THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1899.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

The Northwest Herald declares itself to be "with the GLOBE" in an effort to build a railroad to Condon. This is to the point and we appreciate our friend's good will. Now if the Telegram will stand in with one of its "popular voting contests" as a means of raising funds for the enterprise, it will be a sure go. CONDON GLOBE, Northwest Herald, Evening Telegram! Such a combinaton would be invincible. Brains and money can build a railroad anywhere.

The clouds have cleared away and every body thinks we are entitled to about six weeks of fine weather before winter begins in earnest. Whether we get it or not is another question.

American yachts are more than a match for their foreign competitors. But come to think of it America takes the lead in many things including fast horses, fast yachts, fast railroad trains, and fast people. We're a speedy nation we are.

A preacher remarked not long ago that if Christ were on earth, the politicians would offer him an office to keep him quiet. This preacher is perhaps somewhat sensational but he has a pretty correct idea of politicians.—Times-Mountaineer.

A number of reform societies in the east are discussing the problem of how indiscriminate divorces can be prevented and all of them so far suggest the enactment of more stringent divorce laws. In this they make a mistake. The evil is not in divorce laws but in society. If they will devote their time to educating people up to the realization of the fact that marriage is something sacred and that libertinism will not be tolerated in either sex, there will be no use of making divorce laws more stringent. It is the fault of the people, not the laws, that divorces are so frequent. —T. M.

Baker city people tell an anxious public "that three mines in Baker county have just been sold for close to $4,000,000." This may or may not be true, but all the mines in Baker are not assessed for taxation purposes as much as $100,000. It is surprising that the people, who pay the taxes to meet the expenses of all kinds of government do not rise up in their might and demand that productive mines contribute their just share. No other interest receives more protection from the state and contributes less to its maintenance than the mining industry, particularly productive mines. They should be taxed the same as other property. And, if they were taxed, there would not be so strong a disposition to over value and over capitalize them, as at present, in order that capitalistic suckers may be better caught.—E. O.

Obituary.

Our citizens were shocked last Friday morning by the sad news of the sudden death of Rev. Wallace Hurlburt, which occurred at about 11 o'clock on Thursday night. Mr. Hurlburt was apparently in his usual health Thursday afternoon and called at the post office for his mail at about 3.30 P. M. Mrs. Hurlburt was away from home that afternoon and when she returned at about 5 o'clock, she found her husband in a very serious condition. She assisted him to the lounge and summoned a physician but the patient soon lapsed into unconsciousness from which it was impossible to arouse him and in spite of all that medical skill could do he passed away at the hour above named.

Wallace Hurlburt was born in Huron county, Ohio, in 1835 and was in his 64th year. When 16 years of age he came to Benton county, Oregon and five years later he felt called upon to give his life to the service of Christ in the ministry of the Congregational church. He was a tireless worker and a close student, traits which, coupled with his zepl and piety, placed him in the front ranks of his branch of the church in Oregon.

The same year in which he entered the ministry he was married to Miss Mary Jackson, who bore him three children, two of whom, A. W. Hurlburt, of Harney county, and Mrs. E. W. Hogue, of Albany, survive him. Seven years later his wife died and in 1867 he was married Miss Carrie St.John, who still survives him.

Fortythree years of his life were given to pastoral and missionary work, all but two of which were spent in Oregon and he leaves a large circle of friends all over the state who will sincerely regret his death.

He had been in Condon but six months respect of the entire community by his unswerving adherence to that course which he believed to be right. Where Duty called he went and no influence could be brought to bear that could induce him to abate his condemnation of those evils to the obliteration of which he had consecrated his life. His funeral occurred on Sunday and was largely attended. Rev. A. T. Clapp, of Forest Grove, conducting the services.
