LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. J. R. Frazer visited Mrs. Propst last week.

Take your repair work to Joe Harbin. Neatness and dispatch is his style.

Dr. Luna and family have moved into Dr. Hogan's residence.

Geo. Neal's baby was dangerously ill last week but is now better.

John Maddock went to Arlington Saturday on a business trip.

The cool weather of the first of the week was all right for harvest work.

Squire Wilkinson White, of Trail Fork, was in town the first of the week.

H. W. Hartman will this week finish a fine new dwelling for Wm. Wehrli near Mayville.

S. B. Barker and F. M. Pitter left for Grant county Tuesday morning on a sheep buying expedition.

Dr. Luna was called to Lone Rock, Monday, to prescribe for Mrs. James Bennett who was seriously ill.

The smallpox scare at Hepper seems to be abating. Editor Shutt is convalescent and no new cases are reported.

H. W. Hartman will soon commence work on a new residence for himself on his ranch a few miles north of town.

E. A. Stinchfield, of Mayville, passed through town Friday with a bunch of choice beef cattle for the Portland market.

Joe Harbin the blacksmith who rented the Clark shop will remain permanently in Condon and will move his family here in a few weeks from Yaquina.

Some of Condon's best singers serenaded the town Saturday night, and by the way, Condon has some of the best vocalists in Eastern Oregon.

Louis Couture will run the engine for McLaughlin's new threshing this season. The outfit will begin threshing at Raymond's ranch next Monday.

Mrs. C. W. White, of Trail Fork, who has been suffering nearly all summer with hip joint disease is still confined to her bed. She is improving slowly however.

A fishing party consisting of Mrs. P. H. Stephenson, Misses Mary and Maggie Maddock, Bell Darling and Rhoda Gesner, drove out to the Maddock ranch Sunday.

R. M. Johnson was in town Sunday on his way home from Arlington where he drove a band of cattle which he had purchased for Mr. Reynolds the Nebraska buyer.

John F. Reisacher and Miss Lizzie Hoover visited friends at Fossil last Sunday. Mrs. Reisacher who has been visiting friends there for sometime came home with them.

An item appeared in this column last week which stated that "the frame of the new Baptist church is up." It was an error. Our intention was to say that the lumber for the building is on the ground.

The Wilcox and Van Vector families went down to Thirty mile Saturday to enjoy the pleasure of camp life for a few days. Van and Coxy drive in from camp each morning and back in the evening.

W. L. Wilcox has gone into the chicken business on a large scale. He has lately been making an effort to get his big thorough bred rooster "into print" but has failed to agree with the office devil as to terms.

Jas. King, an old timer of the Fossil country and one of Wheeler county's best known stockmen was in town Saturday night on his way home from Arlington where he delivered a band of cattle to Reynolds.

P. H. Stephenson returned from his Eastern trip Sunday, having gone as far as Omaha. He reports having had a fine time and says Nebraska is booming this year. The corn crop will be the largest ever grown in the state.

One of our good looking young bachelors rigged himself up in a sailor suit Monday morning and tried to impersonate Hobson but it wouldn't work. Condon young ladies don't practice their oscillatory performances on the street in broad daylight. Lew will have to get an evening suit if he expects to make his game work.

H. L. Propst left a sample of wheat heads at this office a few days ago that would be hard to beat in any country. A sample of blue-stem measures six inches in length and the grains are as plump and large as any one could desire. Mr. Propst's entire crop of summer fallow will easily average 20 bushels per acre. He will harvest about 300 acres.

Dr. T. L. Nicklin, one of the best known dentists of Portland, will visit Condon the latter part of the month on a professional trip and will guarantee satisfaction to all who favor him with their patronage. The doctor is president of the state board of dental examiners and is one of the most prominent members of the profession in the state. See his card in another column.

C. S. Palmer's well drill is still at work on Cook Ross' ranch sinking a hole Chinawards in search of water. Some delay was occasioned last week by the cable parting, the drill dropping to the bottom. It was recovered the next day however and the work is going right along. If the boys chance to strike an artesian flow they will be two of the proudest heavy weights in Gilliam county.

Joe Harbin the blacksmith. A fine shower of rain fell Tuesday night.

Miss Birdie Henshaw is on the sick list this week.

Patterson, the insurance hustler, was in town last week.

The Dreyfus trial is in progress at Rennes France, behind closed doors.

Miss Nora Miller, of Rock Creek, is visiting Mrs. H. N. Frazer this week.

Charlie Fix has about completed the changes and improvements in his building.

H. H. Turner came in from Prineville yesterday. He will leave for Salem Monday.

J. R. Frazer is having a new barn built on his property near the school house.

S. B. Barker has had a neat new cellar and storeroom built at the rear of his residence.

W. H. Dobyns, the well known attorney, late of Arlington, has removed to Ione, Morrow county.

Miss Mabel Halstead has returned from Lost Valley where she lately completed a successful term of school.

W. T. Campbell, the golden haired insurance hustler, is in town with his smiling countenance and winning ways.

The Ladies' Aid served ice cream, cake and lemonade last Saturday afternoon and evening thereby realizing a neat sum for their society.

Don't forget that Joe Harbin is on deck at the Clark black smith shop, prepared to do your work on short notice and in first class style.

Misses Carrie and Mary Danneman, Miss Hurlburt and Mrs. Harry Ladd drove up from Clem Monday evening and returned Tuesday morning.

Workmen are engaged in repairing the Barr building, corner of Main and Spring streets. It is understood that a new drug store will be put in at once.

Mrs. George Blake of Rock Creek, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Fitzwater, this week. She was accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harvey Blake.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS ATTENTION—There will be an important meeting of the lodge on Tuesday evening, August 15. Every member is urged to attend.

29321 C. S. PALMER, D. C. O.

J. H. Thompson, supposed to be the same party who sold organs in this vicinity lately, is in jail at Portland on a charge of embezzlement from the Estey Organ Company, at Ashville, North Carolina.

A Gesner took Mrs. Gesner and Miss Rhoda to Arlington Monday on their way to their home in Salem. Mr. Gesner will remain here for some time to settle up business matters. Mrs. and Miss Gesner made many friends during their sojourn here.

Wm. Rettle was in town Thursday night on his way to his old home in Scotland. Mr. Rettle is only "going on a visit" but if he has as good luck as Dysart did last year he will come back to America content to stay here. We wish him bon voyage.

The Lost Valley Lumber Co's mill is running right along and has a large stock of all kinds of lumber on hand. The company is prepared to fill orders for special sizes and lengths on short notice. For prices of lumber consult price list of lumber in another column.

Charlie Earhart has returned from his outing in the mountains. He is fat and bronzed as a back woodsman and as soon as he gets over the effects of mountain air and scenery so that he can trust himself to tell a perfectly straight story, he has promised to give us a true bear story for publication.

W. S. Myers has "tanned in" a lot of stock on his wheat fields and will let them run for the next thirty days or so. It may be added that it is all work stock and that the stock is attached to headers, wagons etc. Mr. Myers crop will go about 25 bushels per acre, and the quality will be better than last year.

J. W. Drager, of Salem, was here for a few days last week visiting his brother Dave, and looking at the country. The boys both left for Salem last Saturday but there is a chance that they will come back sometime and become permanent residents of the banner county of Eastern Oregon.

Our Wheeler county neighbors should beware of common ordinary cold water. The Journal last week reports two citizens of Fossil having "close calls" from monkeying around a swimming hole in Butte creek. They should confine their attention to other liquids which they may be better acquainted with.

Van Vector has promised us a sensation for next week in the shape of a trout three feet long. He has a trout corralled in a deep hole in Thirty mile and is waiting for him to grow an inch or two to make the full three feet. If Sam brings that fish to our back door we will give the public a fish story worth reading.

Superintendent Daggert is holding teachers' examination this week. Misses Grace Baiding and Stella Adlard, of Condon, and Nora Miller, of Olex, are taking the examination for county certificates, but none are trying for state or primary grade papers. Supt. Daggert is assisted by Miss Mabel Halstead and Mrs. Grace C. Thomas.

Howard Propst, who with his family recently returned from a visit at Spokane, making the trip overland, reports that from beyond Pendleton to the Gilliam county line the crops are badly damaged by drouth. Mr. Propst said he felt pretty blue while on his way home rather expecting to find his own crop burned out, but he was agreeably surprised on reaching home to find the wheat green and thrifty.

Mitchell in Ashes

One half of the town of Mitchell, in Wheeler Co., was destroyed by fire last Friday afternoon. Ten buildings were destroyed including one store, one hotel livery stable and saloon. The loss is estimated at $20,000. The fire was supposed to be of incendiary origin.

LOST VALLEY. The measles have disappeared and every one is feeling better.

John Williams is up and around again having recovered from his recent illness.

Frank Pitter of Condon was up last week on business in Buckhorn district.

Miss Frankie Ward came over from Lone Rock last Saturday to visit Miss Florence Ward her sister.

C. R. Miller, the engineer at the Lost Valley saw mill, took a run over to Mayville Saturday on his bike.

Mr. James Brennan has been very ill the past week with stomach trouble.

Miss Mable Halstead, Condon's favorite school mistress, closed a very successful and highly satisfactory three months term of school here Tuesday the 8th. Miss Halstead will teach the Condon school the coming term.

LONE ROCK. Mrs. J. R. Bennett had a very sick spell the first of the week.

Ed Wineland has sold his mail contract from Lone Rock to Condon to J. H. Bond.

Several of our folks expect to attend the M. E. quarterly meeting at Hardman at which time the church will be dedicated.

Notices are posted for a grand picnic and Sunday School rally in the grove a couple of miles south of town on Thursday Aug. 24.

J. H. Bond has made a purchase of some town property of Ed Wineland consisting of a dwelling barn etc. The Bond family will soon move into their new home and become town folks.

The Wineland and Neckolls families started for a trip to the mountains Monday and several other families will join them from this place in a few days. They expect to go to Dixie Butte where they say the huckle berries and bears are thicker than fiddlers in Purgatory.
