

THE CONDON GLOBE

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1899. THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

Senator Pettigrew's inquiry as to whether the United States forces have ever recognized the Filipino insurgent's flag...

If the pictures of young Adelbert Hay, as they appear in the daily papers are true to life, the kid should be in some good public school rather than being sent as American consul to so important a post as Pretoria...

The appointment of Governor Lord, of this state, as minister to Argentina, was confirmed by the senate on Friday of last week.

The propositions and plans for construction of the Pacific cable are numerous, and various syndicates are making strong efforts to obtain control of it.

INDIAN DEPREDAATION CLAIMS.

Senator McBride has introduced a bill amending the Indian depre-dation act of 1891 by providing that all claims for property taken, damaged or destroyed by any Indian...

OREGON SENATORS ON COMMITTEES.

The following are the committee assignments of the Oregon senators: McBride—Coast defense, chairman; commerce, Indian depredations, public lands, forest reservations and the protection of game, interoceanic canals, Philippines.

Simon—Irrigation and reclamation of arid lands, chairman; judiciary, mines and mining, Revolutionary claims, investigate the condition of the Potomac river front at Washington, public buildings and grounds, investigate trespasses on Indian lands.

A MORAL QUESTION ALSO.

In deciding the Roberts case the house went so far as to ignore a thoroughly established precedent in deference to a public sentiment that was expressed in numerous petitions and by numerous persons and associations in and out of Washington.

Its action was clearly without technical defense. There was no allegation of irregularity in Robert's certification. The integrity of the returns upon which he received his certificate of election was not impeached.

revoke to polygamy or whether it would have been satisfied with regular procedure that has been followed for a century is a question upon which there is a diversity of opinion.

If, however, Roberts is to be damned, Quay, of Pennsylvania, who is trying to break into the senate, should be doubly damned. Here is a great opportunity for the senate to score a victory for public morals that will throw the house completely in the shade.

The rejection of Quay, unlike that of Roberts, would not be a departure from precedents. On the contrary, it would be in strict conformity with all senatorial precedents, which Mr. Quay himself helped to establish.

Public sentiment, the law and the precedents are all against Quay. His title is challenged by the people of his own party.

MAYVILLE.

Mayville is to have a Xmas tree on Xmas eve at the church. Turkey shoot and other sports Monday and a dance Monday night.

McConnell & Edelman will put in a stock of groceries at the bowling alley. Miss Mabel Halstead, of Condon, was here Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. N. J. Hawk, of Badger, is seriously ill. Miss Cassie McDowell has been quite sick with erysipelas but is now better.

Mrs. J. D. Livingston has been on the sick list. Harvey Barnett, of Turner, came up on Tuesday's stage to spend the winter with his brother, Pat Barnett.

Rev. Lamar will preach a Xmas sermon Sunday. Every body invited. Rev. Archer, of Fossil, preached here last Sunday. He will make a regular appointment for the 3rd Sunday in each month beginning on the New Year.

LONE ROCK.

The hills are covered with snow a couple of inches deep but the low ground is mostly bare. Stockmen have not commenced feeding their herds yet.

Mrs. H. C. Clark, of this place, is down sick at Hardman, where Rev. Clark is holding revival meetings.

The Ralston bankrupt stock invoiced at about $1,000 and is being sold off as fast as possible.

N. A. Goodwin moved his family over to the Dry Fork neighborhood this week. Messrs. Phillips and Crabb, of Lost Valley were doing business here the first of the week.

A cavalry horse buyer was to be here last Friday and the town was full of war horses but the buyer failed to come.

The temperance people have scored a handsome majority over the license people again and are now preparing for future campaigns.
