

THE CONDON GLOBE.

Mrs. G. W. Rinehart went to Lone Rock Monday to visit her daughter-in-law, Mrs. G. L. Rinehart, who is very ill.

Read Lord and Co's big new ad in this issue and when in Arlington go there to trade, or send them your mail order.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Crossfield returned from Portland last Thursday. Mr. Crossfield's mother came up with them and is still their guest.

A land contest case in which Yarbrough is contestant and Mrs. Jane Cristie is contestee, is on at the clerk's office this week.

John F. Pinkham came in from Ferry Canyon Friday to remain a few days under medical treatment. He is suffering from grippe.

Miller Carl, of Becher Flat has sold his farm of 240 acres and intends going into the sheep business. The price received was $1750.

Archbishop Christie of Portland, will visit Condon next week and will hold Confirmation services in the Catholic Church here on Tuesday, April 30th.

Loeb—A roll of canvas containing clothing, Friday April 19th, between Thirty mile and the Lost Valley grade. Finder please return to S. B. Barker's store and oblige, Thomas Crowley.

Material was loaded out last week by the Arlington Lumber Co., for dwelling houses of John Nelson and Samuel Hizen, of Ferry Canyon, as well as a large amount for the Wm. Keys & Son warehouse, at Mayville.

Charlie Jayne, of Saltpion, lost his house by fire on Wednesday of last week. The fire originated from a defective flue and was past control when discovered. Most of the contents were saved. Loss about $800. No insurance.

Get prices on building material from the Arlington warehouse Co. They have a large stock of lumber and are selling it. Watch the teams which are loaded out daily which tell the story of right prices and best quality of material.

Al Henshaw returned Sunday from his trip to the Coast. He says the trip was a pleasant one barring the wet, disagreeable weather. He looks as though the Coast diet of crabs, clams, oysters and fish had agreed with him but says he is not as hungry for such delicacies as before he went down.

Robt. Smith was in from Ajax for a few days last week. Mr. Smith came up from the Valley last fall to visit his sons who are located in the Ajax country and was so favorably impressed with Gilliam County that he has decided to remain here. He made a trip to the Valley a few weeks ago to look after business interests.

B. K. Seafey was in town Monday on his way to Arlington with a load of grain. He stopped long enough to tell a fish story—the first of the season—to the effect that himself and Bill Ransy caught 650 trout in Thirty mile Saturday afternoon in less than no time. We flatly refuse to vouch for this story for the very good reason that B. K. failed to bring us a mess of fish.

Herbert Halstead returned from Goldendale Saturday having brought his traction engine as far as Rock creek where it was left on account of high water. The bridge was considered unsafe for so much weight and the water is still high enough to reach into the fire-box. Because of bad roads between Arlington and Goldendale it was necessary to take the engine to Grants and ship it from there to Arlington by rail.

Wm. Looney was in from his home in Ferry Canyon Monday. Mr. Looney has been lame most of the winter from a partially dislocated knee, but did not know just what was the matter until a short time ago while at work at J. M. Cameron's sheep camp he attempted to kick an unruly dog when his knee joint flew back to place and his lameness was gone. Mr. Looney thinks of going to Moscow, Idaho, this summer to visit his children he has not seen for 20 years.

Back to Condon.

Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Gallette returned to Condon on Monday after an absence of several months. The doctor has fully recovered his health and now weighs more than he ever did before. They but recently returned from a ten weeks trip to China and Japan which was taken for the benefit of his health. Their many friends are rejoiced to have them here again and to know that the doctor, who has been despaired of for so long, has been spared for further usefulness.

A Close Call.

County Surveyor Darling had a close call one night last week and it makes his hair stand on end yet when he thinks about it. Mrs. Darling's brother, Joe Parazzo, was here from Pendleton and was visiting at the Darling ranch and when he and L. W. boy, Leslie, went up stairs to retire of course Leslie had to show Joe his new shot gun. While the boys were admiring the weapon, L. W. was preparing to retire in a room directly under the one the boys and the shot gun occupied and when all ready to lie down he stepped into the next room presumably to say his prayers, when bang! went the shot gun. Mr. Darling rushed up stairs and when the smoke cleared away he discovered two badly scared boys, one very empty shot gun and a big hole in the floor right over his bed. Investigation showed that after passing through the floor and ceiling that load of shot didn't do a thing to the pillow on Mr. Darling's bed only fill it so full of holes that it would not hold feathers. If Mr. Darling had gone to bed instead of into the next room his head would have been on the pillow and he would have known all about how it feels to be shot.

Leslie will be darned positive the gun isn't loaded the next time he puts it on exhibition and when Mr. Darling's other boy gets old enough to have a gun the old man will get a suit of bomb proof armour for protection.

Case of Smallpox.

A case of smallpox has developed at Steve Fletcher's ranch about three miles east of town, the victim being a young son of Mrs. August Henroid, of Walla Walla, who is a sister of Mr. Fletcher. Mrs. Henroid and her two children came here about three weeks ago to visit their relatives and on last Saturday the boy developed a genuine case of the dreaded disease. It was learned Sunday that Mr. Henroid is down with the same disease at Walla Walla. The city council met Tuesday and decided to enforce the quarantine ordinance against all persons who have been exposed to the disease and they urge all citizens to use every precaution against its spread.

A Horrible Outbreak.

"Of large sores on my little daughter's head developed into a case of scald head," writes C. D. Isbill of Morganton, Tenn., but Bucklen's Arnica Salve completely cured her. It's a guaranteed cure for Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Sores, Ulcers and Piles. Only 25c at Condon Drug Co's.

May Day Ball.

The ladies of Minnehaha Lodge, No. 109, (Rebekah Degree) I. O. O. F. will give a grand ball in the Armory hall, Condon, on Wednesday evening, May 1, 1901. No trouble or expense will be spared to make this the leading social event of the year. Musgrove's orchestra will be present and a fine piano has been secured for the occasion. This will be the last ball until July 4th, and all lovers of dancing should attend as they are assured of a fine evening's enjoyment. Don't forget the date, Wednesday May 1st. See posters printed at this office.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va. This Remedy is for sale by The Hudson Pharmacy—C. W. Crossfield, mgr.

Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Mid-Columbia Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers of Eastern Oregon, which met in the Congregational church in this city last Friday, Saturday and Sunday, was pronounced one of the best local associations ever held in the state. The meetings, papers and addresses were full of rich thoughts, vigor and interest. There was not a dull session from the time the meeting opened until the benediction was pronounced. Two pleasing features of the meetings were the good spirit and harmony that prevailed and the splendid solo singing by Rev. D. V. Poling, of the First church of The Dalles. His rendering of "The Holy City" was especially grand and well received. The members and delegates were highly pleased with the association as a whole and were loud in their praises of the people of Condon as entertainers. Rev. Mr. Curran took the ministers and delegates to Arlington by private conveyance last Monday from which place they went to their several homes and fields of labor.

If troubled by a weak digestion, loss of appetite, or constipation, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Every box warranted. For sale by The Hudson Pharmacy—C. W. Crossfield, mgr.

Good for Rheumatism.

Last fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Freeman. After two applications of this Remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle, was completely cured.—SALLIE HAMM, Salem, N. J. For sale by The Hudson Pharmacy—C. W. Crossfield, mgr.
