LOCAL NEWS.

Wain won the game. Jean Lebons is in Portland this week. Mrs. H. S. Toly returned from Portland Tuesday. Jack Shelton was out from Arlington during the week. Mayor Dunn went to Portland on a business trip Monday. Jim Codd was in town from Trail Fork a few days last week. George Gibbons was over from Mayville precinct last Friday and Saturday. If any body asks you, just tell them that Condon will celebrate this year with a vengeance.

Walter Morris, of Goldendale, is here this week putting in an Acetylene light plant for Charles Fix.

Charlie Pinkham's baby has been seriously ill for several days and was taken to Fossil Tuesday for medical treatment.

Miss Nellie Brown has been very seriously ill for the past week but was better yesterday. Dr. Luna is attending her.

Rev. Burr, former pastor of the Congregational church at this place, now of Ontario, came in yesterday on a business trip.

S. B. Conture took his wife and baby to Fossil last week where the little one is undergoing medical treatment. At last accounts the baby was improving.

Mrs. S. G. Hawson, and two children, of Arlington, went through on Tuesday's stage to Fossil, where they will spend the summer.

Win. M. Calk, grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias was here Tuesday night making an official visit to Eudymion Lodge, No. 66.

Messrs A. Gosner and Rob Wain left this week for Union county where they will complete a job of government surveying begun last year.

Mrs. Hattie Dunwoody, and children, from Denver, Colorado, are visiting her brother, C. L. Baker. They expect to remain two or three months.

Mrs. Slater's condition was somewhat worse yesterday and Dr. Shaw was summoned from Fossil, to see her. It is believed that she cannot survive longer than a few days.

J. B. Frazer received a new bicycle the other day and has since been busy reducing the critter to subjection. Riley will perhaps put himself in training for the races on the fourth.

Condon "wont do a thing" to the American eagle on the fourth. The old bird will screech and paw the air at a great rate on that day. Go to, young man, and "whoop 'er up".

Joe Matney, who was sent up from Arlington a week or so ago, to await the grand jury, on a charge of lewd cohabitation, secured the necessary bail Monday and was released from custody.

William Keys, of Mayville, accompanied by his nephew, Arthur McKeown, of Berkeley, California, was in town Monday night on their way from Arlington. Mr. McKeown is here on a visit to his relatives.

The Ladies of the Baptist church will give an Ice Cream Social in the Armory hall Saturday evening June 24th 1899. All are cordially invited to attend. Proceeds to go towards building new church at Condon. 12 d 15

The clip of wool belonging to Woodfin Bros. & Parks, was disposed of on the 13th inst by Mr. Benedict, representing Balfour, Guthrie & Co's warehouse, at 12 1/2 cts. This is the highest price realized so far in Arlington.

This is becoming too much of a "less" age. We have the horseless carriage, the chainless wheel, the creamless milk, the milkless butter, the useless secretary of war, the wireless telegraph, the beefless canned meat and workless attorney General.—Astoria Budget.

Mrs. Ella Mickle, and her little son M. C. Glauco, of Boise, Idaho, arrived on Tuesday's stage and will spend the summer visiting her sister Mrs. S. A. Pattison. Claude was pretty well known here last summer and he is having his wagon repaired and preparing for another active campaign.

Condon enjoys the proud distinction of having a base ball team that has never been defeated. The only game they ever played was with the Fossil team last Sunday and they "didnt do a thing to them." We also have a foot racer and a wrestler whom we will produce when the proper time comes.

Mrs. H. C. Strickland returned from Portland yesterday. She reports Hazel getting along remarkably well since the operation and is now on the high road to recovery, although she will have to remain in the hospital several weeks longer. An artificial joint will be put in the shoulder and the surgeons hope to make a pretty good arm of it yet.

The big fight between Bob Fitzsimmons and Jim Jeffries was pulled off last week as per arrangement. Fitz was knocked out and put to sleep in the 11th round and the world has a new champion. Jeffries is the son of a California preacher and Jim entered the ring with his father's blessings and best wishes. For once the prize ring and pulpit seem to have joined hands.

The Shurtz & Weir Co. fill their ad-vertising space this week with a description of the old reliable Hodges Headers. Farmers needing any machinery for the coming harvest should see them. This enterprising firm has recently erected neat and substantial mile posts along the road between here and Arlington which will help to "guide the weary traveler on his way" and at the same time will turn his thoughts to their store.

While riding a raw cayuse in Johnson's corral Saturday evening, after the horse sale, Orin Jackson met with quite an accident. The broncho was "bucking" rather gently and some of the boys tried to accelerate his motions by throwing a rope under his tail, but the rope went to the ground and the cayuse's head and turned him upside down. Orin hit the ground pretty hard and was badly stunned and bruised but is recovering rapidly.

It now appears probable that the wheat crop of the United States this year will fall short of that of last year by at least 100,000,000 bushels. The general tendency of the market is upward and while it is not probable that the price will be high when the new crop comes in, the situation is such that the expectation of better prices on the average for the next wheat crop than have been obtained for the crop harvested last year is justifiable.—Eugene Guard.

The report published last week to the effect that Foster's band of trail sheep had been shot into, on Slide creek, in Grant county, and 200 of the animals killed, seems to have been unfounded. The last issue of the Long Creek Eagle reports Foster's, Blake's, Looney's and Bibb's sheep to have passed through the county without being molested. They will all ship from Huntington to Montpelier, Idaho, from where they will drive to their different destinations in Wyoming and Montana.

C. A. Danneman, W. R. Boyer, Henry Wilkins, George Welsbans, and James Larch were up from Clem Tuesday. They were reticent in regard to the business that brought them up, but it was suspected that one of the bachelors of the outfit was after a license to commit matrimony and that he brought Danneman and the others along to swear his fiancée. For some unexplained reason it is believed, Danneman refused to give the proper testimony in the Clerk's office and to get even, the would-be benedict stole his (Danneman's) coyote scalps and put them to "soak" where they would call for the most beer. Certain it was that the scalps were stolen and they were not recovered until somebody "said something".

The Ball Game. Sunday was not an ideal day for outdoor sports on account of the rather cold west wind which prevailed, and which was the most beer. Certain it was that the scalps were stolen and they were not recovered until somebody "said something".

A large delegation of ladies and gentlemen drove over from Clem Tuesday to the sport and to encourage the Wheeler county team by their presence and cheers, and with the big turnout of Condon people the crowd of spectators was large, good looking, intelligent and noisy.

The personnel of the Fossil team with the score made by each man was as follows: Hoover, 3; Hamilton, 3; Dean 5; Van Horn, 1; Steers, 3; Crosson, 4; Morris, 2; Barnard, 1; Baldwin, 2. Total, 24.

The score of the Condon boys was: Drager, 6; Miller, 4; Wella, 3; King, 4; Judkins, 1; McCully, 3; G. Judkins, 3; Wain, 0; White, 2. Total, 26.

The Condon boys had the best of the first half of the game, and then the Fossilites took a sport and placed themselves somewhat in the lead, and when Condon came to the bat for the last time they had two scores to overcome to make themselves even. It was then they "played ball". Drager and King each made a score and McCully and Glen Judkins were on the bases when Wain, who had been laying back all day for the proper opportunity took the bat and he "didnt do a thing" to that ball.

He whacked that bit of pikekin as though he meant business—which he did—Mac and Jud came in on an easy canter, the game was won, and Wain was vindicated. The Fossil boys put up a good game and took their defeat philosophically and expressed themselves as well pleased with the game and with the reception given them by the Condon people. Another game was arranged for next Sunday to be played on the Fossil grounds and our boys will win that game too, if they can. The only unfortunate occurrence of the day was the accident to Baldwin met with when trying to make first. He was struck in the face by Well's knee and painfully though not seriously injured.

Notice. Bids for stand privilege on the Celebration grounds on the fourth must be handed in to the general committee on or before Saturday, June 17th, at 6 p.m., when bids will be opened and privilege awarded. Cash must accompany bids in all cases. By order of committee, Ed DENN, Chairman.

Correction in Program. The committee on sports and races for the Fourth authorized the following correction in the small poster, "Program of Sports." Pony and Horse races should read, Gilliam and Wheeler County only. It was not the intention of the committee to bar Wheeler county horses, the mistake occurred inadvertently in making up the copy for the printer.

The Horse Sale. Condon is, without doubt, the best horse market of any small town in Eastern Oregon. At the Armstrong sale last Friday and Saturday good prices were realized and the stock went like "hot cakes". Auctioneer G. L. Neal is a master in his line of business and can get good prices when others fail. Last Friday he sold 70 head in about six hours or at the rate of almost a dozen an hour. The Armstrong band is good stock and many good bargains were secured at that sale.

Religious Debate at Lone Rock. A discussion between Elders I. D. Brown, of the Missionary Baptist church, and W. A. Goodwin, of the Latter Day Saint's church, will begin on Monday evening, June 25, to continue four days. The proposition read as follows: Resolved first: That the so-called Reorganized Latter Day Saints are, in doctrine and practice, the same as the Utah Mormons. I. D. Brown Aft., W. A. Goodwin, Neg. Resolved second: That the Regular Baptist church is the church of the Lord Jesus Christ in gospel practice. I. D. Brown Aft., W. A. Goodwin Neg. 14 d 15.

Gilliam County Beauty. Last Sunday being a fine day save for the strong east wind which blew, a number of young people, of Condon, drove over to Fossil in the morning and remained until evening, visiting friends and witnessing the ball game on the Fossil diamond between the Fossil and Never-sweat nines. The names of those whom we were able to learn are, Misses Inella, Mary and Maggie Maddock, Birdie Henshaw, Mattie McBride, Messrs O. Portland, Brit White, Jack King and Bob Wain, the last two named gentlemen being close friends to the proprietors of the McKenzie hotel, Crossan & Robbins, and the four being former residents of Salem.—Fossil Journal.
