The roads are getting in fine shape and wheat teams have put in their appearance on our streets once more.

An agent was in our town a few days ago working up business for the Columbia River R. R. & Navigation Co. They propose to have boats on the river early in the spring and their rates on wheat to Portland will be much lower than the present rate. The transportation company considers Arlington quite an important shipping point and if the prospects for a crop of wheat materialize this will be a lively place for the next year. The crop prospects for Gilliam are the best in the history of the county.

Grand Ball.

The grand ball to be given on the 14th inst. will be a "hammer." Nothing will be left undone to insure a good time to those who attend. The greatest danger from colds and grippe is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by The Hudson Pharmacy, C. W. Crossfield, Mgr.

Teachers' Examinations.

Notice is hereby given that the county superintendent of Gilliam county will hold the regular examination of applicants for state papers at Condon, Oregon, on February 14, 15, 16, and 17, 1900, as follows:

Commencing Wednesday, February 14, at 9 o'clock A. M. and continuing until Saturday, February 17, at 4 o'clock.

Wednesday—Penmanship, history, algebra, spelling, reading, school law.

Thursday—Written arithmetic, theory of teaching, grammar, book-keeping, physics, civil government.

Friday—Physiology, geography, mental arithmetic, composition, physical geography.

Saturday—Botany, Plane Geometry, general history, English literature, psychology.

E. W. Daggett, County Superintendent.

To Whom it May Concern.

I wish to state to the people of Gilliam county, that I never authorized any one to ask county aid for my wife either before or since she was under a doctor's care in Portland. The aid allowed by the last session of the county court was without my knowledge or consent as I have never asked the parties who made the complaint for help or money.

GEORGE F. FARBER.

REGISTER! REGISTER!

All voters should remember that there is a new law on the statute books of Oregon, requiring voters to register on or before the 15th day of May prior to election. If you don't register you can't vote—at least without lots of trouble—so when in town be sure and call at the clerk's office and attend to this important matter.

The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employe of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardiner, Me. He says: 'I had kept adding to a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Honohan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I get a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines. For sale by Hudson Pharmacy, C. W. Crossfield, Mgr.'

Miss Effe Randall visited in Arlington last week.

W. L. Tobey spent several days in Portland last week.

W. H. Shell has been buying horses for the Portland market. He shipped one load averaging over 1500 pounds.

Miss Huber, an accomplished young lady of Monmouth, is visiting her sister Miss Mary Huber, at the home of T. C. Mobley.

Mrs. H. J. Nott returned Sunday from Stayton, Marion county, where she has been visiting with her parents since Christmas. She was accompanied by Miss Susie Kearns, of Stayton, who came to visit with Mrs. Shelton, of Arlington.

We see by a recent issue of the Globe that the business men of Arlington are going to build a good road from that city to Rock creek. That will be grand and as we are going to have a railroad soon we can use the turnpike to exercise our driving horses.

Mr. E. Litor, we notice that you are organizing over the fact that the county court has decided to stop the pay of the deputies some time in the future. Our precinct had a man round you up on that in '98. Can't you find a man in some other part of the county to put on the gloves with you this time?

Shelby Elmonson, Charley Wilkins, Frank Toby and Frank Little went to Arlington last Saturday night to ride the A. O. U. W. goat and it is said they set the brute with a grace and dignity that would have reflected credit on the most expert broncho buster that ever straddled a cayuse but Frank Toby, being a leather weight, was bucked so high that he looked over Mr. Hood and says it was raining at Portland.

E. and Jim McMillan, of Wasco, visited their old friends, Will and Jim Cooke last week. The boys were old time friends in California, and as the Cooke ranch is proverbial all over this and adjoining counties for hospitality there is no doubt that their visit was a pleasant one.

There will be a dance at Olex the 11th.

The proposed new town of Shaniko promises to be a "hammer" before the spring flowers fade. It is expected that the railroad will reach that point by the first of April and then building operations will begin in earnest. A $12 000 water system will be put in and other metropolitan features will be instituted. A bank, a warehouse, stockyards etc. will be some of the first projects launched in the new city.

A Convincing Answer "I hobbled into Mr. Barkmon's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: 'Well if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a little of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by The Hudson Pharmacy, C. W. Crossfield, Mgr.
