LOCAL NEWS.

Miss Sadie Parman went to Pendleton Tuesday.

John Maddock will leave today for Chicago.

Randle Palmer is the boss horse shoer. At Joe Harbin's shop.

H. G. Jordan went to The Dalles Tuesday on a business trip.

T. G. Johnson started to Portland Tuesday on a business trip.

Tickets for the Bremen's ball are now on sale at P. H. Stephenson's store.

Joe Harbin is agent for threshers, engines, headers, and all machine extras and repairs. Call on him.

Jackson & Dysart are building a slaughter house in T. G. Johnson's field, about a mile west of town.

County Superintendent Daggett is here this week visiting the schools of this and adjoining districts.

Mrs. Henshaw has just received a new line of street hats. Ladies should call and see them.

WANTED—Young and old to know that Jackson & Dysart keep a choice stock of Fruits and Pure Confections.

Jim Poindexter has sold 320 acres of land to John Maddock. The land adjoins the Maddock ranch on Thirtymile.

Joe Harbin has in his employ Randle Palmer, a practical horse-shoer, who is ready at all times to do fancy or heavy horse shoeing. Try him.

James Johnson, of Fossil, was here Tuesday. He is making preparations to go to Wisconsin on a visit for the winter.

When you come to Condon, early or late and want to eat a good square meal, stop at the old reliable house that never changes hands—The Condon Hotel.

Joe Harbin is the leading blacksmith of the county. All his work is warranted. New work a specialty. Wagon racks made to order. Give him a trial.

Barker & Cameron have purchased 1000 head of sheep from Fred Wilson, paying $2.75 for ewes and $2.00 for lambs.

S. S. Grider has been awarded the contract for building the new Baptist church. We understand that work will be commenced at an early date.

Don't think for a minute that Joe Harbin is going to quit Condon. He has invested too much already to quit because they say he will.

Frank Plitter has recently purchased 1200 sheep from McWillis Bros., of Wheeler county. The price was $2.72 1/2 for ewes and $2.00 for lambs.

The Firemen's Ball to be given in Armory hall Thanksgiving evening will be the grandest affair of the kind ever given in the county. Stick a pin in the date.

B. Giede had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs last Friday evening which was followed Saturday by a severe chill and high fever. Dr. Luna was called Sunday and found the patient in a very serious condition.

R. M. Johnson and P. L. Ham came over from Lone Rock Saturday. Mr. Johnson is on his regular semi-annual "round up" among the flocks and herds of Gilliam county in his official capacity as stock inspector.

Mr. Crossfield, representing Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., of Portland, was here Sunday night on his way to Mayville where he gave one of his famous plow shows on Monday. While here he visited his son, C. W. Crossfield who is in charge of the Hudson drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hudson left for The Dalles Tuesday morning where they will visit their son, Dr. J. H. Hudson, for a time. They will look around mean while for a location where they can secure a pleasant home in which to spend their declining years.

In the county court on Thursday of last week the petition of W. B. Roberts for a liquor license at Lone Rock was refused for the reason that a remonstrance was presented that had more signers than the petition. Messrs Goff and Williams were over looking after the interests of the remonstrators.
