

THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 15, 1901.

NOTICE.
The Globe has this correspondence from all sections of Gilliam county. We aim to make this paper the leading news medium of the county and invite our friends to assist us by sending us the news of their respective sections. Correspondence should be addressed to the editor, and not to the publisher. The publisher is not responsible for the contents of correspondence.

LABOR ORGANIZING.

Portland water front laborers—longshoremen, dockmen and stevedores—have organized on lines similar to the San Francisco unions of the same class. The Portland men claim that they have no present grievance as to hours of wages but say that organization is necessary if they would retain the respect of their comrades in other cities. This feeling of comradeship among laboring men is encouraging to all opponents of economic serfdom. It is a forecast of the coming giant federation of all wage workers beside which the steel trust and all other trusts and combinations together will be but a pigny. It means the awakening of the workers to a sense of the importance of organized effort—a lesson the capitalists have already learned and profited by—and inspires the hope that the American masses may yet work out these great questions which confront and vex the nation today without hurt to any man.

This optimistic view of the situation may fall of realization. Dark clouds of revolution may yet gather and sweep over the country, leaving a trail of devastation and death behind, but even in that event the organization and unification of the workers is a matter of first importance. Should the worst come we may depend that from the ranks of the millions of intelligent American workmen some Moses will arise who will lead the people out of the troublous times of the present into a better condition which, we must believe, the Future holds in store. In such an event organization will mean everything to the workers; without it they will be but a howling mob; with it they will be an intelligently directed, resolute, resistless body of such gigantic power as the world has never before seen.

Organized effort carries force, commands respect, insures success.

THE STEEL STRIKE.

The sympathy and moral and material support of every farmer, every laboring man, every mechanic and every small business man should go to the members of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers in their fight to the death with the big steel trust. The purpose of the trust is to crush the labor unions out of existence because the union is how the only thing that stands between the trust and absolute power in the industrial world. If the union loses the fight the trust will be in a position to increase the hours of labor and decrease wages as they may see fit, and every intelligent man knows that they will use that power for their own enrichment. If the wages of the vast army of laborers are reduced to the point of bare existence their consuming power will be decreased to such an extent as will seriously affect the markets and the price of every product of the farm will fall proportionately. Neither need the farmer, or any other consumer of trust-made goods expect that the saving in the cost of production which may be effected by a reduction in wages, will be taken from the price of the finished product which they are compelled to buy. The trust may be depended upon to force prices up and wages down to the limit, each way, whenever they have the power.

The trust claims the right of organization for Capital but denies that right to Labor. Its purpose is to reduce men who labor in its mills and produce its wealth to industrial slavery and if it succeeds in that it will only be a question of time until every man who depends on his labor for a living, even if that labor is augmented by a moderate capital, is reduced to the same condition.

This is a fight for the maintenance of free American manhood as against a threatened serfdom and as the battle wages warmer it will be found there is no middle ground. There will be but two classes in this conflict and the dividing line will be clearly defined—American manhood, fighting for industrial freedom on the one hand, corporate greed, fighting for economic slavery on the other.

That was a mean trick Professor Starr played on his patron, John D. Rockefeller, last week when he "discovered" that the castor bean plant was sure death to mosquitoes. It must have been a terrible shock to John D. after the fond hopes which he presumably built up on account of the "coal oil cure" which had just been discovered for the buzzing pests. Had Starr not "sprung" the castor bean cure Rockefeller might have been able to "spring" the price of coal oil another cent on the gallon and thus have managed to keep the wolf from his door for another year or two. Starr is getting too "gay" with his mosquito theories. He may find himself where Andrews and Ross are,—out of a job—soon, if he don't look more to his employer's interest.

A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.

Here is the latest story of the man who was too stingy to take his home paper: A man who was too economical to take the local paper sent his little boy to borrow a copy from his neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a $4 stand of bees and in four minutes he looked like a warty Summer squash. His father ran to his assistance and, failing to notice a barb wire fence, ran into it breaking it down, cutting a section of flesh from his anatomy about the size of a frying pan and everlastingly ruining a pair of $7 trousers. The old cow took advantage of the broken fence, got into the alfalfa field, ate her fill, swelled up and died. The wife heard the racket and as she rushed to the assistance of her family she upset a churnful of rich sour cream into a basket of freshly ironed clothes. She also dropped and broke a $10 set of false teeth. Part of the cream ran on the floor and the baby, left alone, drank all it wanted and crawled through the remainder and into the parlor, spilling a new $20 carpet. It was found later under the sofa suffering from a bad case of colic which lasted all night. During the excitement the eldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up 11 setting hens, the pet billy-goat butted down the cellar door and ate up all the tin fruit cans, a stray cat licked the Maltese kitten, the calves got out and chewed the lower end off four fine shirts on the wash line and the neighbors all laughed as though it was a good joke. Do you want to escape similar misfortunes? If you do—Now is the time to subscribe.

A FREE PEOPLE.

Here are a few glittering truths from the thick tank of the editor of the Montpelier, (Idaho) Examiner:

It is in the power of one man to stop nearly every car wheel in the United States.

It is in the power of one man to put out almost if not every coal oil lamp in the Union.

It is in the power of a few men to close and break every bank in the United States.

It is in the power of two or three men to close nearly every telegraph and telephone line in the Union.

Two men can cause nine-tenths of the people to go without sugar or coffee for breakfast.

Four men can practically break every stockraiser in America.

Ten men in New York can make Uncle Sam issue bonds any time they may desire, and so it goes. And yet we are a free people.

A YOUNG LADY'S LIFE SAVED
At Panama, Colombia, by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Dr. Chas. H. Utter, a prominent physician of Panama, Colombia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady 16 years of age who had a very bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful result was effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better; inside of three days she was upon her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well."

Out West.
[How some easterners regard us.]
They wear their breeches in their boots,
Out west.
Their jewelry's the kind that shoots,
Out west.
The men are tough with fighting sand,
The women holy terrors, and
The girls are fresh to beat the band,
Out west.
There's fighting in the booze they drink,
Out west.
The friendly glass they never click,
Out west.
They fill it till it overflows,
And raise it up beneath their nose,
And say "Here's how" and down she goes!
Out west.

The preachers get their Sunday "tips,"
Out west.
In faro bank and poker chips,
Out west.
And Monday round the games they trot,
And cash in the collection pot,
And buck the tiger, like as not,
Out west.

The maidens all wear cowboy hats,
Out west.
And wear no corsets on their slats,
Out west.
And when a lover seems to feel
Too shy to make the sweet appeal
They pull a gun and make him squeal,
Out west.

The women vote the same as men,
Out west.
Preach politics with voice and pen,
Out west.
And if a husband makes a play
To take that sacred right away,
He grows bald headed in a day,
Out west.

And yet we love those ratty cranks,
Out west.
We get the gold to fill our banks,
Out west.
They dig it up in every yard,
And that is why we try so hard
To hold them in our high regard,
Out west.

A Cure for Cholera Infantum.
"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Bookwater, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hope of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered, and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by Hudson Pharmacy.

Oregon Institute for the Blind.

We are in receipt of a prospectus of the Oregon Institute for the Blind which is located at Salem. The conditions of admission are:

1. Insufficient vision to attend the public schools.
2. Ability to receive intellectual, physical and moral training.
3. Willingness to conform to necessary rules and regulations.
4. Good moral character.

Parents must furnish clothing for children also transportation to and from the school. Tuition, board and room, medical attendance etc. are furnished by the State.

If parents or friends of blind children are not able to furnish proper clothing and traveling expenses the county courts are required by law to render such help. The management is anxious to have every blind child in the state brought into the school and requests the address of all such that this end may be accomplished.

Pullman Ordinary Sleepers.

The tourist travel between the East and the Pacific Coast has reached enormous proportions in the last few years, and calls for a special class of equipment. To meet this demand the Pullman Co. has issued from its shops what it technically calls the "Pullman Ordinary Sleeper." These cars appear similar to the regular sleepers being built on the same plan, but not furnished with the same elegance. They are equipped with mattresses, blankets, sheets, pillows, pillow-cases, towels, combs, brushes, etc., requiring nothing of the kind to be furnished by the passenger. Each car has a stove for making tea and coffee and doing "light housekeeping", and each section can be fitted with an adjustable table. A uniformed porter accompanies each car, his business being to make up berths; keep the car clean, and look after the wants and comforts of the passengers. In each of the trains which are dispatched daily from Portland to the O. R. & N. Co. is to be found one of these "Pullman Ordinary Sleepers." The car attached to the "Chicago-Portland Special" goes through to Chicago without change, and the one in the "Atlantic Express" runs to Kansas City without change. Passengers in this car for Chicago change to a similar car at Granger.

Much of the first class travel is being carried in these cars, the rates being lower, and the service nearly equal to that in the palace sleepers. For rates and full information, including folders' write to
