THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF CLATSOP COUNTY, OREGON.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mike Summers visited Heppner last week.

Mrs. John Jackson is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Robinson of Portland is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. M. Pliter.

Mrs. Al McConnell and Mrs. Blaine Maloy were in from Alviste Saturday.

Ronda Palmer and family returned Friday from a pleasant visit at Portland.

White dresses are being discussed a little more than usual in Condon just now.

C. T. Pinkham and family returned Tuesday from a visit with relatives at Pine Creek.

P. H. Stephenson has an interesting new ad in this impression. You would better read it.

W. M. Stewart, a well known sheepman of the Lone Rock country, was in town Monday.

Miss Pearl Fitzwater, who is teaching on Pine creek, in Wheeler county, spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. R. G. Robinson, of Lone Rock, visited her niece, Mrs. P. H. Stephenson, Saturday and Sunday.

W. N. Brown started Saturday for Grant county after a lot of cattle recently purchased there.

C. W. White and his father, Wilkinson White were in town from L'aperack Friday and Saturday.

Read the new ad of Wilson's Pharmacy in this impression. This new store is now open for business.

Ed Dunn left for Portland Saturday where he has been summoned as a juror in the United States court.

Hugh Jordan has resigned his position in Jackson's meat market and will shortly move his family to Ione.

The Condon Pharmacy has had some new paint put on in the interior lately. It is one of the neatest stores in the county.

Charlie Crossfield and Tom Johnson fished out several miles of Upper Rock creek Sunday. They caught fish—big fish—18 of them.

A new attraction in Jackson's confectioner and meat market is a corner that furnishes mostly "chin music." His first name is Fred.

W. C. Brown, of Idea precinct, was in town Monday. Mr. Brown recently sold 1080 acres of land out there to T. J. Davidson, the well known sheepman.

Dr. Gullette returned Monday from a short business trip to Baker City and Sumpter. He reports the latter place a some what over done boom town.

B. Kiely and his son J. M. Kiely, of Olex, were in the Mayville neighborhood Saturday and Sunday buying work horses for the coming harvest.

M. E. Summers has rented the Fix property and will take possession June 1. He will apply for a liquor license and re-open the Model saloon in the same building.

Bert Cason, Jean Labous, Frank Wilson and Mike Summers went to Arlington Monday on a business trip. We have not learned how much trouble the marshal down there has had with the quartette.

The graduation exercises of the Condon public school will take place in the Armory hall Friday June 7th. All patrons and friends of the school are invited to be present. Every citizen should make it a point to attend these exercises as by so doing they are giving aid and encouragement to the cause of education.

We acknowledge receipt of an invitation to attend the annual reunion of the Wheeler County, Oregon, Pioneers, to be held at Richmond, June 12th, and 13th. All pioneers, Indian war veterans and native sons and daughters are invited. The people will camp on the grounds for a couple of days and have a regular old fashioned pioneer's camp meeting, sans Indian massacres, sans famine, sans everything unpleasant.

The Heppner Gazette came out last week under new management. Fred Warnock and E. P. Michell have purchased the paper from J. W. Redington and are now at the helm. Their first issue, while lacking perhaps in some of the uniqueness which characterized the paper under J. W.'s management, shows marked improvement in local news service and makeup. We wish the brothers all kinds of success.

Chas. E. Hicks, late publisher of the Arlington Independent, and S. B. Baxter, late high chief executioner of the Globe force, were in town Thursday on their way to California where they will spend the Summer picking up what nuggets they may find lying around on the surface and prospecting for others underground. They will make the trip on bicycles going down but if the nugget crop is good and they make a good clean-up they may charter an armored express train to return in. We wish them abundant success in their venture.

The people of upper Rock creek will hold a neighborhood picnic at Flett's grove Tuesday June 4th. Every body is invited and a good comfortable old fashioned time is promised. A special invitation is extended to all the Sunday schools of the county and it is hoped each school will prepare a program for the occasion. An old fashioned basket dinner will be served with free lemonade in plenty. Don't forget the date and don't fail to attend if you want to enjoy a day on the shady creek. Full particulars may be had by applying to Mrs. W. M. Dunlap, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Mobley, of Rock creek visited friends here yesterday.

H. N. Frazer and M. O. Clarke are at Portland this week on a business trip.

Mrs. Ed Palmer and children, of Ajax visited friends and relatives here Sunday.

B. K. Nacey underwent an operation in one of the Portland hospitals last Saturday. At last accounts he was getting along nicely.

R. E. Armstrong left for Portland last Thursday evening in response to a telephone message which stated that his wife, who is in a hospital there, was worse.

The graduating High School girl now finds her head in a buzzing whirl. To prepare an oration is 'nough to whiten her hair, to say nothing of what she is going to wear.

G. H. Noel and Henry Perry, of Lone Rock delivered a fine bunch of steers to Reynolds at this place last week. Mr. Reynolds took about 600 head from this region and shipped in all 1000 head from Arlington.

H. C. Strickland traded his yearling steers to Reynolds, the Nebraska buyer, for some fine heifers of the same age last week. He also secured a fine young short horn bull which he considers quite an addition to his herd.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Strickland and her sister, Mrs. Becker, angled for the festive trout in the raging waters of Thirtymile Sunday. We have the promise of a good fish story as soon as the ladies of the party get it written up.

Andrew Greiner returned from the Coast Tuesday where he took his son Ben, a few weeks ago, for the benefit of his health. Ben has not fully recovered yet and stopped off at The Dalles to spend a few weeks visiting relatives.

Geo Gray, of Heppner, was here Friday and Saturday as the representative of E. L. Clark, the Utah sheep buyer, who recently purchased 4300 head of 2-year-old ewes of Barker, Cameron & Pliter with privilege of taking 2500 more of the same grade of sheep at the same price. Mr. Gray was here to inspect the sheep previous to them being delivered. The price paid in this deal has not been made public.

J. L. Paul, one of the prominent farmers of the Rock creek region, was in town Tuesday. Mr. Paul has recently had a drilled well completed on his ranch and now has a bountiful supply of pure water which, he says, is a luxury few people can fully appreciate unless they have hauled water, as he has done, for 10 or 12 years. His well is 121 feet deep and is equipped with a wind mill which forces the water 200 feet up the hill to his house and barn. He reports crop prospects in his neighborhood very promising.

They All Passed.

The eighth grade examination of the Condon public school which was held here last Thursday, Friday and Saturday resulted in every one of the eight members of the class passing most creditably. The members of the class were working like beavers for some time and their success in passing the examination without a single failure is well earned and richly deserved.

After the strain of the last few weeks was over, and the fact was made known that all had passed, the young people, to use a slang phrase, "turned themselves loose" and took the town by storm. They were out for a good time and for about four hours Saturday evening the town was theirs. Springston & Rogers treated the class to a carriage ride and everybody else in town treated them to something if only their congratulations, a warm hand clasp and a hearty "God bless you."

The event was a red letter day in the history of the Condon public school for everybody in town seemed proud of the class of '01 and once the pride of a people is aroused it is hard to keep their public institutions in the back-ground. There is no doubt but that the school year which is about to close has been the most successful one in the history of our school which may now be said to have advanced well towards the first rank of similar institutions in Eastern Oregon.

The personnel of the class is as follows: Lilla Clarke, Jennie Neal, Bryl Springston, Gussie Darling, Abbie Darling and Bertha Trimble and Bert Edwards and Rob Fitzwater; six as lovely girls and two as many boys as may be found in this wide, wide world. The Globe rejoices in their success and believes the future holds many good things in store for them.

Lilla Clarke stands at the head of the class thereby winning first honors and the Whitman college scholarship besides.

In Justice Court.

Judge Neale's court was in session a day or two the last of the week, the case at issue being one wherein the State of Oregon was plaintiff and Leslie Wing was defendant the charge, placing a dead animal in a stream of running water. H. C. Strickland was the complaining witness. Deputy District Attorney Robbins appeared for the State and L. W. Darling for the defendant. A jury trial was had and after an hour's consideration of the evidence a verdict of acquittal was rendered.

No Loss of Time.

I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to threshers that could go no farther, and they are at work again this morning.—H. R. Phelps, Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above the threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by the Hudson Pharmacy.

Ferry Canyon Leads in Height.

Ira Henderson, who comes within one of being the tallest man in Washington or Oregon, is here from Columbus, Wash. Mr. Henderson is 6 feet 8 in his stockings but he says the little town of Ritzville, over in Washington, boasts a town marshal, whom he is acquainted with, who overtops him just 6 inches, being 7 feet 2. Mr. Henderson has located in Ferry Canyon, a region, by the way, which is noted for all kinds of big things, and the erstwhile giant of that bailiwick like Cameron and Van, will have to "stand around." If Mr. Henderson should decide to enter politics in Oregon he might become a formidable opponent of Governor Tall TimOTHY Geer. Ferry Canyon now claims to have the tallest man in the state.

W. W. Ames and son Arthur came in Tuesday from Columbus, Washington. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Van Vactor while in town but Arthur is here primarily to look after his Ferry Canyon ranch.
