LOCAL NEWS.

Manley Downing has returned from his trip to Wyoming.

E. T. Hollenbeck departed Saturday on a business trip to Moro.

LeRoy Gesner and Miss Belle Darling visited friends at Fossil last Sunday.

Ira Luna, of Athena, visited his brother, Dr. S. K. Luna.

W. L. Wilcox and family, expect to leave Sunday for a couple of weeks visit at Portland and other valley points.

P. H. Stephenson and family, and Mrs. Gesner, and daughter, spent Sunday at Trail Fork, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. White.

Dr. Luna and family have removed from the Filter house on Main street and are occupying the Taylor house in the west part of town.

J. B. White is reported as being on a new path.

Mr. Grimm, of The Dalles, bought two car loads of fat cows from W. N. Brown this week for the Portland market.

Mrs. Myers and children arrived from the Willamette valley Sunday to join her husband who is working in the timber in Lost Valley.

Mrs. Jennie A. Cary, widow of the late J. L. Cary, returned to Mayville last week to settle up the estate of the deceased.

Miss Mattie McBride, left Sunday morning for her old home in Arkansas.

Mr. Howe, and his partner, who came from Illinois recently, and who have been stopping near Spokane for a short time arrived Saturday to look for a location in Gilliam county.

Wm. Armstrong and Margy Deville, of Arlington, came out last Thursday to have a good strong matrimonial knot tied by Judge Neal.

The Fourth passed off very nicely here all the business houses, and many of the residences, being gaily decorated with flags and bunting.

The procession formed in front of the Vendome hotel and marched to the city park where the following excellent program was rendered:

Music. Band Prayer. Rev. B. C. Miller Address of Welcome. S. A. D. Gurley Song. Choir Reading. Miss L. Snell Music. Band Oration. H. S. Wilson Choir "America"

Miss Ebi acted as "Goddess of Liberty" and 48 little girls, beautifully attired in white, represented the states and territories.

S. A. D. Gurley's address of welcome was filled with patriotism, and Judge Wilson told the old story of Our Country and Our Flag, in a masterly and interesting manner.

In reading the Declaration of Independence Miss Snell proved herself to be a cultured reader, by the expression and feeling she put into the old, but always interesting, paper.

A flag was raised, in the afternoon, by members of the G. A. R., and after a splendid display of fireworks in the evening those who were not tired out with the dissipations of the day repaired to the A. O. U. W. hall and danced until the "wee wee" hours.

W. F. Shanadtt is in Portland this week.

B. T. Snell and Miss Snell spent the Fourth here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Thomas spent the Fourth at Bickleton.

Dan Smythe will be with the A. N. Bank during vacation.

O. D. Stargis has gone to the coast for a month's recreation.

Miss Ella Carlyle is home from St. Helen's Hall, for vacation.

Mrs. Fred Hanna will spend the hot months near Hood River.

F. C. Hindle, of Dayton, Washington, visited Arlington last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hicks are at Lehman Springs for the summer.

Mr. Fowle, a former teacher in the Portland Business College, has accepted a position with the Arlington National Bank.

Roy Cunningham, Homer Woods, Emmett Butcher and Dan Smythe, are home from school for vacation.

S. P. M. Briggs has gone to Chehalis where he will meet Mrs. Briggs on her way home from Indianapolis.

Land Settlers Notice.

I have received quite a number of Land Office Receipts for persons having made application or proof before me.

All such persons who have not received returns for their filings or proofs, will probably find them by calling at my office. H. S. FRAZER.

ROCK CREEK.

Evert Wishard spent the Fourth in Condon.

Harvesting is in full blast on Rock creek.

T. G. Woodland, two daughters, and Vanl Huber took a flying trip to Portland, Wednesday.

W. S. Phillips of Olex has disposed of his Rock Creek ranch, and will start soon for the Blue Mountains to hunt a location.

D. E. Strickland, the Rock Creek horse raiser, has left for Pendleton, to sell a fine bunch of horses. We hope he will meet with success.

Misses Mand and Elda Flett of Olex, were the guests of their sister, Mrs. J. W. Clark, of Ferry Canyon, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark expect to leave soon for Weston, where they will spend the rest of the summer.

LOST VALLEY.

The Fourth is over and every body is getting down to business again.

Mr. DePitt Henry, of near Condon was here the past few days looking after his sheep on Buckhorn, his loader having accidentally shot himself in the arm.

Mr. Henry has employed D. H. Phillips of this place to run the sheep the rest of the summer.

Mr. Ashley, of Antelope, was in Lost Valley the 10th inst enroute home with two teams of horses that Leonard Bros had taken to Heppner instead of leaving at Fossil as Mr. Ashley had previously arranged with them to do.

Mr. Savage, of Mayville, has gone to the Pendleton country, where he will take charge of a herd on his brother's place that will start up this week.

"Farmer" Green, who sells clothing for a San Francisco house and travels all over the Inland Empire in so doing, is in town today with his big load of sample cases.
