Miss Mary Foster, of Portland, arrived in Condon Saturday and will spend the winter here visiting her brothers, Will and Arthur Foster, and her aunt, Mrs. Mary Young. Miss Foster is seeking health in the bracing breezes of Eastern Oregon.

James Box, a former resident of this neighborhood, arrived in town Sunday from Montana. Mr. Box left here three years ago and since that time has seen service as a soldier in the Philippines. He was wounded in the islands and was once reported dead.

HOMESTEADERS

ATTENTION! The GLOBE will publish your final proof notices for $2.50. You now pay $7.50. When ready to make proof ask the Land Office officials to send your notice to this paper that you may save this money. Five dollars saved, in this way, is better than $5.00 earned raising 10 cent wheat; it's so much easier you know. Call at this office and we will tell you all about it.

Den Thomas of the Arlington Warehouse Co. is in town today. Mr. Thomas informs that Kerr, Gifford & Co. of Portland have bought the warehouse, and that the business will be run under the same name and management. Mr. Thomas will continue as manager of the business, and he solicits a continuation of patronage from his old friends and customers.

Arthur Ames, a citizen of Ferry Canyon precinct, returned Monday from an extended visit at Columbus, Washington. While in town, prior to going out to his ranch, he was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Sam E. Van Vactor.

The fair given by the Ladies Aid last Saturday was quite successful. A large number of articles were sold. Miss Louella Maddock was voted the most popular young lady and received the prize, a beautiful quilt.

Nelson & Portwood, the well-known firm of livermen, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Nelson retiring from the firm. Mr. Portwood will continue the business at the old stand and will be pleased to serve all old and new customers in the best manner.

Miss Stella Darling, who has a position in a dressmaking establishment at The Dalles, has just written her sister, Mrs. P. H. Stephenson, that she had been quarantined for several weeks on account of a case of scarlet fever in the house where she is stopping. The embargo has been raised, however, and the family once more have their liberty.

Mike Dukek, of near Mayville, was seriously ill Sunday with blood poisoning the result of a slight cut on his hand from a rusty nail, received a few days before. Dr. Coryell, who was here watching one of his patients, was summoned by telephone and went over Sunday night. When he returned early Monday morning he reported Mr. Dukek's condition much improved.

Mrs. P. H. Stephenson received a letter Monday from Mrs. J. F. Juliette, who is with her husband at the Good Samaritan Hospital at Portland. The letter states that the doctor is recovering his health and strength very rapidly. He now sits up six or seven hours a day and he expects to be able to return to Condon and resume his practice in about three weeks. This is good news to the doctor's many friends at this place.

Mrs. W. A. Darling and Miss Louella Maddock canvassed the town Monday morning for subscriptions to a fund for the purpose of giving the children of the town and neighborhood a Christmas entertainment. The ladies were very successful in their efforts and a Merry Christmas is assured for the little folks. The exercises will be held in the Congregational church at 4 p. m. Monday afternoon, and will be in every sense a public affair for all the children of the neighborhood and all are invited to be present.

LONE ROCK.

December 10.

Bill Hendrix, of Heppner, visited our town the fore part of last week.

Rev. I. D. Brown commenced a series of revival meetings here last Monday evening.

Warren Roberts was very sick for a few days last week with something like pleurisy of the heart.

Quite a thick fog has forced its way up from the Columbia river on several occasions the past week.

Chas. Corom, J. B. Goff and J. M. Williams each brought a fat hog to town last Monday and butchered them just to try Mr. Williams' new scalding vat.

Matlock & Ham had two freight teams bring over merchandise from Heppner a few days since, and the first of the week they sent a six-horse team to Mayville for flour.

A trust was formed among the principal capitalists of our burg last week, with a sufficient capacity that they have built a splintering new foot-bridge across the creek in town. This is an improvement that has been badly needed for many years, even if it does stand crosswise on the county road.

December 17.

Mr. Lovegreen, of Eightmile, visited here this week.

Rev. and Mrs. Clark came home Monday from Hardman, where they have been for several days.

Quite a heavy wind storm passed across the foothill country the fore part of the week, winding up with a light snow storm.

A traveling photograph company of three have their tent stretched in our burg. The town of Spray was their last resting place before coming here.

Dr. Lana of Condon has made a couple of professional visits to our burg in the last few days to see Miss Georgia Perry, who has been seriously ill, but, we are pleased to note, is much improved at this time.

We are credibly informed that the day school scholars will get two weeks' vacation after this week for holiday purposes. Wonder if that will satisfy them, or will they play hooky after vacation just as hard as they do now?

The revival meeting at the Baptist church is still in progress. It was announced that Rev. Bledsoe of Arlington was coming to assist in the meeting and would preach here Monday evening, but he did not arrive in time to fill the appointment.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back or pains in the side or chest, give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. One application gives relief. For sale by The Hudson Pharmacy—C. W. Crossfield, mgr.

While Charlie Habeshon was at Arlington last week the door of his granary became unfastened by some means and two valuable colts, one the property of Mr. Habeshon and the other belonging to Frank Kargl, got inside and proceeded to help themselves to all the grain they could hold. The result of the over-feed was death in both cases and the owners mourn the loss of two valuable animals.

ARLINGTON NOTES. From Independent. Mrs. Chas. Wilkins of Clem is in town this week under the care of Dr. Ruedy. She is suffering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. W. L. Barker and daughter have suffered an attack of tonsillitis this week and Dr. Lazier has been in attendance. They are very much improved at this writing.

J. F. Cooke, of Condon, who was here last week to sell his wheat, made the sale Saturday. His last year's wheat he sold at 26 cents per bushel. Mr. Cooke informed the Independent that he lost about 1600 in holding his wheat over from last year. The 36 cents was clear, above storage. This year's crop went at 43 cents.

Miss Nellie France was married to J. O. Lewis, a successful farmer of Rock creek, last Saturday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sarah France, who resides on Rock creek. Rev. E. Baker officiating. The young couple are very prominent and highly respected residents of Rock creek. The Independent congratulates.

The Arlington Warehouse of this city was sold within the last few days to Kerr, Clifton & Co., extensive exporters of Portland, through their agent, B. F. Tannis, of this city. The new management will take possession the first of the year. The sale is of much importance to the city of Arlington and the wheat-raising belt of this section. The warehouses of this section are now all in the hands of Portland parties.

Paid Dear For His Leg. B. D. Blanton of Thackerville, Tex., in two years paid over $300.00 to doctors to cure a Running Sore on his leg. Then they wanted to cut it off, but he cured it with one box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Guaranteed cure for Piles. 25 cts. a box. Sold by Condon Drug Co.

There were four new pupils enrolled this week—Anna Wallace, seventh grade; Nora Wallace, sixth grade; Ella Wallace, third grade; Eddie Wallace, first grade.

Three pupils were promoted from the fourth to the fifth grade this week—Edith Greenfield, Nellie Springston and Arthur Parrish. The members of that grade from the grammar department are: Emmet Cooney and Charlie Carter.

Owing to the weather being so stormy last Friday night there was so small an attendance at the literary meeting that the debate was put off until next Friday evening, when we will have the same question, which is: Resolved, That more knowledge is gained by reading than by observation.

The Hudson Pharmacy guarantees every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to anyone who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

A Card. I wish to state that in the late difficulty between myself and my wife I now believe that I have wronged her, unwittingly, and I hereby withdraw all charges which I may have made against her. W. J. Bussell.

Condon, Or., December 7, 1900.

Christmas Tree.

A Christmas tree will be held in the Latter Day Saints church on Christmas Eve (Monday evening). All are invited to be present. A program consisting of musical and literary selections will also be rendered. Presents intended for the tree should be left at the church as early on Monday as is convenient.

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenia, Dutchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by The Hudson Pharmacy—C. W. Crossfield, mgr.

Dwelling Burned.

The dwelling of Miles Jewell, of Lost Valley, with all its contents, was burned to the ground Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Jewell were asleep in the house and, when they awoke, had barely time to escape with their lives. Their store of provisions for the winter were also in the house and were lost. The loss is estimated at $500 or $600.
