THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

The Group invite correspondence from all setions of dilliam county. We sim to make like paper the leading news necdamied the senity and invite one rived a treatment of the senity and invite one rived a treatment in by ending in the news of their respective sights/rhoods. Correspondence must be igned by the writer, not necessarily for generation to the writer, not necessarily for generation to the writer, not necessarily for generation to the writer, not necessarily for generation in the manufacture of page 1818, and he editor assumes no responsibility for opin-base axpressed by correspondicing.

In a recent issue the Arlington Record devotes considerable space in an attempt to convince the voshould vote for, and elect, P. L. Ham, the republican nominee for sheriff. The only reason advanced by the Record for this position is that W. L. Wilcox, the present incumbent of the office and the demecratic nominee, has held the office 12 years. The Record admits that Mr. Wilcox is a "good man" and does not attempt to deny but that he has given universal satis-faction as an official and has always been faithful and true in the discharge of his duties. It would appear to us that the Record has made a mistake. In calling attention to Mr. Wilcox's continued service in the sheriff's office it but which he is held by the people.

No question has ever been raised as to the neat and orderly manner in the neat and orderly manner in "intimidating" a million railroad men, "intimidating" a million railroad men, "intimidating" a million farmers and everyconducted, while in his dealings with the people Mr. Wilcox has ever been found courteous and obliging. The Record will find that an appeal to blind partisan-ship will have but little weight ship will have but little weight with the intelligent voters of Gilliam county. They have been too long accustomed to marking their own ballots to respond to party aports of the street own ballots to respond to party aports of the street own ballots to respond to party aports of the street own ballots to respond to party aports of the street own ballots to respond to party aports of the street own ballots to respond to party aports of the street own ballots to respond to party aports of the street own ballots own ballots of the street own ballots own ballots of the street own ballots of the street own ballots of the street own ballots own ballots own ballots of the street own ballots own bal own ballots to respond to party appeals in this year of grace, or to relish being named for any individual simply because they exercise their right to vote for the man rather than the party in county

Hon. Wm. Smith, of Baker City. candidate for congress in this district on the democratic ticket, was here Saturday getting acquainted with the voters. It was expected that Mr. Smith would speak here during the campaign, but his visit at that time was rather unexpected, at that time was rather unexpected, the local managers of the campaign not having had sufficient notice to properly advertise his coming. Mr. Smith is a pleasant gentleman, an entertaining talker on political questions and makes a good impression wherever he goes. He at present represents the people of his district in the state senate and was the recognized leader of the minority at the last session, where his ability and integrity won the high-est esteem and respect of his fellow members without regard to politics.
His record as a fighter of "grafts" and "boodling" in the senate chamber is well known and it is safe to say that if he is elected to congress he will be found, in season and out of season, looking out for the best interests of the people of his district and of the whole country as against the big corporations fest the national capitol.

Prof. W. R. Neal, democratic candidate for school superintendent candidate for school superintendent is out from Arlington this week looking after his interests in the campaign. Prof Neel has the supcampaign. Prof. Neal has the support of practically every teacher in the county, which is one of the best assurances needed that he will be elected. He has been identified with educational work all his life. campaign. Prof. Neal has the supwith educational work all his life and will continue to be so engaged until the finish, and, the teachers say, that is the kind of a man whom they want to direct the school work of Gilliam county. Who will say the teachers do not know what they are talking about? church members last week.

We learn from the East Oregonian that Mr. Henry Crass, of Arlington, passed the required examination before the supreme court, but is up again. He says he has at Pendleton, last week, and was covered that hard work hurts him. admitted to practice law. It is to admitted to practice law. It is to be presumed that Mr. Crass will now retire from school work, in which he has been engaged for the past three years, and take up the more lucrative profession of law. Mr. Crass is at present an aspirant for the office of county school superintendent, but the weight of opinion among the voters is that that important office should be filled by important office should be filled by time treating to cigars?

Just a hint is given of one of the features of Government ownership of railroads in the threat of the letter-carriers to defeat for re-election members of Congress who fild not vote to suit them on the postal bill. If a few letter-carriers feel strong enough to intimidate members of Congress, what might not a million railway employees accomplish?—Oregonian.
