LOCAL NEWS.

Perry Ham is over from Lone Rock.

Geo. Gibbons was over from Mayville Tuesday.

J. K. Fitzwater returned from Wyoming Sunday.

W. H. Colwell still has 50 head of bucks for sale at his Lone Rock ranch. One and three-year-olds. Call or write.

Rundle Palmer is the boss horse shoer. At Joe Harbin's shop. *

Sheriff Wilcox and Jay Bowerman went out to Ferry Canyon Sunday.

Rev. Bailey, of The Dalles, is holding revival meetings in the hall this week.

Call at Mrs. Henshaw's and see the fine display of the latest styles of winter hats.

Joe Harbin is agent for threshers, engines, headers, and all machine extras and repairs. Call on him. *

P. H. Stephenson and C. S. Palmer went down to Schuttler Flat Sunday for a few day's goose hunting.

FOR SALE.—A good second hand sewing machine. Will be sold cheap. Enquire of Mrs. Horlbart.

John Randall, Harry Strickland and Mr. Huber, of Olex, were in town Saturday and Sunday.

Ed Dunn has been appointed referee in bankrupcy for Gilliam county by the U. S. district court at Portland.

WANTED—Young and old to know that Jackson & Dysart keep a choice stock of Fruits and Pure Confections. *

Sheriff Keeton and family, of Wheeler county went through on the stage Sunday morning on their way to Salem.

Mrs. T. G. Johnson and Mrs. D. S. Brown were at Heppner this week visiting the Eastern Star lodge of that place.

C. L. Baker sold 160 acres of land lying just southwest of town to S. B. Barker, on Tuesday, the consideration being $500.

W. L. Wilcox has purchased the Armstong place in Ferry Canyon, near the John Day river, consisting of a section of fine farming and grazing land.

Joe Harbin has in his employ Rundle Palmer, a practical horse-shoer, who is ready at all times to do fancy or heavy horse shoeing. Try him. *

On account of the county financial statement, published this week, much of our local and county news is boiled down and crowded out.

Orin Jackson attended a dance at the Beecher Flat school house last Friday evening. He reports a big crowd and a good time.

Don't think for a minute that Joe Harbin is going to quit Condon. He has invested too much already to quit because they say he will. *

Elder J. L. Swift, of the Church of Christ, will hold services in the hall at Condon, on first Lord's day at 11 o'clock A. M. and 2 o'clock P. M., Nov. 5th.

Dr. Franklin and Herman Pauling have each filed on homesteads and made of themselves permanent fixtures in Gilliam county. What grangers they will make.

Deputy Sheriff H. J. Day, of Lane county, has "gone wrong" to the amount of $2,000. He took that amount of tax money, went to Portland and forgot to go back home.

The Firemen's Ball to be given in Armory hall Thanksgiving evening will be the grandest affair of the kind ever given in the county. Stick a pin in the date. *

J. R. Frazer and family moved out to their ranch near Lone Rock on Tuesday. Their many friends here regret to see them leave town but will wish them success where they have gone.

Joe Harbin is the leading blacksmith of the county. All his work is warranted. New work a specialty. Wagon racks made to order. Give him a trial. *

Tim Connolly returned from Monument on Friday having sold his band of sheep at that place for a satisfactory figure. Mr. Connolly is undecided about what he will engage in next but thinks he may buy another band of sheep.

A half dozen couples from Condon and vicinity attended the ball at Olex Friday evening. They report a good time and were all highly pleased with the hospitality of Wade Bros. The dance and supper were free and everybody enjoyed themselves to the utmost.

Heppner had a $5,000 fire last week. The flames started in a frame saloon in the Palace hotel block at 5.30 A. M. and only excellent work on the part of the volunteer fire company saved the city. Condon is fortunate in having a like organization but will be more fortunate if its services are never needed.

Frank H. Ralston, of Lone Rock, through his attorney, Sam E. Van Vactor, has filed a petition in bankruptcy in the U. S. district court, at Portland. His assets are named at $4722.13 and his liabilities at $3870.12. Mr. Ralston was forced to this step by certain of his creditors who refused to wait until later in the season when he could have made collections and pulled out all right.

Jim Dunn returned Sunday from Salt Lake. He left Condon about two months ago and visited the Seven Devils country, in Idaho, and later went on to "Zion." He says the Seven Devils is a fine country with a brilliant future and thinks Salt Lake is the finest city he ever saw. As the place has always been noted for its beautiful women such an opinion on Jim's part is not to be wondered at.

C. W. Crossfield arrived from Portland Saturday and has taken charge of the Hudson drug store. Mr. Crossfield has had ten years experience in the drug business and carries two certificates of Pharmacy from this state. He lately held a position with the Aldrich Pharmacy, of Portland, and comes well recommended. He is here to stay and hopes to receive his share of the public patronage.

T. G. Johnson has sold his livery barn, hay, vehicles, and part of his stock to F. M. Springston and J. A. Rodgers. The price paid for the real estate was $2,000 and the other property will bring the aggregate price up to nearly $4,000. The purchasers are both well known men and will doubtless make a success of the business. Mr. Johnson will not leave Condon but will engage in some other business here.

Mrs. S. E. Wilson has taken charge of the old Delmonico restaurant having bought the lease on the building and fixtures. The name of the house will be changed to the "Model" and the place will henceforth be a model restaurant in every sense of the word. Mrs. Wilson will run a strictly first-class house and assures those who may patronize her of the best of treatment and attention. She has 8 or 10 well furnished rooms in connection with the restaurant.
