WADE BROS., Olex. Mrs. ELIA ANGELL, Mayville. Other agents will be appointed, and their names added to this list later.

LOCAL NEWS.

Albert King took a spin to Arlington and back on his wheel last week.

Jean Labous went to Trail Fork last Saturday to visit friends for a few days.

Miss Miller, of Seattle, arrived last Thursday for an extended visit at S. S. Grider's.

J. H. Downing went to Arlington the first of the week to purchase a supply of grain sacks, etc., preparatory to threshing his crop.

Nelson & Portland are building an addition to their livery barn this week to better accommodate their increasing business.

Miss Ora Blake, who has been visiting the family of her uncle S. S. Grider for the past two months, left Friday morning for her home at Pendleton.

R. M. Johnson, of Lone Rock, was here Monday to meet his sister, Mrs. Noble, who arrived on that day from California to make him a visit.

Miss Florence Hawk, who has been stopping at Rinehart's restaurant for some time, was called home to Mayville yesterday by the dangerous illness of her sister.

Dr. J. H. Hudson of The Dalles came out Monday on a business trip. The doctor is looking well and his genial appearance indicates that the world is dealing kindly with him.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Pogg, of Matney Flat, have returned from a month's visit with friends at Walla Walla. Mrs. Pogg's aunt, Mrs. McCormick, accompanied them on their return.

Judge Arthur Fraser, of Portland, visited his brother H. N. Fraser last Friday, returning to Portland Saturday. He came out to take home his young son who has been visiting his uncle's family for several weeks.

Miss Mary Maddock and her sister Maggie, who spent last week visiting at the Cooney ranch, returned Sunday. They also spent one day at the Coffin ranch on Thirty-mile, and report having had a most enjoyable time at both places.

A letter from Frank Maddock, who is in charge of a band of sheep in the mountains near Austin, Grant county, states that he is having a grand time killing game and catching fish, there being plenty of both, he says, where he is camped.

Jim Dunn arrived last Friday from Arlington, where he was laid up for a couple of weeks, on his way from the East, with a severe attack of pneumonia. He is glad to be back to Condon, and hopes his health will rapidly improve in this excellent climate.

Fred Wilson went to Rock creek Monday to bring back his sister, Miss Belle, who has been visiting her uncle there for a few days. Miss Wilson is an experienced school teacher, having taught school in Michigan, from which state she recently came to Oregon.

This is the time of year when the blacksmith is rushed with work from daylight till dark. There is always a great deal of resetting done during the dry season, and as harvesting proceeds there is also considerable broken machinery to be repaired. A good blacksmith can now strike a job in almost any town in the state.

A man coming up from Portland a few days ago, said he was looking for a steady job. He had been working in Eastern Oregon, where he said the work wasn't steady enough, so he threw up a job he had there and started for the valley. He began work at 4 o'clock in the morning, stopped a few minutes for breakfast, worked until noon, stopped a short time for dinner, worked until 6 o'clock, stopped for supper, and then worked until 9:30, when they quit work entirely—until 4 o'clock next morning. What he wanted was a place where there was work all the time.—Albany Herald.

A Corvallis Chinaman who has just received a letter from his wife says: "In China muchee tubble; Chinamen no likee. Too muchee fight, all same Melican man." Among other things the war has raised the price of rice from 1 to 5 cents a pound. Before the war it cost 1 cent a pound to get a pig through the custom-house; now it is 5 cents. He puts the situation this way: "Chinaman makee heap tubble. Ketchum China girl, makee Chlistian, too. Boxer no likee. Cut 'em Chlistia head off. Chinaman no likee Boxer; all same Injan."

John J. King, who spent last summer in Condon, where he made many friends and established an enviable reputation as a ball player, came up from Salem last Thursday to visit his Gilliam county friends. He is accompanied on the trip by his brother Albert King. The boys came to The Dalles by boat and from there to Condon on their wheels, making the run from The Dalles to this place in one day. Mr. King was the democratic nominee for recorder of Marion county at the last election, but he says that county is too strongly republican for a democrat to get elected.

Geo. Brassfield was up from Olex Tuesday.

A shower sufficient to settle the dust fell yesterday morning.

M. O. Clarke expects to finish his work as assessor next week.

The Blue Mountain Eagle has been moved from Long Creek to Canyon City.

A. Hartman and sons expect to thresh in the neighborhood of 20,000 bushels of No. 1 wheat this season.

Rev. Bramblet will preach at the Baptist church in Condon next Sunday, Aug. 12th, at 11 a. m. and 4 p. m. All are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Van Vector and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pattison enjoyed an outing in the timber back of Lone Rock Saturday and Sunday. No fish stories.

W. A. Campbell, the popular and handsome insurance expert, came in Sunday and has been circulating among his numerous friends since.

Miss Carrie Danneman, of Clem, and Mr. Homer Wood, of Arlington, came in from Clem on their wheels Tuesday evening to visit the Misses Maddock. They returned yesterday evening.

The Shurtle & Weir Co. of Arlington have a change of ad. in their space this week which is worth reading. Don't overlook it. Their items in the business local column are also interesting. Look them up.

Negotiations for the purchase of the Condon Drug Co.'s store by the Hudson Pharmacy have been pending for several days and on Monday Dr. Hudson arrived from The Dalles with a view to closing the deal. We understand that on Tuesday morning a contract was agreed allowing one week for the consummation of the sale.

Prof. B. B. Smith, who will have charge of the Arlington public school for the ensuing year, is here this week attending the teachers' examination. Mr. Smith is a recent arrival from Nebraska, where he was engaged in educational work and was also for a time engaged in the newspaper business. The Globe acknowledges a pleasant call.

Postmaster Riddell, of The Dalles, was arrested Monday on the charge of detaining and opening letters which were addressed to W. H. Wilson, Huntington & Wilson and the county clerk of Wasco county. Some serious complications in regard to his official bond also exist, and it is thought the postmaster has placed himself in a serious position.

"Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach," says O. P. M. Holliday, of Deming, Ind. "His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water and he got better at once. Sold by The Hudson Pharmacy.—C. W. Crossfield, mgr.

The fine showing of American manufacturers at the Paris Exposition this year is likely to win a number of awards from the international juries selected to pass upon the exhibits. According to section 88 of the general regulations governing the Exposition, the French Government will grant the following awards: 1st, the Grand Prix, sometimes called the Diploma of Honor, which is granted for exceptional merit only; 2nd, Gold Medal; 3rd, Silver Medal; 4th, Bronze Medal; 5th, Honorable Mention.

A Minister's Good Work. "I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured." For sale by The Hudson Pharmacy.—C. W. Crossfield, mgr.

Rock Creek. Miss Meda Manchester, of La Cross, Wis., is visiting friends here.

Mrs. John Scrivner, of Gooseberry, was down on the creek last week.

Mrs. John Clark and son, of Ferry Canyon, were visitors here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elix Young, of Hardman, were visitors on the creek Sunday.

Master Arthur Clark, of Juniper Canyon, is visiting his grandparents on the creek.

Frank Brown and Guy Boyd were busy looking after their horses the first of the week.

Mrs. Mary Brown and family were visiting relatives on lower Rock creek the first of the week.

Quite a number of Morrow county's young people came down the creek Sunday on a fishing expedition.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea," says J. H. Doak, of Williams, Oregon. "We were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by The Hudson Pharmacy.—C. W. Crossfield, mgr.

Wheat is quoted in the Portland market at from 54 to 57 cents per bushel.

Mrs. Johnson arrived from Pendleton yesterday to visit her son, R. M. Johnson, of Lone Rock. Her home is in California.

A report reached here yesterday that the Portage Co.'s boat, Frederick K. Billings, which struck a rock in the Columbia below Arlington last week, will be a total loss, except the machinery, which it is hoped may be saved.

Grant Wade, the well-known cattleman of Olex, was in town yesterday. Mr. Wade and Geo. Schott have an outfit in the Hay creek country this week gathering beef cattle and branding their late calves. Mr. Wade was here to engage a carpenter to build a new residence which he expects to complete before winter.

The annual examination of teachers commenced yesterday, with County Superintendent Neal in charge. Teachers present are Miss Susie Stevenson, of Ferry Canyon, Miss Belle Wilson, of Michigan, Mr. B. B. Smith, of Arlington, Miss Adlard, of Ferry Canyon, Miss Lulu Fitzwater and Miss Yoder, of Condon. J. A. McMorris and Miss Susie Stevenson are assistant examiners.

A suit has been filed in the circuit court of Sherman county by D. C. O'Reilly against E. E. Lytle, C. E. Lytle, W. H. Moore, A. E. Hammond and May Enright, officials of the Columbia Southern R. R. Co. The defendants are charged with having defrauded the shareholders of the company to the amount of $130,000.
