The famine camps have been swept by cholera and smallpox. Fugitives, scattering in all directions and stricken with flight, were found delirious in the fields, numbers at the door of the famine camps, and the members all made prisoners. There was considerable trouble for an hour or so but the boys were finally given their freedom and allowed to go on their own recognizance. The "mob" consisted of a dozen or so charming members of the Women of Woodcraft lodge and they were armed with the only weapons which will cause a Woodman to surrender—namely, beauty, sandwiches, cake and lemonade. A pleasant evening was passed and the boys all hope to be attacked in the same fashion as often as may be convenient.

THE VOTE OF OREGON

Republicans Win the General Election.

THE MAJORITY IS NOT LARGE

Republican Candidates for State Offices and Congressmen Elected—Legislature Will Be Republican.

Portland, June 5.—Returns received up to 3 o'clock this morning give very little definite information. They indicate, however, that the state is safely Republican. The vote polled fell considerably short of the registration, and for the most part the election was very quiet. Wolverton is re-elected judge of the supreme court, and Bailey is re-elected dairy and food commissioner. Moody is safe for congressman in the Second district and probably Tongue in the first, with slightly reduced plurality. The legislature will be Republican, but probably less heavily so than the last one. Fusionists were successful in electing part of the county officers in several counties.
