The Condon Drug Co. has doubled its advertising space in the Globe for the new year. Mr. Palling, the manager of that institution says their business is growing nicely and he considers much of their success due to their past judicious advertising.

Misses Sadie and Maggie Russell, of Trail Fork, will leave today for The Dalles where they will enter the Sister's school. Mrs. Russell will accompany her daughters to see them comfortably settled.

Dr. Luna received a letter from Dr. Reeves on Monday that he was closing up his business there with the intention of returning to Condon in the near future. It is understood that his family will accompany him when he returns.

A "watch party" made "Rome how" in Condon at one minute past twelve New Year's morning. Oil cans, frying pans, pistols, yells and even the fire bell were united in a deafening din. When the fire bell sounded every man in town who was in bed at the time, landed in the middle of the floor and began trying to get into his nether garments wrong end to. It was perhaps fun for the boys but it was a heartrending experience for the sleepy heads.

The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Russell, on Trail Fork, was invaded by an army of friends on New Year's eve and a most pleasant evening was spent. Games, dancing and refreshments occupied the time "from drowsy eve till early morn" and all enjoyed themselves to the utmost. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hardie, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hardie and family, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. John Magee, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. Bour, and their families, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Summers, Miss Helen Summers, of Pendleton, Miss Drucia Cooney, Stewart Campbell and Charlie Johnson.

W. A. Maxwell has sold the Arlington Record to the Record Publishing Company, it being understood that Mr. S. A. D. Gurley, the well known attorney, will have editorial charge of the paper. We extend the right hand of fellowship to Mr. Gurley, and wish himself and his associates much success in their venture. Mr. Maxwell will retire to his recently purchased farm in Yakima county, Washington, there to enjoy the pleasures of a purely pastoral existence. A reverent neighbor; may your shadow never grow less.

Judge J. B. Mattingly, of Mayville, was in town a day or two last week. The judge reports that there is some pretty crooked work going on in his neighborhood but intimates that there will be a turning over of things there soon. It is understood here that the judge, who has had wide experience in such work, has received a special commission from Salem to ferret out the wickedness which he says prevails in his bailiwick, and those who are familiar with his past record as Indian fighter, peace officer and jurist in the early days of Nebraska believe that he will make things pop in this country when he gets fairly started.
