

THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY, MARCH 28, 1901.

NOTICE.

The GLOBE invites correspondence from all those who have the leading news, matters of the day, and in the opinion of the editor, are of sufficient interest to the readers of the GLOBE. Correspondence must be addressed to the editor, and the name of the contributor must be given, unless the editor is advised to the contrary. The editor assumes no responsibility for opinions expressed by correspondents.

IS READY TO QUIT.

The Weekly Times says the GLOBE "soured" it last week, and says in effect that it has had enough and wants to quit. All right. We don't care to give the outfit any more free advertising; and if it will only quit lying about us we are willing to let it R. I. P. Remember, though, if you attempt any more lies we will give you a nice brown roast next time.

THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST.

"I know a valley in Oregon," said D. H. Sterns, who is stopping at the Van Ness, "that has a river as large as the Winoski flowing out of it and mountains higher than Mount Mansfield all around it, except at a narrow pass through which the river escapes. Above the pass the valley widens out so that there is at least twenty thousand acres of level bottom, one hundred and fifty thousand acres of treeless slopes, and one hundred thousand acres of timbered land up next to the snow line. The soil is rich and capable of producing 40 bushels of wheat to the acre. The climate is mild enough to produce semi-tropical fruits. The summer is long enough to admit of two or three crops to the season on the same land. At least twenty unnamed mountain streams make up the river and all are full of trout.

"In all this valley there is but one solitary claimant of land, and his holding does not amount to 1000 acres. He has cattle, horses and sheep enough to stock a hundred farms he would gladly sell.

"It is easily practical for one hundred farmers and the school teachers, ministers, merchants and mechanics that make up a balanced community to go into that valley with all their industries and in one year establish themselves in permanent property, where they will never again see lightning's flash or feel the blizzard's blast. The soil must be cultivated, the valley must remain as it is until an organized colony goes and takes possession of it. One or two farmers alone would find the rancher and his cattle an obstacle but he would welcome the hundred that could take over the stock that range upon the government land finding its own food the year round. The government gives the land free and the settlers do the rest.

"It is the thousand and one valleys like this lying unoccupied in the Pacific Northwest that is going to receive millions of lucky homeseekers during the next ten years."

—Burlington Free Press.

A HARD PROFESSION.

Editing a paper is a nice business. If we publish a joke, people say we are rattle-headed; if we don't we are a fossil. If we publish original matter, we don't give them enough selections. If we give them selections, we are too lazy to write. If we give a man a little puff, we are partial. If we compliment the ladies, the men are jealous; if we don't, we are publishing a paper that isn't fit to make a bustle of. If we remain in our office, we are too proud to mingle with common people. If we are on the streets, we are not attending to our business. If we speak to everyone, we are too fresh; if we don't speak to everyone, we are not sociable enough to be a public man. If we wear poor clothes, our business don't amount to much; if we wear good clothes, we didn't pay for them. Now what shall we do?—Ex.

The GLOBE readers will please excuse all mistakes made in this issue, as the editor is away and yet "devil" is running the shebang this week. But we think we have done pretty well for a dyspeptic.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe. George W. Wall, of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturer of an honest medicine." For sale by The Hudson Pharmacy—C. W. Crossfield, mgr.

Stops the Cough and works off the Cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

Three trains daily from Portland, with choice of many different routes. Palaces and tourist sleepers, library, dining and chair cars on all trains. Write A. L. Craig, G. P. A., O. R. & N. Co., Portland, Ore., for particulars.

Banker Routs A Robber. J. H. Garrison, Cashier of the bank of Thornville, Ohio, had been robbed of health by a serious lung trouble until he tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Then he wrote: "It is the best medicine I ever used for a severe cold or a bad case of lung trouble. I always keep a bottle on hand." Don't suffer with Coughs, Colds, or any Throat, Chest or Lung trouble when you can be cured so easily. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Condon Drug Co.'s.

He Fooled The Surgeons. All doctors told Renek Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with Becklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world. Surest Pile cure on earth. 25c a box, at Condon Drug Co.'s.

Remarkable Cures of Rheumatism. From the Vindicator, Rutherfordton, N. C. The editor of the Vindicator had had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the most remarkable results in each case. First, with rheumatism in the shoulder from which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts afflicted and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time. Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the liniment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. For sale by The Hudson Pharmacy—C. W. Crossfield, mgr.

Only a few years ago the New York Tribune sent Robert P. Porter, an eminent economist and statistician, to England to inquire into the condition of the laboring people of that country and to compare their status with that of the wage-earners of the United States. As might have been expected, the comparison was overwhelmingly in favor of the American workman.

Now comes the associated press with a statement that the cotton spinners of England are about to suffer a cut in wages because of American competition. In this connection the question might be pertinent, "Where does the American laborer get off after producing goods at a less figure than the same can be produced in England, and paying American trust prices for his food, clothing, light and fuel?"

ARLINGTON NOTES. From Record. The inquiry for lumber from Condon and the Ferry Canyon vicinity is evidence of the number of new comers to this section.

Frank Farrier claims the honor of bringing in the first clip of this season's wool. It was from the band belonging to Smythe & Son.

A. W. Sharrard returned from The Dalles last week, where he had been selecting the spring stock for Lord & Co.'s big store. Almost a car load of new goods has arrived. It can truly be said that this store is keeping pace with some of the large department stores.

Wheat is selling in Arlington this week at 45 cents for club, and 48 cents for bluestem, in large lots. We learn of quite a number of our farmers selling, among whom are Wade Bros., of Olex; W. L. Barker, J. C. Cooney, S. S. Grider and C. B. Ferguson, of Condon and vicinity, and also Tobey Bros.

Mr. B. K. Searcy, of Mayville, was in Arlington on Tuesday last and went out on Wednesday. He came in with his eight-mile team loaded with bluestem wheat, for which he was offered 48 cts., but is holding for 50 cts. Mr. Searcy is one of the leading farmers of this county, as well as one of our best citizens.

We have been informed that W. W. Weatherford has employed the same man who succeeded in locating two wells and getting water for Robert Spencer to bore a well for him. He has located water in the barnyard, and is to have no pay more than board for himself and team unless he gets a sufficient supply of water for all purposes.

J. J. Fix, a former resident of Ferry Canyon, now of Walla Walla, arrived last Saturday to attend the funeral of his brother, Charles Fix. He is still here looking after business matters.

Elder Crumley, of Los Angeles, Calif., general missionary of the Latter Day Saints church for this state, preached here a few evenings last week and also on Sunday. Mr. Crumley is a gifted and entertaining speaker. He left Monday for Independence, Missouri, where he goes to attend the annual general conference of his church.

A Man's a Man For A' That. Is there for honest poverty. That hangs his head, and a' that! The coward slave, we pass him by. We dare be poor for a' that! For a' that, and a' that, Out with it, and a' that! The rank is but the guinea's stamp. The man's the gowd for a' that! What though on hawley far we dine, Wear bodkin gray, and a' that! Gi'e tools their silks, and knives their wive, A man's a man for a' that! For a' that, and a' that, Their linen shoon, and a' that! The honest man, though e'er so poor, Is king o' men for a' that! Ye see you kirkie, and a' that, Wha struts, and staves, and a' that! Though hundreds worship at his word, He's but a cool for a' that! For a' that, and a' that, His ribbed stan, and a' that! The many independent mind, He looks and laughs at a' that! A prince can mak' a belted knight, A marquis, duke and a' that, But an honest man's aboon his might—Gude faith, he mauns fa' that! For a' that, and a' that, Their dignities, and a' that, The yill o' scaws and prite o' worth, Are higher ranks than a' that! Then let us pray that come it may—As come it will for a' that—That sense and worth, o'er a' the earth, May bear the gree and a' that. For a' that, and a' that, It's comin' yet, for a' that—That man to men, the warst o'er, Shall brothers be for a' that.

Growing. A whole section of land upon which to experiment with grasses has been purchased by the O. R. & N. in Morrow county, 4 miles east of Castle Rock, and 40 acres have already been seeded to bunchgrass, bromegrass and Turkestan clover. C. L. Smith, a well-known expert on farming and livestock, has been superintending the preparation of the ground and planting of the seed, and feels confident of satisfactory results. The whole section will be fenced with a rabbit-proof wire network, and all the grasses will thus be protected while growing. Disk harrows are used to prepare the light, alluvial soil for the seed, and ordinary harrows afterward finish the work. By next fall will be known just what grasses succeed best in the arid region along the south side of the Columbia river, and this knowledge will be of immense benefit to the stock interests of the eastern portion of the state.

The bunchgrass seed was raised on the company's farm, near Walla Walla, and as this is the natural grass of that region, there is no question about its bountiful yield, even where the rainfall is not sufficient to mature a crop of wheat. Bromegrass grew to perfection all over the section now blown up into sand dunes and grown up with sagebrush, but years of overstocking and the trampling of herds of sheep, cattle and horses have long since killed it off. It will take time, expense and protection to grow full crops of grass over this level stretch of country, but it will pay well in the end, by the increased number of stock supported.

The Turkestan clover resembles alfalfa, and thrives well in North Central Asia, where the soil and climate strongly resembles that of Eastern Oregon. The general government seeded 40 acres to this grass near North Yakima, Wash., last year, and the yield was very satisfactory.

Bromegrass is a good deal like Kentucky bluegrass, and produces well on light soil where rain enough falls to enable wheat heads to fill. Whether it will do so well where the rain and snowfall are not sufficient to mature wheat is an experiment.—Oregonian.

Mrs. C. E. VanDeusen, of Kilbourn, Wis., was afflicted with stomach trouble and constipation for a long time. She says, "I have tried many preparations but none have done me the good that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have." These Tablets are for sale at The Hudson Pharmacy. Price, 25c. Samples free.

To the Consumers of Gilliam County:

We desire to state that we are determined to reduce our large stock of goods and for the next 90 days will make great reductions in all lines for cash.

By referring to your local papers you frequently note the ad. of interior merchants who, with conspicuous signs, say: "We sell at Arlington prices." Is this not evidence that the Arlington merchants must lead in low prices or there would be no need for such statements? Before purchasing your fall supplies or the smaller bills got prices from us.

In agricultural implements we have the favorite Monitor Drills subject to four attachments, viz. hoe, disc, press wheels or shoe. The Oliver and Flying Dutchman Plows are hard to beat for good clean work, durability and lightness of draft. It is no longer an experiment to buy a Bain or Stoughton wagon, as they have but few if any competitors when strength and light-running qualities are considered.

If you anticipate treating yourself to a new buggy or hack do not purchase until our new carload of the old reliable Racine rigs reach us, which will be here in September. When in need of a chop mill, hay press, windmill, sewing machine, or any kind of machinery used on the farm, write us for prices and we will treat you right.

Address all communications to the firm at the old James W. Smith store.
