

CHAPTER XI. In the old brown school house, over shadowed by apple trees and sheltered, on the west by a long, steep hill, where the acorns and wild grapes grew. Mary Howard taught a little flock of twentyfive, coaxing some, urging others and teaching them all by her kind words and ingly saying: "Tell me more about her. winsome ways to love her as they had Does she ever scold, or has she too save a sister. never before loved an instructor.

When first she was proposed 83 8 teacher in Rice Corner, Widow Perkins. Frost, "and she's got the nicest white and a few others who had no children to teefh, and I guess she knows it, too, for send, held up their hands in amazement. wondering "what the world was comin' to, and if the committeeman, Mr. Knight, Knight, "though pa says she used to be spaller as saffron."

the ordeal had been passed and that me as Mr. Stuart." Mary had in her possession a piece of paing her to teach a common district school, her seat, she left Mr. Stuart standing in this worthy conclave concluded that the doorway. With her usual polityness, "either everybody had lost their senses or else Miss Mason, who was present at stranger, who gave his name as Mr. Stuthe examination, had sat by and whis-pered in her ear the answers to all hard questions." art, saying "he felt much interested in common schools, and therefore had ven-tured to call."

"In all my born days I never seen anything like it," said the widow, as she sumed her usual duties, occasionally distributed her green tea, sweetened with casting a look of carlosity at the stranger, brown sugar, to a party of ladies, which whose eyes seemed constantly upon her. she was entertaining. "But you'll see, It was rather warm that day, and when she won't keep her time mor's half out- Mary returned from her dinner Widow Saily Ann, pass them nutcakes. No-body's goin' to send their children to a her attired in a light pink muslin dress, until it ris," she posted off to Mrs. Mapauper. There's Miss Bradley says she'll the short sleeves of which showed to good take her'n out the first time they get advantage her round, white arms, A nar-Have some more sass, Miss row velvet ribbon confined by a small licked. Dodge. I want it eat up, for I believe brooch and a black silk apron, completed it's a-workin'-but I telled her that her toilet, with the exception of a tin/ warn't the trouble, Mary's too softly to locket, which was suspended from her hurt a miskeeter. And so young, too. neck by a slender gold chain. This last able to ascertain anything of importance, It's government she'll lack in. If any-body'll have a piece of this dried apple art's attention, and from some strange Judith and all "great gumpheada," she pie, I'll cut it.

ter where the money was to come from we last saw her, she had grown into a "Certainly, sir," said she, and stepping fine, healthy looking girl. Her face and to the desk and consulting a silver time figure were round and full, and her com- piece about the size of a dining plate, plexion, though still rather pale, was she told him that it was half-past three. clear as marble, contrasting well with When school was out Mr. Stuart, who her dark-brown hair and eyes, which no seemed in no haste whatever, entered inlonger seemed unnaturally large. Still, to a lively discussion with Mary concernahe was not beautiful, it is true, and yet ing schools and books, adroitly managing Billy was not far from right when he to draw her out upon all the leading topcalled her the finest looking girl in Chico- ics of the day. At last the conversation pee; and it was for this reason, perhaps, turned upon flowers: and when Mary that Mrs. Campbell watched with jeal- chanced to mention Mrs. Mason's beauticlothes hoss for more'n two hours!" ful garden he instantly expressed a great Every possible pains had been taken desire to see it, and finally offered to accame galloping up to the school house with Ella's education. The best teachcompany Mary home, provided she had door, declaring her intention of staying until school was out, and having a good ers had been hired to instruct her, and no objections. She could not, of course, she was now at a fashionable seminary. say no, and the Widow Perkins came time but still she did not possess one-half the "I hear you are going to Wilbraham," very near letting her buttermilk biscuit ease and gracefulness of manner which burn to a cinder when she saw the young seemed natural to her sister. The two man walking down the road with Mary. said she, "but I want you to go to Mount burn to a cinder when she saw the young Holyoke. We are going, a whole lot of girls had seen but little of each other; us-that is, if we can pass examination. Arrived at Mrs. Mason's, the stranger and oftentimes when Ella met her sister managed to make himself so agreeable am. I think 'twill be fun to wash po- press she merely acknowledged her presence that Mrs. Mason invited him to stay to by a nod or a simple "how d'ye do?" tatoes and scour knives. I don't believe tea. Whoever he was, he seemed to unthat mother would ever have sent us When she heard that Mary was to be derstand exactly how to find out whata teacher she said "she was glad, for it ever he wished to know; and before tea there if it were not that Ida Selden is

"I know them children will split their throats. Can't they hold up a minute," unquestionably had the strongest claim exclaimed Mrs. Perkins, greatly annoyed to her love, but could he have knows how much satisfaction she felt in thinking that George still remembered and felt interested in her he would have had some reason for fearing, as he occasionally did. The stranger was at that moment smilthat she would never be to him aught pretty a mouth for that?" "No, she never scolds," said Della

The summer was drawing to a close, and with it Mary's school. She had succeeded in giving satisfaction to the en-tires district. Mr. Knight, with whom she shows them a great deal." "She's real white, too," rejoined Lydia Mary was a great favorite, offered her the school for the coming winter, but she a posed they was goin to be the school attending school a Accordingly, when it was known that following them to the door. "Introduce said he.

Mary laughingly asked him how many Lydia had never introduced anybody in bags of shoes he supposed she had stitchper about three inches square, authoriz- her life, and, following her companions to ed during the last two years. "More'n two hundred, I'll bet," said he. "Not quite as many as that," answered field. Mary came forward and received the Mary; "but still I have managed to earn my clothes and thirty dollars besides; and this, together with my school wages, will pay for one term and part of another." "Well, go shead," returned Mr. Knight. "I'd help you if I could. Go shead; and Offering the seat of honor, Mary re-president's wife." When Widow Perkins heard that Mary imprisonment. up as she went along how much fourteen

CHAPTER XIL

But with all her quizzing and "pump-supply in the Philippines is almost unteered to set out in the lifeboat unlimited. ing," as Judith called it, she was un- unlimited. ornament immediately riveted Mr. Stu- and, mencally styling Mrs. Mason, Mary,

Death of Prof. Tauman H Satford, of Wil-FROM THE FOUR QUARTERS OF THE WORLD. ian and astronomer, whose death has

A Comprehensive Review of the important in the college burying ground at Wil-Happenings of the Past Week Prese int He was been at Royalton Vt 65 in a Condensed Form Which is Most years ago. At an early age he attract-Likely to Prove of Interest to Our Many ed attention by his powers of calcula-tion. He could mentally extract the captured two pompons.

Monmouth. Cailles will surrender his entire force at Santa Cruz.

It is exepcted that negotiations at Pekin will be settled this mouth. Ten persons were injured by a tornado in South Dakota. Two Indians tried to murder the Umatilla chief of police. Von Waldersee will , be created a prince on his return to Germany.

Only one body has been recovered from the wreck of the ferry boat North-

The Harriman interests have secured control of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road.

Lulu Prince-Kennedy was convictwho knows but you'll one day be the ed of murder in the second deeres and ward. punishment was fixed at ten yeras' up as she went along how much fourteen weeks' wages would come to at nine shil-in which it is stated that the timber far out of the track of commerce. Mr. Mathie and the two men vol-

Negroes about Leavenworth, Kanart's attention, and from some strange cause sent the color quickly to his face. In the transfer of the color quickly to his face. Beople of Quartzbury tioned for a daily mail.

liams College. ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM New York, June 17 .- President Tru ALL OVER OREGON. man Henry Safford, the mathematic just been announced, will be buried ercial and Financial Happenings of Im He was born at Royalton, Vt., 65 Growth and Improvements of the Man Industries Throughout Onr Thriving Comsquare and cube root of numbers of nine and ten places of figures, and could multiply four figures as rapidly Philippine customs revenues are as it could be done upon paper. In acreasing. 1845, when he was 9 years old, and of July celebration. Six frame buildings were burned at from Harvard college, he prepared an almanac, and at the age of 14 he calculated the elliptic elements of the first comet of 1849. By a method of Incoming ships report of passing quantities of wreckage on the ocean. ficult problems had ben read to him Boers surprised a force of Victoria mounted rides near Middlesburg and ficult problems had ben read to him nonce, he could give their result with river show a much better run of seived. The

THREE MEN IN A BOAT.

British Seamen Make Long but Useless Voyage to Secure Help. Halifax, N. S., June 15 .- After sailing nearly 700 miles in an open boat der Knight, Mr. Mathie, chief officer, and two of the crew, arrived at Sheet just been towed in, a distance of 450 Capital stock, $130,000. miles, by the Spanish steamship Durty found a haven 40 miles to the east-

When the Border Knight's tail shaft broke, in latitude 34:10 north and lon- a crew of men working on the imvoyage from Africa and the situation seemed to be desperate, as she was eradicated.

Fourth of July.

sistance to the British steamer. This with crushed rock.

Hotel at West Baden, Ind., Burned-Several

Reported Lost

Indianapolis, June 15 .- Telepho

Victoria Mounted Rilles Overcome By a Superior Force.

London, June 18 .- Lord Kitchener has cabled from Pretoria under today's late as follows:

Near Welmansrust, 20 miles north of Middleburg, 250 Victoria mounted rifles from General Beaston's command were surprised in camp at monwealth-Latest Market Report. Eugene will have a two days' Fourth camp, killing two officers and 16 men The Whitney council now meets and wounding four officers and 38 men, of whom 28 were only slightly twice a month instead of once as wounded. Only two officers and 50 men escaped to General Beaston's

Fourth regiment, O. N. G., will go into camp at Eugene June 27, and remain until after the Fourth. Two pom-pos were captured by the enemy. os were captured by the enemy. Full details have not yet been re-

Reports from along the Columbia The serious reverse which Lord Kitchener reports is the first accident of the kind that has happened to the salmon than in the past few weeks. Commencement exercises are in progress or about to begin in most of Australian contingent, and it is supthe colleges and universities of the state. The Rogue River Mining & Milling Company has about finished cleaning loss of the guns is regarded as a serious to take relief to their ship, the Bor-der Knight Mr. Mathie chief offeer of Foots creek. Boers to continue the struggle.

More or less fanciful accounts are A new electirc light company has Harbor, the end of their 15 days' jour- been formed in Salem. It will also published on the continent of alleged ney, to find that their steamer had operate a system of street railways, peace negotiations, but there is nothing in them and nothing has come of the interview between Mr.

miles, by the Spanish steamship Dur-anco, from Philadelphia for Bilboa. Captain W. F. Splatt, of the Border the O. N. G. will be ready for distri-vealing the fact that Mr. Kruger will Captain W. F. Splatt, of the Border the O. A. G. and any and the second dependence of the republics.

The Daily Mail's Cape Town cor-respondent says that Cecil Rhodes, The Lakeview Water Company has When widow Perkins heard that a retensive syndicate is buying was going away to school she forgot to put any yeast in the bread which she was making, and, bidding Sally Ann "watch it making a complete mouto grant self-government to the repub-lics before federation would render Smallpox at Westfall has been federation impossible.

Ontario has arranged to observe the JAPAN'S WAR ON RATS. Athena streets are being improved > Energetic Measures Taken to Suppress the Plague.

People of Quartzburg have peti-Yokohama, June I, via Victoria, Coquille City is preparing for B. C. June 18.-Much consternation bas been awakened by the escape of a The treasurer of Marion county had rat at Tokic. The medical authorion hand June 1 the sum of $24,959.23. ties of the Imperial university were The Linn County W. C. T. U. conangaged in experimenting on some vention will be held the first week in rodents in the introduction of plage August. bacilli into their veins, when one of It is reported at Prairie City that the animals eluded their vigilance, "rustlers" are stealing stock in the and as a consequence several have vicinity of Grub creek range. recently been discovered in the hosmessages from Salem and Bedford, to vicinity of Grub creek range. The question of bonding school dis- pital infected with the disease. As a the Journal received this morning trict No. 8, Malheur county, in the result the war against them has say: The West Baden Springs Hotel, at West Baden, one of Indiana's most famous health and pleasure resorts, burned early this morning. It could not be learned how the fire started. Titict No. 8, Malheur county, in the sum of $3,000, to improve the school building, will come before the voters June 15. J. H. Timon has discovered a 14-fort vein of coal where he has been foot vein of coal where he has been their capture. With all this evihotel building was destroyed, and it opening up a mine on Lampey creek, dence of consternation there is no was rumored that several lives were Coos county. The mine is located need of fear that the the disease can lost, but this could not be confirmed, within 200 yards of the river. gain a foothold in the country in There is some talk of moving the which such measures for prevention school house in district 92, Umatilla have been taken. While sporadic ounty, to Missouri gulch or Stage cases appear here and there, they The hotel is said to have had sey gulch. The district is nine miles long are instantly isolated, and the spread eral hundred guests, and all of their and a number of the children live so of the contagion is rendered practibelongings were destroyed, there far from the school building that they cally impossible. The authorities having been no time to save anything, either stay at home or are put to great do not hesitate to adopt the most Assistance was asked of the fire de inconvenience during bad weather. drastic measures in each instance, partments of near-by towns, but on There is also a sentiment for dividing and as a result the empire is today in a better sanitary condition than any other nation in the world. Portland Markets. The cabinet muddle is not only still unsettled, but it becomes every Wheat-Walla Walla, 61@62c. ;valley, nominal; bluestem, 61@62c. day more complicated and hopeless of property was about $1,000,000 this in per bushel. solution. The source of trouble, while dignified as a strife between Flour-Best grades, $2.90@3.40 per the principle of a party minsitry parrel; graham, $2,60. and that of an independent cabinet, Oats-White, $1.32 %@1.35 per cenresponsible only to the sovereign, is tal; gray, $1.30@1.32% per cental. Barley-Feed, $17@17.50; brewing, almost lost sight of in the pettiness of the political squabbles which have $17@17.50 per ton. come to the surface, making it im-Millstuffs-Bran, $17 per ton ; middpossible for any statesman without St. Johns, N. F., June 15 .- The lings, $21.50; shorts, $20.00; chop, complete loss of self-respect, to undertake the task of forming a minis-Hay-Timothy, $12.50@14; clover, try.

was more respectable than going into a was over he had learned of Mary's infactory or working out." Mrs. Campbell, | tention to attend the academy in Wiltoo, felt in duty bound to express her pleasure, adding that "she hoped Mary would give satisfaction, but 'twas extremely doubtful, she was so young, and possessed of so little dignity!"

Unfortunately Widow Perkins' red cottage stood directly opposite the school house; and as the widow belonged to that hill stirring few who always "wash the breakfast dishes and make the beds before anyone is up in the house," she had | ed and, unfastening his horse, drove off ample leisure to watch and report on the proceedings of the new teacher. Now, all about it to-morrow;" and with this Mrs. Perkins' clock was like its mistress, always half an hour in advance of the true time, and Mary had scarcely taught a week ere Mr. Knight, "the committeeman," was duly hailed in the street and told that the "schoolmarm wanted lookin' to, for she didn't begin no mornin' till half-past nine, nor no afternoon till half-past one! Besides that," she added, "I think she gives 'em too long a play spell. Anyways, seems of some m was out o' doors the hull time." Mr. Knight had too much good sense to heed the widow's complaints, and he merely replied: "I'm glad on't. Five Mrs. Mason, while Mary flushed more hours is enough to keep little shavers deeply than she did when Billy's letter cramped up in the house-glad on't." was handed her. The widow, thus folled in her attempts at making disturbance, finally gave up "I was about at the foot of the Blanchthe strife, contenting herself with quiz- ard hill, when I see a buggy coming like sing the older girls, and asking them if Jehu. Just as it got agin me it kinder Mary could do all the hard sums in arith- slackened and the fore wheel ran off metic, or whether she took them home smack and scissors." for Mrs. Mason to solve!

In spite, however, of these little an "Not a bit ou't," said Mr. Knight, "but noyances, Mary was contented and haphe was scared some, I guess. I got out py. She knew that her pupils loved her, and helped him, and when he heard I's from Rice Corner he said he'd been into iy indorse the cure, and the testimonials were satisfied, so she greeted the widow school. Then he asked forty-'leven queswith her pleasantest smile, and by al- tions about you, and jest as I was settin' ways being particularly polite, finally you up high, who should come a-canterin' overcame her prejudice to a considerable up, with their long-tailed gowns, and hats strength of it feel absolutely sure of like men, but Ella Campbell and a great its efficacy.

One afternoon about the middle of white-eyed pucker, that came home with July, as Mrs. Perkins was seated by her | her from school? Either, Ella's horse was front window engaged in "stitching scary or she did it a purpose, for the shoes," a very common employment in minit she got near it began to rare, and some parts of New England, her atten- she would have fell off if that man hadn't tion was suddenly diverted by a tall, catched it by the bit and held her on stylish-looking young man, who, driving with t'other hand. I allus was the most his handsome horse and buggy under sanguinary of men, and I was building the shadow of the apple trees, alighted castles about him and our little schooland entered into conversation with a marm, when Ella came along, and I gin group of little girls who were taking their usual recess. Mrs. Perkins' curiosity was she did look handsome, with her curis a aroused, and Sally Ann was called to figin' Wall, as I wasn't of no more use. see who the stranger was. But for a I whipped up old Charlotte and come on.' "When did Ella return?" asked Mary, wonder Sally Ann didn't know, though she "guessed the hoss was one of the who had not before heard of her aister's East Chicopee livery.' arrival.

"He's talkin' to Liddy Knight," said "I don't know," said Mr. Knight. "The she, at the same time holding back the first I see of her was cuttin' through curtain and stepping aside so as not to the streets on the dead run; but I musta't be visible herself. "Try if you can hear what he's sayin'," stay here gabbin', so good-night, Miss whispered Mrs. Perkins; but a class of boys in the school house just then struck of the didn't and ran; out I mustn't for term he what his "I'll bet one thing." "Huh! What's th "I'll bet be didn't boys in the school house just then struck into the multiplication table, thus effec-tually drowning anything which Sally The moment he was gone Mary ran up to her room to read her letter, from which we give the following extract: Ann might otherwise have heard.

tha used to be schoolmates with Miss braham the next autumn. Lyon, and they have always intended that Ida should graduate at Mount Hol-Finally he said good-night, leaving Mary and Mrs. Mason to wonder-the yoke. Now, why can't you go, too?" "I wish I could," said Mary, "but I one what he came there for, and the othcan't. I haven't money enough, and there er whether he would ever come again.

The widow, too, wondered and fidgeted is no one to give it to me." as the sun went down behind the long "It beats all nater what's kept him so last term Ella spent almost enough for long," said she, when he at last appearcandles and gutta percha toys to pay the expense of half a year's schooling at at a furious rate; "but if I live I'll know should have everything and you nothing." consolatory remark she returned to the best room and for the .emainder of the evening devoted herself to the entertain-A church union now exists in New ment of Uncle Jim and his wife, Aunt York for the most remarkable purpose civil service positions. Dolly.

That evening Mr. Knight, who had on record. Its avowed object is to been to the postoffice, called at Mrs. Ma- cure the victims of the morphine and the peace negotiations. son's, bringing with him a letter which other drug habits and a most impresbore the Boston postmark. Passing it to sive list of well-known clergymen have Rands capital punishment law. Mary, he winked at Mrs. Mason, saying, registered themselves in support of the "I kinder guess how all this writin' scheme, which is conducted by Dr. W. works will end; but hain't there been a N. Richle. young chap to see the school?"

The plans of Dr. Richle's work and "Yes; how did you know it?" returned it effectual are to be made public as nado. soon as possible. All that is withheld "Why, you see," answered Mr. Knight, Danacea.

"Was he hurt?" quickly asked Mary.

him, was enjoying an honored old age, tients as are not able to pay.

"I met Higginbee and he stopped me

"Huh! What's that?"

"You must have forgotten George More- ought to be able to use excuses.

Eleven hundred butchers are on a which she needed for her books and cloth- strike in San Francisco. FIRE AT A HEALTH RESORT.

The Cuban convention has accepted Everything which Mrs. Mason could the original Platt amendment. do for her she did, and even Judith, who The new battle ship Illincis is the was never famous for generosity, brought in one Saturday morning a half-worn fastest vessel of her class afloat. merino, which she thought "mebby could Americans were again successful be turned and sponged, and made into in the international trap shoot. somethin' decent," adding, in an under-Extensive commissary frauds have say: tone, that "she'd had it out airin' on the academy.

been dicovered at San Francico. A few days afterward Jenny Lincoln Another name has been added to the Port Royal, Pa., coal mine horror.

Thirty-four students graduated not be learned how the fire started. from the Oregon Agricultural college. Everything in connection with the Insurgent general Cailles refuses to surrender, except on his own terms. Extensive German, influence in the Telephone and telegraph communica-Rose Isn't pleased with the Idea, but I Yangtse district alarms the British tion with Indianapolis was destroyed while the story of the fire was being told.

Donald McPhial, a prominent Eastern Oregon sheepman, was found going. Her father and her Aunt Mar- dead by the roadside

> The Washigton legislature has ad journed after amending the capital punishment law and passing three vetoed biills.

Kruger claims to know nothing of Washington senate has repealed the

A rich ledge of gold has been dis

A small town in Minnesota was Three women were injured in Chi-

In Georgia it is estimated that 30, covered near La Grande, Oregon

One of the proprietors said that part of the building was erected 12 years ago, and they had been adding The governmet is preparing to fire three and one half tons of dyna-"It wouldn't hurt Mrs. Campbell to mite under the Narorws between Forts help you a little," returned Jenny. "Why, Hamilton and Wadsworth. to it ever since, until the value of the

The war department has issued cluding the grounds and buildings. set of regulations clearly defining There is only insurance of $100,000.

Mount Holyoke. It's too bad that she hazing and strictly prohibiting the same. Any cadet found guilty of FOUR LIVES LOST.

infraction will be dismissed from the Schooner Wrecked in a Fog on Newfour Many Filipinos have applied for land Coast.

schooner Czar, bound to Labrador $16. with fishermen and their families, 70 persons altogether, was driven ashore $7@9.50; Oregon wild hay, $6@7 of New Foundland in a dense fog and per ton. gale. Four men were drowned and six others were injured, but the women and children all landed safely. Oregon, 7@11c; mohair, 20@21c. The survivors were on the island per pound. the means by which he hopes to make almost entirely destroyed by a tor- two days without food or shelter. Then another vessel, passing toward 17 %c.; dairy, 13@14c.; store, 11@ Labrador, sighted their distress sig- 12%c. per pound. Officers of the Forty-third regiment, nals, rescued them and landed them from the public is the elements of the in the Philippines, are accused of on the mainland, whence they will return home on board a mail steamer, per dozen. The Czar became a total wreck, and those on board of her lost their be- Young at Honolulu on her way home from longings. The women and children pound Zurbano has proclaimed himself governor of the Philippines as successor to Aguinaldo. President McKinley has stated that Bresident McKinley has stated that were in a pitiable plight when they

Honolulu, June 9, via San Francis-co, June 15.—San Yet Sen, the Chi-Potatoesnese reformer, left on the America new, 1%@2c. per pound. Maru June 5 for China, for the pur Mutton-Lambs 4c. per pound cago, two probably fatally, by the col- pose of starting a revolution. gross; best sheep, wethers, with wool, His intention is to overthrow the Empress $4.25@4.50; dressed, 61%@7c per Owing to fear of fresh trouble in Dowager and the mandarins. His obtained it from a German savant. The Corea for Americans, the cruiser New idea is to have China ruled by a presi-Hogs - Gross, heavy, $5.75@6 ght, $4.75@5; dressed, 7c. per dent on the lines of the Government of America. He says that there will light, McKinley announces that he would be a strong force at his back, and he pound. refuse to accept the nomination for a has the support of many prominent Veal-Large, 6%@7c. per pound;

His Life a Failure.

New York, June 17 .- William Her- went into effect, more than 9,000 ford, an aged German of Williamsmining titles have been issued. burg, is dead by his own hand, having shot himself by the side of a work-

In Georgia it is estimated that 30,-000 Negroes have been graduated at a cost of $100,000,000, which colleges are supported by Northern money. Ing shot nimself by the side of a work bench in his carpenter shop after re-allzing that at the end of 30 years' struggle to find the secret of perpetu-$564 worth of butter and eggs. larmer's wife sold $1,000 worth of butter last year. Another one sold al motion he was as far as ever from The first mention of stamps is in the goal he sought. He was found

The United States leads all other

Since Mexico's mining law of 1892

In Atchison county, Kansas, a

Hops-12@14c. per lb.

Wool - Valley, 11@13c; Eastern

$100,000,000.

STRIKE OF TRACKMEN.

Employes of the Canadian Pacific Will Go Out in a Body.

Butter - Fancy creamery, 156 Vancouver, B. C., June 18 .- All of the Canadian Pacific trackmen will go out tomorrow morning at 6 o'clock, Eggs - Oregon ranch, 12@121/c.

the demand of those in the eastern division for an increase in wages of 20 Cheese-Full cream, twins, 121/20; cents per day not having been ac-ceded to. Officials of the road state America, 13@1316. per that the granting of this demand would mean an additional annual expenditure of $400,000. Men are being secured to take charge of bridges and portions of track where surveillance is necessary, and it is announced that all trains will be run Potatoes-Old, $1@1.20 per sack;

tomorrow as usual.

California Train Wreck.

Santa Cruz, Cal., June 15 .- The narrow gauge Southern Pacific passenger train from San Francisco was wrecked today near Rincon. Englper neer James Stanley and Fireman Henry Coyle were seriously injured. afuse to accept the non-hird term if it were offered him. The date of the Rough Riders' revolution which he has attempted in revolution which he has attempted in The locomotive, tender and baggage Battle on the Tonkin Frontier.

Tacoma, June 18 .- The steamship Tacoma brings news from Hong Kong that the French forces in Tonkin lost four officers and 17 soldiers in a fight along the Tonkin frontier with marauding bands of Chinese, aggregating over 500. The Chinese forces include 1,000 regulars who the letters of the old Bishop Synesius with a bullet through his brain, his preferred robbery to soldiering. of Cyrene, on the Greek coast of Africa, 400 years after the Christian and his head resting upon a piece of planking. Strawberries were valued at planking.

Association convention has been changed from August 1 to August 3. There are 14,00J oysters to a ton.

River Jordan water is now exported regularly for baptismal purposes.

are supported by Northern money.

"I'll bet he didn't tell his boy what

If Satan ever gets short of fuel be mysterious compound, which is, Dr. bribery. Richle alleges, an absolutely infallible appear so convincing that the clergy- it is his intention to visit Hawaii in men who have formed a union on the the near future.

(To be continued.)

Cures Victims of Drugs.

Dr. Richle says that he obtained the lapsing of a stairway. cure from a friend of his, who in turn friend referred to, having once become Orleans has been ordered there. the slave of morphine and having but 5 cents left in the world, converted it Into a 5-cent stamp to address a letter third term if it were offered him. to the German who had originated the cure. The recipe came, was made use of, and the man, when Dr. Richle knew

A committee has been formed to receive donations for the cure of such pa-

Could Not Be Repeated.

to tell me what his little boy said, but said."-Indianapolis Press.

ere.

The battle ship Oregon has arrived Men and women who have sunk to the Orient. the lowest levels of degradation have, it is claimed, by the use of this cure governor of the Philippines as succesbecome perfectly regenerated. Physisor to Aguinaldo.