

angon Hestrica

VOL. XI.

CONDON, GILLIAM CO., OREGON, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1901.

NO. 26.

The Doctor's Ailemma

By Hesba Stretton

-

CHAPTER V.

one breath.
"Yes, mademoiselles," I said, uncolling asked faintly.

you get here? When did you come?" "Quite easily," I replied. "I came on trail "To be sure," answered Emma; "and how is dear Julia? She will be very anxious about you."

I called him and he came in barefoot, his broad, burly frame seeming to fill up all the little room. She could not raise her head, but her fear was a turned to the purpose.

I called him and he came in barefoot, his broad, burly frame seeming to fill up all the little room. She could not raise her head, but her fear was turned to the purpose.

woman here so very ill? We have heard from the Renoufs she had had a dangerous fall. To think of you being in Sark ever since Sunday, and we never heard a word of it!"

"Is that the young weman's hair?" "Yes," I replied; "it was necessary to cut it off. She is dangerously ill with Both of them shrank a little towards ment that did it. My answer was almost

"You see it would not be wise for any of us to go about," I said. "A fever breaking out in the island, especially now you have no resident doctor, would be very serious."

Thus I secured isolation for myself and my patient. But why had I been eager to do so? I coust not answer that question to myself, and I did not ponder over It many minutes. I was impatient, yet strangely reluctant, to look at the sick girl again, after the loss of her beautiful mir. The change in her an struck me as singular. Her face before had a look of suffering and trouble, making it almost old, charming as it was; now she had the aspect of quite a young girl, searcely touching upon womanhood. We sat up again together that night, Tardif and I. He would not smoke, lest the scent of the tobacco should get in through the crevices of the door, and lessen the girl's chance of sleep; but he held his pipe between his teeth, taking an imaginary puff now and then, that he might keep himself wide awake. We talked to one another in whispers.

"Tell me all you know about mam's selle," I said. He had been chary of his knowledge before, but his heart seemed open at this moment. Most hearts are more open at midnight than at any other

"There's not much to tell, doctor," he answered. "Her name is Ollivier, as I said to you; but she does not think she is any kin to the Olliviers of Guernsey. She is poor, though she does not look as if she had been born poor, does she?"
"Not in the least degree," I said. "If written to any one since she came here?" "Not to a soul," he answered eagerly.

"She told me she had no friends nearer than Australia. That is a great way

"And she has had no letters?" I asked. "Not one," he replied. "She has neither written nor received a single letter." "But how did you come across her?" I inquired. "She did not fall from the akies, I suppose. How was it she came to live in this out-of-the-world place with "I'll tell you all about it. Doctor Martin," he said, and he related how he had met the young lady in London. "Tardif," I said, when he had con-cluded the recital, "I did not know what a good fellow you were, though I ought to have learned it by this time." "No," he answered, "it is not in me it's something in her. You feel something of it yourself, doctor, or how could you stay in a poor little house like this, thinking of nothing but her, and not caring about the weather keeping you away from home? There was a curious thing -she had not any luggage with her, not a box nor a bag of any kind. She never has run away."

"But who can she have run away from, Tardif ?" I asked.

"Heaven knows," he answered, "but the girl has suffered; you can see that by her face. Whoever or whatever she has run away from, her cheeks are white from it, and her heart sorrowful. I know nothing of her secret; but this I do know; she is as good, and true, and sweet a little soul as my poor little wife was. If she should die, it will be a great grief of heart to me. If I could offer my life to God in place of hers, I'd do it willingly."

"No, she will not die. Look there, Tardif!" I said, pointing to the door sill of the inner room. A white card had been alipped under the door noiselessly-a sig- Ollivier." nal agreed upon between mother Renouf and me, to inform me that my patient had at last fallen into a profound alumber, which seemed likely to continue some hours.

The morning was more than half gone before mother Renouf opened the door and came out to us, her old face looking more haggard than eyer, but her little eyes twinkling with satisfaction. 'All goes well," she said. "Your lit-

I did not stay to watch how Tardif remyself to see how she was going on, have filled it up with books. Thank heaven, the fever was gone, the opening languldly as my fingers touched and hard, as I know after eating it for a her wrist, were calm and intelligent, week." She was as weak as a kitten, but that

1 soon recover her lost strength. I had to the tress of hair as if it had been a ser- I must own that my eyes smarted, and pent, and going forward to greet them; my voice was not to be trusted. I had no delightful agitation about the ruture "are you surprised to see me?"

"are you surprised to see me?"

"Surprised!" school the sides. "No: that moreon. But what a singular all that was all. There was no mystery in we are amazed petrified! However did to be obedient possessed this girl! What it; no problem to be solved; no discovery of which the best boxes are made

"She was on the verge of a nervous attack when I left her." I said; "that will tend to increase her anxiety."

"Poor, dear gir!" she replied sympaths and to him, smiling faintly. He fell on his knees before he took it into his books before the cutter should start home. great, horny palm, and looked down up- again, with its courageous little knot of on it as he held it very carefully with market people. I ran down to Barbet's, tears standing in his eyes.

"God bless you, mam'zelle, God bless you chose a book for Sunday reading. for getting well again!"

***

"The worst I ever had," she answered. "It was partly your going off in that rash way, and the storm that came on after, and the fright we were in. You must not think of going again, Martin. I Spanish Cedar Is the Best Wood, but shall take care you don't go after we are

Julia had been used to speak out as much the same with myself. There was no delightful agitation about the future be no Blue Beard's chamber in our dwell- known as Spanish cedar. The recent

I looked through the library shelves until "Why, it is like an egg shell," he said. I hit upon two novels. Besides these, I Barbet brought half a sheet of an old She laughed at his words—a feeble Times to form the first cover of my parthough merry laugh, like a child's-and cel. The shop was crowded with market she seemed delighted with the sight of people, and as he was busy I undertook his hearty face, glowing as it was with to pack them myself. I was about to fold happiness. It was a strange chance that the newspaper round them, when my eye the door. A sudden temptation assailed had thrown these two together. I could was caught by an advertisement at the not allow Tardif to remain long; but top of one of the columns. "Strayed that I had yielded before I knew I was after that she kept devising little mes- from her home in London, on the 20th sages to send to him through me when- inst., a young lady with bright brown as automatic and involuntary as their torrourse with mother Her intercourse with mother Renouf was ex- age twenty-one. She is believed to have tremely limited, as the old woman's seen alone. Was dressed in a blue silk knowledge of English was slight. It dress, and sealskin jacket and hat Fifty

"LOOK THERE, TARDIF."

CHAPTER VI. she is not a lady by birth, she is one of down to darken the morning sunshine there; and after looking up she started me, pressing closer and closer. known that you would be safe. Oh, I am thankful!"

"You have come back like a barba-rian," she said, "rougher than Tardif himself. How have you managed, my "As soon as I have had my breakfast, mother, I must put up a few things in a hamper to go back by the Sark cutter," I answered.

"Well, there will be some medicines, course," I said; "you cannot help me in that. But you can find things suitable a box nor a bag of any kind. She never for a delicate appetite; jelly, you know, fancied that I knew, for that would have and jams, and marmalade; anything nice troubled her. It is my belief that she that comes to hand. And a few amusing books.

I recollected at once that the books she might select, as being snited to a Sark peasant, would hardly prove interesting to my patient. I could not do better than go down to Barbet's circulating library and look out some good works "Well, no," I said; "never mind the books. If you will look out the other things, those can wait."

"For my patient," I replied. "What sort of a patient, Martin?" she quired again. "Her name is Ollivier," I said.

common name. Our postman's name is "Oh, yes," she answered; "I know sev eral families of Olliviers. I dare say I me her Christian name. Is it Jane, or Martha, or Rachel?" "I don't know," I said; "I did not ask." The packing of that hamper interested me wonderfully; and my mother, rather amazed at my taking the superintendence of it in person, stood by me in her store closet, letting me help myself liberally.

with good things for some weeks to come, ceived this news, for I was impatient If my mother had not been by I should "Give me a loaf or two of white bread." delirium at an end. The dark gray eyes, I said; "the bread at Tardif's is coarse Road, E. C."

I stood perfectly still for some seconds, staring blankly at the very simple advertient in Sark. But I had no time for corner of the Times containing that and other advertisements, and thrust it unseen into my pocket.

In the afternoon I went down with dered, and the words my mother and Julia were speaking went in at one ear and out at the other. Certainly I was dreaming; but which part was the dream?

appointed tone. "I do indeed, dear Julia," I said, colored blossoms, very gay and, as I ventured to remark to myself, very gaudy. "You like it better than you did in the pattern?" she asked anxiously. I did not like it one whit better, but I so. She was gazing at it and me with so troubled an expression, that I felt it necessary to set her mind at case. "It is certainly handsomer than the pattern," I said, regarding it attentively; "very much handsomer."

"Julia, my love," said my mother, member that we wish to show Martin those patterns whilst it is daylight. To-

A little tinge of color crept over Julia's tintless face. We then drew near to the window, from which we could see Sark so clearly, and Julia drew out of her pocket a very large envelope, which was bursting with its contents.

They were small scraps of white silk and white satin. I took them mechanically into my hand, and could not help admiring their pure, lustrous, glossy beauty. I passed my fingers over them softly, There was something in the sight of them that moved me, as if they were frag-

"He has been living on Tardit's cearse fare for a week," answered my mother; "so now he has compassion enough for his Sark patient to pack up some dainties for her. If you could only give him one or two of your bad headaches he would across me.

any one lovely enough to wear raiment of glistening white like these, unless—this Sark patient to pack up some dainties white face, and glossy hair, and deep grey eyes of my Sark patient flashed across me.

cigar boxes used in the United States "Martin Dobree!" ejaculated both in steep down to hear what she was saying, me breath. "Have I kept quite still, doctor?" she ed upon me just then; though it had been the trade rivals the clothing industry in point of capital invested, and the num-ber of people employed," said a leadacturer in New a wonderful power of submissive self-con- to be made on either side. There would comes principally from Cuba, and is > "One New York firm has been experiplored Paraguayan forests, which are ery. said to contain the finest cedar wood | An Illinois aeronaut fell 400 feet in the world. They have, however, ex- from his balloon and was alive when perienced considerable difficulty in sell- picked up. ing their boxes, as cigar manufacturers and connoisseurs insist that it spoils a treasury operations and interior define cigar to put it in any box not made mand for money. wood always retains the flavor of a were destroyed by an explosion and good cigar. Indeed, some people claim two men were killed. that it improves the flavor. The reason given is that it grows in the same loin the United States for cigar boxes have not been very successful. The Florida and South American cedar contains a peculiar gum that melts when the wood is exposed to the heat of a ried to Berlin. store or house, and thus the labels and sometimes the cigars in a box are trial in New York bay. spoilt. Of course, the smokers of cheaper brands of cigars are less particular Boers shooting prisoners. about the quality of the wood used for their boxes, and a veneered cedar, terms in regard to the protocol. for the Spanish article. But it cannot ing it out, and the consequence is that even a good cigar when packed in such a box sells at a disadvantage.-Wash-Ington Star.

A DOUBTFUL STORY.

"Never had such a shock in my life. questioned for a few minutes whether was in my right mind. I was sick, and good and sick at that. I called up ceentral, and was informed in one of the most pleasant voices I ever heard that they were busy on the line of my regular physician. Just m I was going to cut loose on a string of profanity she said: 'You're sick, sir. I can tell her restoration to her friends. Apply to Messrs. Scott and Brown, Gray's Inn I get one. Meantime you'd better lie Shamrock II. down.'

"Say, nothing but a dead faint would have removed me from that telephone. tisement under my eyes. There was not I listened as I heard her ring for one doctor after another, always quick and pointed in her inquiries, but patient and not a lost note in that flute-like voice. I forgot that I was sick, and I was sorry wheen she finally found a of New York is very light. physician whom she told to hurry to "A little later she called up to know if I needed a nurse. Of course I did, not to mix in the Isthmian trouble. just because I wanted the pleasure of hanging on to that receiver while she the recent reported combine in coprouted up one aumber after another per. until the desired article was procured. It was great. When it came to getting strike. drugs she was only one removed from a magician. I ordered dainties that I ment in our furnishing of the new house. never eat, just to hear her call for them, for I pretended a degree of weakness that would not permit of my standing too long at the 'phone, The whole thing was a startling revelation to me. When I'm well the company is going to lose that girl or she'll refuse what a

Then one of the most desirable eligibles in the town went to the telephone and asked the time, though he had three clocks and a chronometer, all on duty.-Detroit Free Press.

A Queer Inscription. stonecutter argued that a crown equals one man.

A Fellow-Feeling. Perambulating Pete-Boss, I ain't an ordinary tramp. But every spring. 'bout April, my wife insists upon cleanin' hou the tourist. "No." said the man who was suffering from a cold. "We don't claim the greatest in that line. But we do claim the largest variety."-Washington Star.

Mr. Boerum Place (Interrupting him sympathetically)-My poor man! Don't say another word. Here's a dollar!-Brooklyn Eagle. A Conservative Claim.

Cheap Enough. "Isn't it ridiculous to say Talk is cheap?"

THE WORLD.

A Comprehensive Review of the Important Likely to Prove of Interest to Our Many still at large.

Frenchmen are excited over the coming visit of the Czar. Five American warships visited British ports simultaneously.

Steel strikers declare they have caused the Duquesne to close. Columbia defeated Constitution in the first race of the final series.

Boers blew up a train and killed a Venezulean and Colombian troops are massed on the border near Cucuta. A trust has been formed to control menting with timber from the unex- the manufacture of laundry machin-

New York banks affected by Sub-of genuine Spanish cedar. The latter Powder mills at Krebs station, Pa.,

Montana train wreck on the Great Northern was the worst in the road's history. Thirty-eight were killed. Nearly 10,000 Venezuelans are massed on the Colombian frontier in readiness to support the Colombian revo-

Prince Chun's mission will be hur-Shamrock had another satisfactory

Kitchener reports another case of The Chinese are again dictating made from a peculiar sort of cedar that Nine persons lost their lives by the grows in Mexico, is often substituted explosion of a Delaware steamer.

Sante Fe line negotiating with Pacific Mail for trans-Pacific connec-

The list of witnesses to appear be-fore the Schley court of inquiry is ers, has a plan for settlement of the steel strike A gang of thieves stole a threein Sharptown, Md., and got away with

A Chicago policeman shot and killed a boy, and says it was in self-defense against a gang of young hood-

New York yachtsmen are afraid of a prosperous season. Sampson will be a witness at the Schley court of inquiry. Members of the Nome bar petition McKinley to remove Judge Noyes.

Trans-Atlantic freight business out The explatory mission of Prince Chung has been delayed at Basic, Nicaragua and Colombia promise Rothschilds deny any knowledge of ly and wait on the table.

Tinplate officials deny that negotiations are under way to settle the

The worst epidemic of plague in years is now rampant in parts of Canton, China, One hundred fellows were elected to the Association for the Advancement of Science. General Fabius M. Mead, a veteran of the Civil War, and a friend of Logan, Grant and McClellan, is dead. While two men were out hunting in Montana, one mistook the other for a bear and shot him through the the student to the treasurer's office.

The French Minister to Turkey has E. C. Westfall, chief of the money prosecuted for criminal carelessness in allowing $4,000 to be stolen from ing claims near Cape Nome, a mob of of their mathematical education.

70 masked men attacked the holders

Thorough instruction in years, and the control of their mathematical education. of some claims and fatally wounded is given to the pupils.

B. F. Jossey, United States customs inspector at Tucson, Arisona, under arrest for smuggling Chinese into the United States, was killed by the accidental discharge of his revolver while looking for chicken thieves on his own premises, is at Colon. A large sugar beet crop is expected is Southern Washington.

burglar has been arrested. Preserved fruits, in a state fit to have been eaten, have been taken from the ruins of Herculaneum English cement manufacturers, American product, decide to adopt at his home, when a spark fell from tificate of 23 years Pope Leo recently the Yankee methods and machinery. his pipe into the powder. The explo-The Southern Pacific railroad now and hurled the Rinus family in all di-

West Virginia School Gives Them a Thorough

results that have been attained at the Indian school at Hampton, Va., gives a fair idea of what modern Indian education will accomplish when conducted under the most favorable circumin a Condensed Form Which is Most stances. The Hampton school is not primarity an Indian school, but rather one conducted in the interests of the colored race. Special arrangement was made by the Indian Office, through Francis, the Missouri murderer, is the sanction of Congress, whereby not to exceed 120 Indians are educated at this school every year, and for which Congress appropriates $20,040. A study of the report of the superintendent of the school for the past year, insofar as it applies to the Indian students, is rather interesting. Among other facts brought out are the following:

There will go from the Hampton school to the Oneida reservation within the next year a number of boys and girls who have definite plans as to what they will endeavor to accomplish. The Hampton institute pursues similar plans with all Indians, adapting the work of the school to the special condi-

horse power vertical engin year. The head of the department year. There are three courses in cooking at Hampton—an elementary one in home cooking for girls who are not likely to go very far in the school; a more advanced class, and the normal course for post-graduate students who intend to become teachers of cooking. Besides the routine of the cooking classes, the girls are taught to care for the dining room, to set a table proper-

In the sewing department, the students show real enthusiasm, and a spirit of co-operation that is striking In addition to the regular sewing courses, classes in basketry and lace making were conducted during the past year. The head of the department considers that as a training for the hand and eye, basketry is in some respects superior to sewing, because inacurate or slovenly work can readily

The study of mathematics is one of owes the school for board, etc., and each month an account is rendered by These two statemnts should agree, and if they do not, means are taken occurs. Articles are manufactured by the students, and the cost of materials. time, etc., is kept of record. Details actions on the farm, in the workshops, sent in for the classes to put in proper shape. In this way the Indians are As a result of litigation over min- taught to make practical application Thorough instruction in vocal music

Negro Murderer Extradited

Okalahoma City, O. T., Sept. 3 .-Will Favors, the Pierce County negro today.

Spark Fell Into the Powder.

BAS THREE TIMES THE CIRCULATION OF ANY PAPER IN THE COUNTY.

STREETS BATES

Commercial and Financial Happenings of Importance-A Brief Review of the Growth and improvements of the Many Industries Throughout Our Thriving Commo -Latest Market Report.

Hop picking has begun in several Dregon yards. Another context has been filed in the Tillamook timber land case.

Cattlemen fired about 100 shots into band of sheep in Eastern Oregon. Important changes will be made & N. Railway. Hop pickers are said to be very scarce in many sections of the Wil-

Draper, resigned Construction of the Lakeview-Silver complete outfits ever found.

A branch of the Sons of St. George has been organized by the British American citizens of Marshfield. A dead infant was found in a mill-plans with all Indians, adapting the work of the school to the special conditions at their respective homes.

As far as possible Hampton is made

As far as possible Hampton is made would like to hear of the thresher escape was discovered, and a jail-break averted.

Prunes are beginning to move in earnest at The Dalles.

The Jacksonville public school will open September 2.

The Klamath county wheat crop will not be as large as it was last year. Hopgrowers at Woodburn complain of a scarcity of help to harvest the

The wheat crop of Jackson county is turning out much better than expected.

Lincoln, Bridgeport, and the primary department at Falls City.

Portland Markets. Wheat - Walla Walla, nominal 5616c per bushel; bluestem, 5616@ 57c; valley, 55 1/2 56.

Barley-Feed, $15@15.50; brewing, $15.50 per ton. Millstuffs-Bran, $27 per ton; middlings, $21.50; shorts, $20; chop, $16. Hay-Timothy, $11@13; clover,

11%c; Young America, 12%c per pound Poultry-Chickens, mixed, $3.00@ 3.75; hens, $4.50@5.50; dressed, 10@ in the commissary and kitchen are 11c per pound; springs, $2.50@3.50 per dozen; ducks, $3 for old; $3.00

10@12½c per pound, Mutton — Lambs, 3¾c, gross; dressed, 6@7c per pound; sheep, $3.25, gross; dressed, 6@6½c per lb. Hogs — Gross, heavy, $5.75@6; light, $4.75@5; dressed, 7@7%c per pound Veal - Small, 8@9c; large, 7 @716c per pound.

Beef-Gross top steers, $3.50@4.00; cows and heifers, $3.25@3.50; dressed beef, 6%@7%c per pound. Hops—12@14c per pound.

Wool - Valley, 11@13%c; Eastern Oregon, 8@121/c; mohair, 20@21c per Potatoes-$1@$1.10 per sack.

For the first time during his pouentertained eight guests at luncheon & Nashivlle train at Lexington.

My mother was lying on the sofa in the breakfast room, with the Venetian blinds first specimens of Nature's genile | Her eyes were closed, though she held folks I have ever come across. Has she in her hands the prayer book, from which she had been reading as usual the Psalms for the day. Whilst I was looking at her, though I made no sort of sound or movement, she seemed to feel that I was > from her sofa, and flung her arms about "Oh, Martin, my boy; my darling!" she sobbed, "thank heaven you are come back safe! Oh, I have been very rebelllous, very unbelieving. I ought to have > "So am I, mother," I said, kissing her, boy? You must tell me all about it."

"What sort of things?" she asked, "Tell me, and I will be getting them ready for "Books!" echoed my mother.

"Who, are they for?" asked my mother should know this person if you could tell tle mam'zelle does not think of dying There was a good space left after I had taken sufficient to supply Miss Ollivier

"Whatever are you doing here, Mardid not trouble me much. I was sure her tin?" exclaimed Julia's unwelcome voice natural health was good, and she would behind me.

happened, in consequence, that I was the pounds reward is offered to any person only person who could talk or listen to giving such information as will lead to from your voice. I'll call physicians till > the slightest doubt in my mind that it had a direct reference to my pretty padeliberation then, and I tore off a large

Julia and my mother to the new house, to see after the unpacking of furniture, I can imagine circumstances in which nothing could be more delightful than the care with which a man prepares a home for his future wife. The very tint of the wails, and the way the light falls in through the windows, would become matters of grave Importance, but there was not the slightest flavor of this senti-It was really more Julia's business than mine. I went about the place as if in some dream. The house commanded a splendid view of the whole group of the Channel Islands, and the rocky islets innumerable strewn about the sea. The afternoon sun was shining full upon Sark, and whenever I looked through the window I could see the cliffs of the Havre Gosselin, purple in the distance, with a silver thread of foam at their foot. No wonder that my thoughts wan-

"I don't believe he cares a straw about the carpets!" exclaimed Julia, in a dis-She had set her mind upon having flowers in her drawing room carpet, and there they were, large garlands of bright-should have been a brute if I had said morrow is Sunday, you know."

ments of the shining garments of some have more sympathy for you."

"Have you had one of your headaches, ding dress," said my mother, in a low, Julia?" I inquired.

(To be continued.) ABOUT OIGAR BOXES. "There are something like 14,000,000

Sunday, and Tardif fetched me in his own boat. If the weather had permitted I should have paid you a call; but you had awakened from a second long and was the sum total of marriage to Julia to such an extent that many box mak-calities as the best Havana tobacco. "Attempts made to use cedar grown

Too Good to Be True, Though a Sober

good many mammas regard as a

A queer sentence closes the inscription on a tombstone in a churchyard in Leigh, England. After announcing the name and other particulars of the lady there buried, these words follow: "A virtuous woman is 5s to her husband." The explanation is that space prevented "a crown" being cut in full, and the

"I suppose you think you have the greatest climate in the country," said

"Oh, I don't know. I could take you

EDUCATING INDIANS.

and Practical Training. Washington, Sept. 3 .- A study of the

There were at the Hampton school last year 119 Indians-54 girls and 65 boys. They were chosen from 21 different tribes, the Oneidas of Wisconsin and the Sloux of North and South Dakota predominating. A plan has lately been devised to encourage the Indians to keep cows and study practical dairying. A number have been taking special training in the care of cattle and the making of butter and a miniature world where the young people learn to deal with problems that equals it, similar to those which they will meet in the outside world. Work in the various trades is made more and more a part of each boy's course. The graduating class in carpentry has taken for half a year one-half a day each week at bricklaying, painting and tinsmithing; four hours at woodturning; six hours at designing small houses; and the remainder of each week is escape he would have nothing to do spent at the carpenter bench. The but remove a board from beneath the shoe department made 385 pairs of sills. The aperture in the floor was Governor Savage for paroling Bartley. 56 sets of harness;; the bricklayers and the officer, noticing this, thought A Missouri negro murderer is being have laid 450,000 brick, besides making it strange. Lifting the blanket from pursued, and may be burned if caught. all repairs to brickwork and plastering the floor, the means of the prisoner's on the grounds. The machine shop turned out 179 gears, machined 700 trucks, and did considerable work for the electric light and power plant of Hampton City, besides building a six-Burns, of the Window Glass Work- and sold 727 trucks; the tailor shop made 302 uniforms. The manual training department gives instruction to every student in the school. No boy masted schooner from her moorings graduates from Hampton without having worked in wood, iron and sheet metal, besides having taken a course in agriculture; no girl graduates without having received instruction in woodwork, enabling her to mend and make small furniture, or without having been taught to cook and serve meals and to make her own dresses and underclothing. All pupils receiv-Inland Empire farmers are having ed instruction in agriculture the past be detected. practical character. Each student keeps a cash book, showing what the school owes him for work, what he left Constantinople, which act to discover on which side the error breaks off friendly relations between occurs. Articles are manufactured by for memorandums concerning transorder bureau at Hayana, will be porter, charged with the murder of Miss Gazelle Wild, a white girl, started back to Missouri today in charge of officers from that state. Favors will The United States gunboat Machias be held in Kansas City until it is considered safe to take him to Pierce City. where three negroes have already been lynched for the crime with which he is charged. Governor Jenkins hon-Michael Berry, a noted Colorade ored Governor Dockery's requisition el Rinus, a German miner, was emptyfinding their trade threatened by the ing powder from one cask into another sion which followed wrecked the house in the vatican. vision, which in times gone by, when I to a place where you'd get dead loads of that was much younger, had now and then that a shave thrown in for 10 cents."

Altona, Pa., Sept. 3.-At Munson, a

It and a shave thrown in for 10 cents."

It and a shave thrown in for 10 cents."

It and a shave thrown in for 10 cents."

It and a shave thrown in for 10 cents."

Philadelphia Press.

George W. Ranck, one of the best ing of oil as fuel. It takes 21 barrels of oil to run a locomotive a day, but their disconnections. The father, mother and two ing of oil as fuel. It takes 21 barrels of oil to run a locomotive a day, but their disconnections. The father, mother and two ing of oil as fuel. It takes 21 barrels of oil to run a locomotive a day, but their disconnections. The father, mother and two ing of oil as fuel. It takes 21 barrels of oil to run a locomotive a day, but the cost is small compared with coal.

NEWS OF THE STATE

TEMS OF INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS OF OREGON.

ng the traffic men of the O. R.

lamette Valley. Richard Downey has been appoint-d marshal of Vale, vice Robert Lake telephone line will be begun about September 1st. A band of counterfeiter's captured at Huntington had one of the most race at Salem, but the presence was explained satisfactorily to the cor-W. S. Walker's threshing crew run Verne Hopkins attempted to break jail at Lakeview last week. He removed three slats from the jail floor with an Iron bar, making an aperture through which he could pass to the ground beneath the building. Once underneath he proceeded to dig a trench to the south end of the building, and when the hour came for his

A race meeting will probably be held in Pendleton this fall.

The Sherman county Horse Fair Association will hold a fair at Wasco some time this fall to encourage the breeding of good horses of all kinds. The first crop of alfalfa in Klamath has been cut and cared for. The second crop, which will be cut next month, promises to be much larger than the first. The following schools in Polk county are without teachers, and in each case a good one is wanted: Concord, Flour-best grades, $2.65@3.50 per barrel; graham, $2.60. Oats-Old, $1.10@1.15 per cental.

$7@9.50; Oregon wild hay, $5@6 per Butter-Fancy creamery, 22 16@25c; dairy, 18@20c; store, 11@12c per Eggs-17@171/c per dozen. Cheese-Full cream, twins, 11@

@3.50 for young; geese, $5@6 per dozen; turkeys, live, 8@10c; dressed,

There are 649 1-3 millions of men and 633 2-3 millions of women in this mining town north of this city, Emanu- world, giving the men a majority of 15 1-3 millions.