FLIGHT OF THE BOERS

French Comes Up With Rear of the Dutch Army.

IT IS IN DISORGANIZED RETREAT

Making for the Mountains in the Leydenburg District—Bethlehem Boers Hummed To.London, July 30.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Roberts:"French and Hutton continued their pursuit on July 26. The former crossed Oliphants' river, and from the high ground on the east bank he could see Middleburg and the enemy retiring in great disorder. The main road north was blocked for several miles with battered wagons. The enemy's rear was then seven miles north.Mounted forces were still west of the river. Night was closing in; the rain was falling in torrents, and so it was impossible to follow. The night was terrible. In addition to the rain a strong east wind made the bivouac most uncomfortable. One officer, I regret to say, died of exposure, and the mortality among the mules and oxen was great. The men made light of the hardships, and were in famous spirits when I saw them.""Hunter has occupied Forsterburg, and so far as I know did not suffer loss.
He found Mrs. Steyn, wife of the ex-president, and several of our men whom Dewet had captured at different times and whom he was unable to send to Machododorp.""The enemy in the Bethlehem hills are now closed in upon. Basuto and closed them. Harri Smith is the only one open, and it will not be easy for them to reach there with guns and wagons.""Broadwood is still watching Christian Dewet, who has taken up a position on high hill near Ratsburg, about seven miles south of the Vaal. P. De-wet, a younger brother of Christian, surrendered at Kromstadt yesterday.""Barron reports from Krugersdorp that he has reconnoitered the railway to Bank Station, where the train was wrecked on July 19, and been enabled to replenish his supplies.""Methuen's column, which reached the Krugersdorp-Potchefstroom Railway, is now moving on Potchefstroom.""Buller reports that the railway was opened to Heidelberg yesterday, giving us through communication to Natal."

SIX HUNDRED KILLED.

That Is the Cost of the Revolution in Columbia.Colon, July 30.—The liberal rebellion in this department has ended after the sacrifice of more than 600 lives, the liberals having been the greatest sufferers, while the wounded number many hundreds. Dr. Mendoza, representing the liberals, and General Alban arranged yesterday for a cessation of hostilities, the Colombian liberals believed to surrender their arms and being guaranteed their freedom from prosecution and the retention of all political rights. The foreigners who took sides with the rebels are to be banished within a week. General Herrera and Dr. Parks, who were active in the revolutionary interests, have already left Panama. The work of burying the dead on both sides is in progress. Panama has been plunged into the deepest mourning by the loss of many of its most prominent men on both sides in this conflict. The armies were provided with arms of the latest model. Colon has been tranquil throughout the rebellion.

Trouble on Southern Borders.

El Paso, Tex., July 30.—The immigration situation here grows worse daily. Notwithstanding the fact that the force of guards has been materially increased along the river, naturally occurring demonstrations are not sufficient to prevent pauper and contract emigrants collected in Juares from crossing the border and scattering into the interior. Customs inspectors captured 14 Italian emigrants who had crossed the border and boarded a northbound Santa Fe train which was about to start. These emigrants were sent back. The statement comes from Durango and Chihuahua, Mex., where there are several thousand Chinese, that hundreds contemplate returning to China, and are drifting this way to take advantage of the exclusion act and get free transportation.

Miners from Klondike.

Victoria, B. C., July 30.—The Cottage City arrived this afternoon, bringing about $100,000 in gold. She had a number of Klondikers on board.
News was brought by her that the miners had found rich placer diggings at the headwaters of the Yukon. Over 500 miners had stamped to finds in Glacier bay.

Woman Mail Carrier Killed.

Roseburg, Or., July 30.—Mrs. D.
N. Fish, mail carrier from Glendale to Starvation, was instantly killed near Glendale this morning. The team became frightened and ran away and she was thrown from the buggy. She struck on her head and her neck was broken.

To Be Reinstated.

New York, July 30.—A special to the Times from Paris says: It is probable that several generals who were put on the retired list by former Minister of War Gallifet after the Dreyfus trial will shortly be reinstated in the army. Generals De Negrier and Zurlinden will both probably receive command of army corps. This further proof of the government's conciliatory policy will be favorably received by public opinion.

A PERILOUS JOURNEY.

Through the Whirlpool of the Chicago Drainage Canal.Chicago, July 29.—Drawn into the maelstrom of the great windage basin of the drainage canal at Lockport, carried 20 feet beneath the surface of the whirlpool; rising again, only to be caught by the current that was pouring hundreds of thousands of cubic feet of water into the valley below, and hurled through the great sluiceway opening and carried 200 feet through the foaming rapids of the open channel, to be finally rescued alive and in a fair way to recovery was the experience of Peter Smith, of Joliet. Michael Ryan, who is superintending the work at the controlling works, and his assistant, John Herman, escaped the same perilous journey by a narrow margin.The whirlpool in the windage basin has been caused by the raising of the bear-trap dam and the opening of the sluiceway gates, through which it was originally intended that the greater portion of the 300,000 cubic feet of water should flow every minute. The bear trap had been raised above the surface of the basin in order that the big force of men working on the false-work of the proposed suspension bridge could proceed with the operations without endangering their lives.Smith, Ryan and Herman were in a boat crossing over the basin, and had their boat sucked in to the maelstrom. Herman and Ryan sprang into the water and swam to the shore, but Smith was thrown by the force of the whirlpool into the whirlpool, disappearing from sight instantly.Down through 30 feet of water he shot. With tremendous force he was caught by the current and hurled through the gates. Luckily his knee was the only portion of his body to come in contact with any of the masonry, otherwise he certainly would have been crushed to death. Below the gate he was caught in the rapids and carried 200 feet through the swirling, turbulent waters, tossed about like a rubber ball.Finally his feet struck the rocks in the shallow, and he managed to hold on until rescuers reached him.

ACTED UNDER ORDERS.

Why Rear-Admiral Kempff Did Not Fire On the Taku Forts.Washington, July 27.—The navy department today made public the mail reports of Rear-Admiral Kempff, explaining his reasons for refusing to join with the ships of the other powers in the attack on the Taku forts, and giving an account of the attack, which includes many details not heretofore published. Admiral Kempff also includes the report of Commander Wise, of the Monocacy, giving a graphic account of the action. Rear-Admiral Kempff's explanation for refusing to participate in the attack of the fortifications of a power with which we were at peace is warmly commended by Secretary Long. The reports are as follows:"United States Flagship Newark.
Taku, China, June 17, 1900.—Sir: I would state what follows in regard to the happenings previous to the resolve yesterday by other senior foreign naval officers here to get possession of the Taku forts:"2.—On Thursday, June 14, Rear-Admiral Bruce called and asked what I thought of the matter, and I informed him that I was not authorized to initiate any act of war with a country with which my country was at peace; that my limit was to protect American interests, both by regulations and under recent instructions from both the department and from the commander-in-chief of the United States naval force on the Asiatic station.""3.—On the 15th, at a consultation of the other foreign naval officers, it was agreed that the railroad station at Tong Ku should be taken (the railway is under Chinese government control), and in case any Chinese government force acted against the force of any foreign nation, all should be involved and act unitedly. Under my instructions, I could not join in taking possession of Chinese government property, and did not care to become a party to such an agreement without special authority.""4.—Yesterday, June 16, the same foreign naval officers signed a compact that it was necessary to take temporary possession of the Taku forts and notice was served on the vicar of Tien Tsin and on the commandant of the forts.
Consuls at Tien Tsin were informed of what was contemplated. I did not join in the attack on the forts. Captain Wise, of the Monocacy, had orders to protect American interests, but in case of attack by a Chinese government force, he was to consider it as a declaration of war and act accordingly. Very respectfully,
"LOUIS KEMPF,
Rear-Admiral, U. S. N.,
Washington, D. C."
