Quite a number of Condon people are attending the carnival at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brown were in from their Siskiyou ranch Saturday.

George Perry, the well known Lone Rock stockman, was in town Saturday.

Services will be held in the Catholic church, Condon, October 13, at 10 a. m.

A. N. S. Cottin, one of Ferry Canyon's progressive farmers was in town Saturday.

E. P. Weir, of Mayville, went through Tuesday on his way home from Portland.

Elder Swift will hold service in this place next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Dr. Wood reports Bud Rinehart improving nicely from his recent attack of typhoid.

Frank Little and R. S. McKinney, of Olex, were in town for a few days during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dunn visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Greiner at their home in Mayville Saturday.

G. W. Gosser, a Salem blacksmith, came in the other day to take a job in E. T. Hollenbeck's shop.

Mrs. Young reports having had a very pleasant visit during her recent trip to the Willamette Valley.

John Jackson and G. W. Rinehart left for Portland Monday to take in the carnival and look after business matters.

The tall Englishman and slim young Irishman claim to be the champion boxers of Condon since Tuesday afternoon.

W. S. Myers finished threshing his crop Tuesday noon. He reports the yield only about one half that of last season.

Grant Wade was in town yesterday on his way to Hay creek to commence riding on his semi-annual cattle roundup.

John Madden and daughter, of Lone Rock, passed through town Saturday on their way to The Dalles to attend the Carnival.

Social dance in Armory hall Friday evening. First-class music. Grand march 8:30. Everybody is cordially invited.

Gilliam county sheep, which have summered on the ranges of Granite and Baker counties, are now on the road home.

Miss Mary Foster has been engaged to teach a term of school at the Smith ranch on the John Day at the mouth of Hay Creek.

D. W. Ralston, the Mayville stock dealer was in town Saturday looking for fat hogs. He reports that class of stock very scarce.

Wm. Twilly and John Chandler, with their families, late of Shaniko, are recent arrivals in Condon. They are looking for locations in grand old Gilliam county.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, of Corvallis, who have been visiting relatives at this place and in Ferry Canyon for the past two months, returned to the valley yesterday.

The Ine Post says that Charlie Earhart, of that place, has bought a ranch. His Condon friends can hardly get need to imagining Charlie as a pumpkin husker.

J. Pryor, of Ferry Canyon, was in town yesterday and while here he ordered the Globe for a year. Mr. Pryor says he wants the county news, hence he wants the Globe. See?

Bert Cason was in from Ferry Canyon Friday. Mr. Cason is congratulating himself on having his threshing done and his grain safely housed in the granary. Wet weather has no terrors for him.

Note the changes of ad of a number of our advertising patrons this week; Donn Bros., Lord & Co., Arlington Warehouse Co., Al & M. E. McConnell, Condon Pharmacy, Wilson's Pharmacy and others.

Mrs. C. J. Quinn and Miss Mollie Gibbons of Mayville precinct, visited at the home of W. N. Brown, in Ferry Canyon, during the week. They also visited friends in Condon on their way home Tuesday.

Drs. Gullette & Wood dissolved part-Friday, Dr. Gullette retiring from the firm, Dr. Wood purchasing his interest, consisting of good will and accounts. It was at first announced that Dr. Gullette would seek a location elsewhere but later he formed a partnership with S. K. Luna and decided to remain in Condon. Dr. Wood will continue to occupy the office in the Barr building on main street.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Henderson, of Mayville, who are out on a six month's pleasure trip, are now in Portland. They will visit next week in Linn county and then proceed to Southern California, where they will spend the winter.

George Tatom returned from Salem Thursday after taking John Gross to the asylum for the insane at that place. J. R. Clark, who went with him, remained to visit friends in the Willamette valley and in southern Oregon for a week or two.

V. E. Officer returned Thursday evening from Canyon City where he was called a week before by the illness of his father, who was thrown from a horse and dangerously injured. The old gentleman was somewhat improved when Ed left him.

Frank Wilson returned from Portland Saturday. He reports the weather miserable in the Webfoot metropolis and the crowd in attendance at the carnival rather small. T. G. Johnson, who is down with typhoid, was taken to the hospital the day before Mr. Wilson left Portland.

Clyde Flint and Harvey Howard have bought the Abe Luelling band of horses supposed to comprise about 50 head. The prices paid was $10 per head for full grown horses, $8 for yearlings and sucking colts thrown in. The boys will pay for all horses they can gather after rejecting blemished stock.

Charlie Wilkins was in from Clem yesterday. He had his measure taken for a year's subscription to the Globe and reported the railroad surveyors camped at his place the previous night. They have found a good line from Arlington to that point and are pushing the work Condonward with all speed.

Joe Trivett, the jovial Rock Creek melon raiser was in town Tuesday with a load of good things. Incidentally we might add that Joe left a lot of big things at the Globe's domicile the other day which are hard to beat. Potatoes a foot long, cabbages as big as nail kegs, roasting ears that would pass for saw logs and melons as sweet as the nectar of the gods. Thanks Joe; call again.

Mrs. R. E. Armstrong, who has been in a Portland hospital for several months where she underwent an operation last spring, returned home last Friday. She is somewhat improved in a general way although the long tiresome trip from Portland wore her out and made her feel worse than usual for a day or two. Her friends hope, however, that her recovery will now be more rapid.

J. F. Downer and O. A. Macey have returned from a trip to the Malheur country, where Mr. Downer went to look for a better sheep range. They visited the family of Frank Palmer, who recently moved from this county to the Malheur, and found them quite well contented in their new home. Mr. Palmer was on a trade for an alfalfa ranch in the Malheur valley when they were there.

Bill Cooke ran up against the real thing Thursday in the horse corral at the Cooke ranch. Clyde Flint and Mr. Cooke were "wrangling" bronchos, Clyde being aboard the running filly Black Bettie and Bill was on foot. In some way the two collided and in the melee Mr. Cooke was kicked on the thigh and for a while thought the bone was broken but he was able to hobble around town Friday.

G. W. Rinehart went down to A. A. Carother's place on Rock creek Friday for a load of Mr. Carother's fine fruit. While there he saw the railroad surveyors hard at work and pushing the line towards Condon. They are running up the creek through the Carother's place heading for "French Charlie" canyon, which they expect to follow in getting away from the creek to the higher country.

The City restaurant was closed by the sheriff Tuesday evening on behalf of R. B. Lucas, John Jackson, Clarke & Frazer and S. B. Barker, creditors of the concern. Mr. Parlett, the proprietor, stated to a Globe representative that he had told his creditors that he would settle with them Friday or Saturday and claims that he had secured the money to do so on Tuesday, but before he returned to town the attachment was made. The cook, waiters and other help have some wages coming which, it is understood, will come out of the assets before other creditors are paid.

Married.
At Roseburg, Oregon, on Wednesday evening, September 26, 1901, Rider C. E. Cramley officiating, Mr. J. R. Clark, of this city, and Mrs. Ross Tracy, of Drain, Douglas county, were quietly married. The happy couple arrived in Condon Monday afternoon and gave many of the groom's friends something of a surprise, although some of the knowing ones claimed afterward that they "had suspicions."

They will spend a week or ten days visiting friends and relatives here, after which the bride will return to Drain to close out the large property interests which she owns there when she will return to Condon where they will make their permanent home.

The Globe extends hearty congratulations and best wishes to the happy couple which will be joined in by many friends of the parties here and elsewhere.

Boy Injured.
Johnny Palmer, an adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer, who live west of town, met with a serious accident Monday morning. He was riding his saddle pony without a bridle when the pony became frightened and threw him with the result of a badly crushed elbow of the right arm. The bone was so crushed that the hand turned back almost to the shoulder. He was at once brought to town and Dr. Wood reduced the fracture and made the little fellow as comfortable as possible. Johnny is only a small boy, but he displayed more grit and nerve than many grown men would do under the same circumstances.

A new remedy for biliousness is now on sale at Hudson's Pharmacy. It is called Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. It gives quick relief and will prevent the attack if given as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. Price, 25 cents per box. Samples free.

Jess Offers Suggestions.
Jess Barton writes the Globe from Clarno, Wheeler county, to have the address of his paper changed to that place. After paying a high tribute to the intellectual ability of the editor of this paper and promising to pay his subscription sometime, Jess offers the following suggestion:
"I would like very much to see a continued story in the Globe. Perhaps Van Vactor would contribute a few columns each week on 'The Game of Billiards and How to Play It,' or, better still, 'get 'Sandy' Campbell, author of 'The Livery Stable Man's Lament,' 'Dad's Servant Girl,' etc., etc., to edit a poetry page. Mr. Cameron assures me that he would tell the people all about the 'Etiquette of the Royal House of Britain,' and I have no doubt but what many others could be found to explain things they know nothing at all about."

Married.
Saturday evening, September 28, 1901, at the Condon hotel in this city, Mr. Clarence A. Neel and Miss Sophronia J. Brown, both of near Lone Rock, were united in marriage, Judge George L. Neale performing the ceremony. The happy couple are two of Lone Rock's best known and most highly respected young people, the bride being a daughter of W. C. Brown, the well known cattleman of that section, and the groom is a son of Andrew Neel, who is also a well known stockman and farmer.

They returned to Lone Rock Sunday, where they will make their home. The Globe joins many other friends in best wishes.
When you have no appetite, and do not relish your food and feel dull after eating you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price 25 cents. Samples free at Hudson's Pharmacy.
