips of wool have been sold here lately at from 9 to 10 cents per pound, but the market is not steady. Decoration day was observed here with appropriate exercises. The business houses were closed during the day. J. W. Smith donated the fine park, south of town, to the city a few days ago. It consists of several acres of fine shade trees. Mr. Smith has the thanks of our people for his handsome gift. From Another Correspondent. W. Lord made his usual trip up from The Dalles, Saturday. George Biggs has moved into the residence just vacated by A. C. Hawson. Miss Minerva Neal is confined to her home on account of chicken pox. Frank Lee the wool buyer from Heppner gave Arlington a call, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Thomas returned from a trip through Kikikat County, Friday. Frank McFarland, a former Arlingtontian, is shaking hands with old friends last week. The funeral of Arthur Weatherford was preached by Rev. B. C. Miller Sunday at 11 A. M. The sympathy of the whole community is with the bereaved family, as this is the fourth member of the family to be taken away with that dread disease, consumption, in a very short time. The young man was admired by all who knew him, for his upright and pleasant disposition. LOST VALLEY. Dr. Henery Pick of New York, was in this vicinity on Monday. James Cameron paid Lost Valley a visit on Monday while enroute to the mountains with his sheep. The last sheep shearing for this season in the Trail-Fork district was done Wednesday at Alex Hardie's place. Henery Bott came over from Wine-land's mill on Monday to assist Mr. Halstead while running the planer. Several waterpots struck in different places in this vicinity during the storm that passed over on last Wednesday. However no great damage has been reported. Al Smith has moved his family from near A. A. Anderson's place to the Burgess Manger place for the summer. He will take James Cameron's sheep to the summer range in the mountains. Fred Cornett from near Condon, and Will Hardie were here this week starting to drive J. K. Fitzwater's sheep to Heppner whence they will ship to the summit of the Rockies within a short distance of the Wyoming line their destination. PUBLIC SALE OF HORSES.
