SEMI-ANNUAL REPORT.

Our readers will observe that we do not publish the semi-annual report of the financial condition of the county this Spring...

last Saturday there may be formed a force that can smash the steel trust or the railroad trust.

It is to be hoped, of course, that such a panic will not occur; that Labor and Capital will work amicably for mutual benefit...

This is the most momentous subject that looms up before the American people for consideration and settlement.—Telegram.

CLEM. Mrs. Carrie Wilkins was on the sick list the first of last week.

Miss Hattie Conroy took dinner with Mrs. E. R. Boyer Monday of last week.

Mrs. Clara Nicholson and Mrs. E. R. Boyer spent Saturday with Mrs. Geo. Weir.

Ang. Daneman and Henry Wilkins attended lodge at Condon Saturday night.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. William Hankins Saturday 27th inst. a fine set of twin boys.

Mrs. Laura Wilkins and Mrs. Hattie Conroy were callers at the Grab ranch Wednesday of last week.

Jas. Larch had the misfortune to lose his saddle pony last Thursday by getting mixed up with barbed wire.

Gamliel Davidson seems to be the line man on the Propet and Boyer telephone line. Good job; stay with it brother.

All members of the I. S. Society are earnestly requested to be present at our next meeting May 5, at the residence of Mrs. Clara Nicholson.

Henry Wilkins, was an Arlington visitor the first of last week. He was accompanied by Frank Kidd who was on his way to California where he expects to make his future home.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering. "I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal.

Pullman Ordinary Sleepers The tourist travel between the East and the Pacific Coast has reached enormous proportions in the last few years, and calls for a special class of equipment.

Competition in many lines of industry is passing away, being crowded and pinched and smothered out of existence.

These are palpable facts. The questions to be considered are: Is this well? and if you say no, what are you going to do about it?

Whooping Cough. A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it.

Much of the first class travel is being carried in these cars, the rates being lower, and the service nearly equal to that in the palace sleepers.
