GOLD UNDER THE SEA

Wardner Says Cape Nome Deposit Extends There.

EXAMINATION PROVES THEORY

Opens Up Great Possibilities in Alaska Mining—Pilgrims From Deadly Edmonton Trail.

Seattle, Sept. 18.—J. F. Wardner, the well-known mining man, who has just returned from Cape Nome, advances the novel theory that the gold deposits extend miles out to sea. In support of the theory, he says that two miners placed a caisson 120 feet from low tide. The dirt which was taken out ran 15 to 20 cents per shovelful. Similar experiments were tried at a further distance from tide mark, with better results.

Deadly Edmonton Trail. Wrangell, Alaska, Sept. 18, via Seattle, Sept. 18.—The Stickeen river steamer Strathcona arrived today with 67 survivors of the Edmonton trail. The majority of them are without means. They will be shipped to Puget sound at the expense of the United States government. About 50 of them will go to Seattle tomorrow on the steamer Al-Ki. Many are suffering from the effects of scurvy. Their stories of hardship and suffering endured in their 18 months on the trail are in a similar strain to those which have preceded them. No new fatalities are reported. It is thought that at least 75 prospectors are still on the trail. They will have to come down the Stickeen in small boats, as the low stage of water will prevent the Strathcona from making another trip this year. On her last trip she was hung up on a sand bar five days, 85 miles above Wrangell.

Can Not Tell Who He Is. Seattle, Sept. 18.—Among the many unfortunate prospectors that have returned from Alaska this season is an old man who cannot tell who he is, or where he came from. There is a clot of blood in his brain which has caused a paralysis of speech, due to typhoid fever. The only words he can utter are an indistinct yes and no. By the aid of a map it was learned that he came from Cambridge, Mass. A man who accompanied him from Dawson says his name is something like "Fisk." Efforts are being made to establish the man's identity. His limbs are also paralyzed.

Opening of the Oregon State Fair. Salem, Or., Sept. 18.—Without ceremony the Oregon state fair of 1899 was formally opened to the public this evening. THE TARTAR CLEARED.

Hong Kong Authorities Granted Papers to the Transport.

Washington, Sept. 16.—The war department received a dispatch today containing the information that clearance papers have been allowed the transport Tartar at Hong Kong. It is expected that she will proceed to the United States at once.

The information came from Colonel Metcalf, commanding the Twentieth Kansas and troops aboard the transport. It is supposed clearance papers were allowed upon the suggestion of the British foreign office to the British governor at Hong Kong that it would be unwise to interfere with American transports.

Another dispatch from Colonel Metcalf, in reply to one sent yesterday, states that the Tartar was not overcrowded, and that the food was as good as on other transports leaving Manila. He said the trouble arose among the discharged regular soldiers who were returning home on board the ship.

PEARY'S WORK. H. L. Bridgeman Believes He Will Reach the Pole.

New York, Sept. 16.—H. L. Bridgeman, who commanded the Peary Arctic expedition of 1897, arrived in Brooklyn today. The Diana, the ship which conveyed the members of the expedition into northern seas, reached Sydney, C. B., Tuesday. Members of the Princeton scientific party remained in Sydney to superintend the shipping of their collections made during the two months' cruise. Of Peary's work, Mr. Bridgeman says:

"Peary's results in the first year of the four allowed to his greatest Arctic work fully exceeded expectations and justify confidence. What he has already achieved removes his undertaking from the realm of doubt to reasonably certain success."

Mr. Bridgeman believes that Peary will accomplish his purpose and reach the pole before his four years are up.

SENTENCED TO DEATH. Verdict of Court-Martial in the Case of Two Manila Infantrymen.

Manila, Sept. 13, via Hong Kong, Sept. 16.—The local papers assert that Corporal Damloffer and Private Collins, of company B, Sixteenth infantry, have been sentenced to death by court-martial, and that private Mc-Bennett has been condemned to 20 years' imprisonment for having criminally assaulted native women in Manila a month ago. The crimes, it is said, greatly outraged the natives.

The papers assert also that General Otis has recommended that President McKinley approve the sentence, and that he desires a public execution of the men sentenced to death, as a warning against a repetition of the crime.

GUNBOAT ATTACKED. Admiral Watson Reports a Sharp Engagement in Malabar.

Washington, Sept. 16.—The following dispatch has been received at the navy department:

The occasion was the capture of a Filipino schooner, which Davidson destroyed. WATSON."

The situation this evening is not considered so favorable as it was during the forenoon.

Negro Lynched in Georgia. Macon, Ga., Sept. 16.—A special from Tifton, Ga., to the Telegraph says: A negro was arrested at Tity this morning and positively identified as one of the two negroes who assaulted Miss Johnson at that place last Tuesday. Two hundred men, heavily armed, assembled at Tity.

NEGROES SHOT DOWN

Bloody Riot at Brush Mines, Cartersville, Ill.

OPENED FIRE ON THE WHITES

Culmination of Long-Standing Trouble Between Union and Non-Union Miners.

Cartersville, Ill., Sept. 19.—Cartersville was the scene of a bloody riot between white and negro miners today. Six negroes were killed, and one other mortally wounded. Company C, Fourth regiment, Illinois National Guard, arrived here late this evening, and endeavored to preserve order. Forty miners from the Herrin mines left that place for this city this evening, armed with Krag-Jorgensen rifles determined to assist the white miners, should their services be required.

Trouble has been brewing ever since the militia was recalled by Governor Tanner last Monday, since which time the white miners have refused to allow the negro miners to come into town. Today 12 negroes marched into the town and opened fire on a crowd of whites. The whites returned the fire promptly, and a running fight ensued. The negroes, closely followed by the whites, scattered, some running up the main street, the remainder starting down the railroad track. Here the worst execution was done. After the fight was over, four dead bodies were picked up, and another man was found mortally wounded. They were taken to the city hall, where the wounded man was given medical treatment, and an inquest was held over the dead ones. Later, near the Brush mines, in another part of the city, two other dead bodies were found.

The killed are: Rev. O. T. J. Floyd, Huse Bradley, John Black, Henry Brannum. Two unidentified.

Mortally wounded: Sam Cummings. The mayor has taken every precaution to prevent further trouble, and none will occur unless the negroes make an attack.

Superintendent Donnelly, of the Brush mines, where the negroes reside, reports that the negroes are worked up into a frenzy, and while he is doing all in his power to hold them in check, he is afraid he cannot do so much longer, and that unless the militia appears shortly further trouble may be looked for.

Trouble has existed here, off and on, for over a year, but no fatalities occurred until June 30, when a passenger train on the Illinois Central railroad was fired into and one negro woman killed. These negroes were on their way to the mines, having come from Pana. A short time afterwards a pitched battle ensued between the union and nonunion forces during which time the dwellings occupied by the union negroes were burned. Several arrests were made, and the parties are in jail at Marion on the charge of murder, awaiting trial.

ON THE BRINK OF WAR. Reply of Transvaal Very Unsatisfactory—Boers Mean to Fight.

London, Sept. 19.—The reply of the Transvaal to Mr. Chamberlain's latest note is said to cover nine pages. It is eminently of the "negative and inconclusive" character, which Mr. Chamberlain declared would compel the imperial government to consider the situation afresh. It practically repudiates suzerainty, reverts to the seven-year franchise, and declines to give equality to the Dutch and English languages in the volksraad. In short, it is politely negative and defiant. The full text may not be available for a day or two, but it will not change the aspect of affairs. The cabinet will probably meet on Wednesday or Thursday to consider the next step.

It is supposed that the next move contemplated by the Transvaal is an appeal to the powers, begging them to recommend arbitration on the lines of the conference at The Hague.

Has McKinley Intervened? The Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail says:

"Afrikanerbond circles profess to have information that President McKinley has intervened between Great Britain and the Transvaal."

Condemned to Death. Washington, Sept. 19.—The secretary of war, in response to numerous requests, cabled General Otis regarding the two men of the Sixteenth infantry who, according to the press dispatches, had been condemned to death in the Philippines for assaulting native women. A reply received tonight said there was a third soldier now about to be tried in connection with the same case, and that when the court-martial was concluded the papers would be forwarded to the department. The two men sentenced are Corporal Damloffer and Private Collins. The name of the third soldier involved has not yet been made public. The sentences will not be executed until the war department shall have reviewed the cases. The papers cannot reach Washington in less than 30 days.

Reform in Baseball. Chicago, Sept. 19.—A new baseball league, whose circuit will include cities in both the National and Western Leagues, and which will be known as the American Association of Baseball Clubs, was formed today at a meeting here of baseball men and lovers of the national game. The circuit as decided on will include St. Louis, Milwaukee, Detroit, Chicago, Baltimore, New York, Philadelphia and Washington. A. C. Anson was offered the presidency, but refused to accept at present.

LIBERAL OFFER TO AGUINALDO

Remarkable Terms Which the Chief of the Tagala Refused.

New York, Sept. 18.—A special to the World from Iloilo, N. Y., says: Your correspondent is able to say on authority that the Schurman peace commission offered every inducement short of absolute self-government to Aguinaldo and his followers. Aguinaldo was promised as the price for the restoration of peace in the Tagal tribe a bonus of more than $5,000 a year while the Tagals remained peaceful. He was told that he could choose men from his own tribe for the minor municipal offices. The commission went so far as to promise Aguinaldo the moral support of the United States government, if such were needed, to make his leadership of the Tagala thoroughly secure.

With all these inducements, tempting as they may have been, Aguinaldo, as the recognized head of the insurgent movement, declined to yield. He insisted upon immediate self-government, and as his insistence was so firm as to make an agreement impossible, the American commissioners ceased negotiations.

President Schurman was frank in telling your correspondent a day or so ago that he favored giving to the various tribes the largest possible measure of home rule at the earliest moment. He thought the several tribes could administer their local affairs, elect their municipal officers, establish courts and personal institutions, etc., but did not insist it possible to allow the natives to participate in the general government.

"How could they govern the islands, in view of the heterogeneity and multiplicity of the tribes?" he added.

MUST RECKON WITH SIBERIA. American Wheatgrowers to Have Competition From a New Quarter.

New York, Sept. 18.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: American farmers are to have competition from a new quarter in the wheat market of the world. Consul Monaghan, of Chemnitz, in a report to the state department, gives interesting details of the agricultural possibilities of Asiatic Russia. Mr. Monaghan says that this vast territory is destined to be one of the world's richest and most productive places. It is particularly well adapted to the growing of wheat and other cereals, and since the building of the trans-Siberian road, wheat from this region has already found its way to the European market.

At present the resources of this region are undeveloped, and must remain so for some years, as the population is as yet greatly scattered, being less than one inhabitant to each square mile. Immigration from Europe to Russia is setting in however, and 4,000 persons entered the region last year.

Hawaiian Capitalist Out and Injured. San Francisco, Sept. 18.—R. B. Banning, a Hawaiian capitalist, arrived from Honolulu on the steamship Australia last Tuesday and registered at the Occidental.
