

THE GCONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 1901.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

LOCAL NEWS.

Jay Bowerman is at Fossil this week. Frank Wilson returned from Portland Monday.

Charlie Earhart came over from Ione Tuesday.

W. A. Darling left Tuesday for a trip to Tacoma.

T. G. Johnson is having his buildings repainted.

Al Moore's residence has been treated to a fresh coat of paint lately.

J. R. Clark left for Arlington Friday morning on a business trip.

Mike Summers made a trip to Arlington during the week.

District Attorney Menefee was here on official business yesterday.

Boss—Friday April 12, 1901, to the wife of F. F. Clark, a daughter.

Rube McKinney was in town Tuesday looking up a little land business.

A post office has been established at Ajax with Fred Adlard as postmaster.

Fred Wilson, Frank Palmer and Charlie Earhart went to Fossil Tuesday.

B. K. and Al. Searcy went through Monday loaded with wheat for Arlington.

Mrs. C. Schott, of Rock creek, visited her daughter, Mrs. T. G. Johnson, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dunn visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Greiner, of Mayville precinct last Friday and Saturday.

At the teachers' examination held here last week, all of the applicants passed and received certificates.

Palmer Bros. have received the new drill for their well machine and are pounding away on the new city well.

The Danosky boys were in town Monday night with a big load of hides bought in the Monument and Long Creek country.

L. T. Price and family, late arrivals from the Valley, are occupying the Mrs. Downer residence, corner Church and Summit streets.

Sam E. Van Vactor, the well known attorney, is attending court at Fossil this week where he is retained in a number of important cases.

There will be no prayer meeting in the Congregational church tonight owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Curran, who is at Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Greiner were in Monday night on their way to The Dalles where Mrs. Greiner will enter a hospital for a surgical operation.

Mrs. Herbert Halstead and Miss Mabel Halstead went to Lone Rock last Saturday to see Mrs. G. L. Rinehart who is very low with consumption. Her death is expected at any time.

Wm. Winters came in from Prosser, Washington, Monday where he spent the winter. He will spend a few days on his homestead near town but thinks he will spend the summer on Puget Sound.

R. E. Armstrong has returned from Tacoma where he has been for a few weeks with a shipment of horses. He reports fair prices but a slow market on account of the late Spring and unfavorable weather.

Clyde Flint, the Ajax horse ranchman came to town yesterday to have a broken collar bone repaired. Dr. Wood fixed him up but Clyde will take a lay-off for a few weeks. The accident was caused by his saddle horse falling.

W. A. Campbell, poet, sage, insurance man and all around good fellow, came in Tuesday from Sherman county with a complete stock of new Spring stories—vintage of '01. These stories are in great demand in the trout season for bait.

Circuit court is in session at Fossil this week. Judge Frazer, of Portland, is on the bench in Judge Bradshaw's place, the latter being detained at home by the sudden death of his niece, Miss Clara Davis, who was a member of the judge's household.

Herbert Halstead of the Lost Valley Lumber Company, started to Goldendale Saturday to bring over a traction engine which he recently purchased there. He will use the machine for hauling logs from the woods to the saw-mill at Lost Valley. E. T. Hollenbeck went with him and will act as engineer on the homeward trip.

Sheriff Keeton, of Wheeler county, came over from Fossil Sunday and took away the three Wheeler county prisoners who were lodged in the Gilliam county jail last Fall for safe keeping. They will be tried this week on a charge of burglary.—LATER. The prisoners pleaded guilty and were sentenced to the "pen," the two older for two years each and the younger boy for one year.

Not long ago Mrs. Malinda Withers of Mayville, reading Bryan's biography, which gives the family pedigree, became convinced that she was a relative of the famous demo-populist leader, and she wrote asking him his relationship to Stephen Bryan, the founder of Bryan's village, Kentucky, who was her mother's half brother. Mr. Bryan promptly replied that Stephen Bryan was his uncle. Since then they have had further correspondence, and with his last letter Mr. Bryan sent Mrs. Withers a fine photograph of his family group, which she treasures as one of her dearest possessions. Mrs. Withers, who comes of fine Southern stock, is also a cousin of David B. Coleton, who killed a brother officer and a bystander or two last year, and who, when last she heard of him, was in King's Daughters' hospital, Frankfort, to ill from his injuries to stand trial.—Fossil Journal.

Council Meeting.

The newly elected city council met Monday evening and, after qualifying, proceeded with the transaction of routine business.

The salary of the marshal was fixed at $50 a month for the ensuing year.

R. H. Pattison, who has been appointed deputy by Marshal Downing, was present and was instructed by the council to employ workmen to wall up and repair the city well on south Main street.

The new council and mayor seem to take hold of the work with a will and will no doubt give good satisfaction to the people.

A Horrible Outbreak.

"Of large sores on my little daughter's head developed into a case of scald head," writes C. D. Isbill of Morganian, Tenn., but Buckle's Arnica Salve completely cured her. It's a guaranteed cure for Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Sores, Ulcers and Piles. Only 25c at Condon Drug Co's.

The City Election.

The election of city officials last Thursday was a "hot tussle," or, in other words, a warmly contested municipal scrap.

P. H. Stephenson was elected mayor over S. B. Barker and Fred Wilson, F. M. Springwood, J. J. Portland and M. O. Clarke were elected councilmen over J. F. Reischer, W. M. Dunlap and J. R. Clark.

Among the different candidates for council Fred Wilson received the largest vote, 31 citizens casting their ballots for him while J. F. Reischer brought up the rear with only 19 votes to his credit.

E. W. Moore was elected treasurer over G. W. Rinehart and Manley Downing.

"Got there" for marshal over J. A. Kiser for recorder E. A. May got more votes than F. M. Pitter did for the same office and thus the story endeth, at least for the present.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va. This Remedy is for sale by The Hudson Pharmacy—C. W. Crossfield, mgr.

Child Drowned.

Floyd, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Knox, of Fossil, fell over a high embankment into the creek last Thursday evening and was not found until it had been in the water about 20 minutes. Medical aid was hastily summoned and after hard work the child was resuscitated from the effects of the water but a little later died, supposedly from internal injuries sustained in the fall. Mr. and Mrs. Knox lost a daughter a few years ago from the effects of a severe burn and their many friends here will extend warmest sympathy in this latest affliction. Mrs. Knox is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cornett, of Matney Flat.

If troubled by a weak digestion, loss of appetite, or constipation, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Every box warranted. For sale by The Hudson Pharmacy—C. W. Crossfield, mgr.

Railroad Meeting.

At the railroad meeting held in this city last Saturday, the report of the committee on survey was read and accepted. After some discussion it was decided that the time to incorporate the company has now arrived and the committee on incorporation was therefore directed to proceed with their work at once.

This committee, elected at a previous meeting, consists of the following named gentlemen:

W. S. Myers, W. J. Mariner, Fred Tobey, S. B. Barker and W. J. Edwards.

As soon the incorporation is completed stock will be placed on the market and when a sufficient amount is disposed of work will be commenced.

Big Cattle Sale.

John Sparks of Reno, Nev., last Saturday sold out to his partner, his interest in the Sparks-Harrell Cattle Co., the property conveyed comprising 20,000 head of range cattle, 300,000 acres of land and leases for 700,000 acres more. The consideration, in cash and real estate, aggregated $1,100,000. Mr. Harrell is now the largest owner west of the Missouri.—Antelope Herald.

Mr. Sparks came into prominence in Idaho, and adjoining states a few years ago on account of the active part he took in the defence of "Diamondfield Jack" who was charged with the murder of two sheepherders in Cassia county, Idaho about five years ago.

"Jack" was tried a number of times and was more than once sentenced to be hanged. His life was once saved, on the eve of execution by another man pleading guilty to the crime, who was afterwards proven innocent in spite of confession. Mr. Sparks has backed the defense of this famous case from the start.

Suit Settled.

E. E. Lytle, president of the Columbia Southern R. R. Co. has informed the Antelope Republican that the suits between D. C. O'Reilly and the Columbia Southern Company have been settled and dismissed and that the stock of said Company is now controlled by Mr. Lytle and W. H. Moore. He also states that a recent statement made by the Oregonian to the effect that the Columbia Southern is to be extended to some point beyond Sianiko was unauthorized.

Good for Rheumatism.

Last fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this Remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle, was completely cured.—SALLIE HARRIS, Salem, N. J. For sale by The Hudson Pharmacy—C. W. Crossfield, mgr.
