

Willie Anticipated Trouble.

"Mamma," said five year old Willie, "I wish you would not leave me alone with the baby when you go out this afternoon."

Arduous Task.

"I hear that you have been laid up with nervous prostration. What was the matter—overwork or worry?"

One Indian Tribe Increasing.

The Penobscot tribe of Indians, which numbered 240 in 1800, is now about 400 strong.

Room for Improvement.

"Say," remarked the impatient passenger, who was traveling on business in the South, "is this the fastest train you have down here?"

One Strong Reason.

Magistrate—The assault you have committed on your poor wife is a most brutal one. Do you know of any reason why I should not send you to prison?"

Lesson I.

"What do the Filipinos appear to learn most easily in connection with our civilization?" asked the eager inquirer.

Millions for Baseball.

A million of dollars are spent every year upon the game of baseball, but large as this sum is, it cannot begin to equal the amount spent by people in search of health.

Cause for Rejoicing.

"How pretty and clever you are, mamma," exclaimed little Edith.

A VETERAN

Tells of a Thrilling Experience in the Civil War and How a Newspaper Article Saved His Life.

From the Beacon, Leonardtown, Md.

Many veterans of the rebellion can recall incidents as thrilling as the cavalry charge in which the narrator of the following experience nearly lost his life, and, unfortunately, many of the old soldiers have disabilities that are unpleasant reminders of their days in the army.

"This continued until about eight years ago when I read in a newspaper of the cures effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I began taking the pills and soon found they were doing me good.

Peace in the Church.—If peace abides in the church each member must be at peace with God.

Not at Present.

"Have you any sodding you want done this spring?" asked a colored man of a mean Central Avenue resident.

Root's Law Studies Delayed.

Ellhu Root, secretary of war, made up his mind when he was 10 years old to be a lawyer, but combination of circumstances made it impossible for him to take up the study of the law until he was over 21 years of age.

FISO'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION

SERMONS OF THE WEEK

God's Comforts.—God's comforts are the first whispers of undying peace.

Money.—It is not money that is the root of all evil; it is the love of it that is the root of all evil.

The Widow's Mite.—The widow's mite stands for the small gifts which those in humble circumstances may offer to God and man.

Story of Creation.—The very first fact which the story of creation sets forth is this: God is man's friend.

The Universal Law.—It is difficult for us to conceive of an immutable being, or even of an immutable condition.

Resurrection of Christ.—Nothing is more vital to the validity of Christianity than the resurrection of Christ.

Character.—Character possesses a charm for only those who seek it, and is the priceless jewel of heroic souls.

Figure of God.—Every man, through his imagination, paints his own figure of God. Plato gives his own image of God, and there is the Bible's idea of God.

Predestined.—Some are willing to make any sacrifice for God and the word of God. They are ever prepared to run their course righteously.

Socialism.—Socialism will reject Christianity and give a real faith which the infidel church has denied.

The Spiritual World.—The knowledge of the spiritual world which Jesus Christ has imparted to mankind exceeds that of Moses as much as the light of the noonday sun exceeds that of the flickering lamp.

Christian Science.—Christian Science not only embodies the healing and regenerative methods of the Christianity of Christ, but represents also the highest attainments of modern metaphysical or psychical practice.

A Statesman and a Politician.—A statesman is one who thinks, plans and works for the future good of his country and countrymen.

Immortal Life and Eternal Life.—Jesus makes a marked distinction between immortal life and eternal life.

Test of a Christian.—What is the test of a Christian but the fruits of his companionship with his Lord?

Prayer.—God has ordained prayer just as truly as he has ordained labor, and it is no more a thwarting of divine law than that he should bring in the harvest in response to the wise and intelligent labor of the husbandman.

Prayer.—God has ordained prayer just as truly as he has ordained labor, and it is no more a thwarting of divine law than that he should bring in the harvest in response to the wise and intelligent labor of the husbandman.

REGISTER OF TREASURY.

Hon. Judson W. Lyons, Register of the United States Treasury, in a letter from Washington, D. C., says:

Hon. Judson W. Lyons, Register of the Treasury. April 23d, 1890. Pe-ru-na Drug M'g Co., Columbus, O.

Gentlemen—I find Pe-ru-na to be an excellent remedy for the catarrhal affections of spring and summer, and those who suffer from depression from the heat of the summer will find no remedy the equal of Pe-ru-na.

No man is better known in the financial world than Judson W. Lyons. His name on every piece of money of recent date, makes his signature one of the most familiar ones in the United States.

Hon. Judson W. Lyons recommends Peruna for spring catarrh. If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, president of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Robbed Him.—"You see that prosperous looking man over there? He robbed me of the best chance of becoming rich I ever had."

In the Theater.—"Dear me, I can't hear a word that those actors are saying."
