

THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1901.
THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

LOCAL NEWS.

Grant Wade and E. P. Weir were in town last night.

Judge J. B. Mattingly was in from Mayville precept Monday.

Chub Weir was over from Mayville for a few days during the week.

Rev. Curran has returned from California much improved in health.

J. E. Lancaster and S. A. Pattison visited Arlington during the week.

Mrs. Wm Dunlap and Mrs. Allie Baldwin visited Arlington during the week.

M. E. Summers and family have moved into their residence on Oregon Ave.

Alburn Moore has rented the Gross place and moved his family there.

Mrs. J. B. Clark left Tuesday morning for Drain to look after business matters.

H. N. Frazer and M. O. Clarke made a business trip to Portland during the week.

Rev. Edward Curran will preach at Lone next Sunday as it is his regular day at that place.

Will Sealey has been on the sick list for a few days. He is in town under the care of Dr. Wood.

Wm. Elen, a former resident of this section returned a few days ago after an absence of several years.

Mrs. R. F. Munn, of Arlington came out Friday to look after her farming interests and visit friends in Condon.

Riley Billings was over from Lone Rock Tuesday. He put in the Summer harvesting on Eightmile where, he says, they cut a very fair crop.

Miss Mable Hatstead is down with an attack of typhoid fever. Miss Belle Wilson has taken her place in the intermediate department of the public school.

A. C. Hawson, an old resident of Arlington, has disposed of all his interests there and left last Friday for Juneau, Alaska, where he expects to engage in business.

Mike Summers and John Shriver returned from Portland last Thursday. They report the metropolis as being rather quiet and said they did not have much of a time.

The City Restaurant was closed on Tuesday morning before breakfast was served by Sheriff Wilcox, says the Weekly. That's one on the sheriff. We did not he was serving meals.

Mrs. R. E. Armstrong, who has been in Portland several months taking medical treatment, came home last Friday but was obliged to return to the hospital the following Thursday.

Clarence Palmer, who is engaged in a lucrative barber business in Shaniko, is one of the many late additions to the Globe subscription list. His Condon friends will be glad to know that he is doing well.

A slight blaze in the residence occupied by Mrs. Herbert Hatstead and children, on Spring street Friday called out the fire department. But little damage was done and the blaze was quickly extinguished.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson returned from Portland Sunday. They were accompanied on their return trip by Miss Flossie Scott who is a sister of Mrs. Jackson. She will remain in Condon perhaps for the winter.

Loss—Sunday Oct. 5, on the road between Henry Hartman's place and Condon, a motorco bound bible bearing name of Florence Davidson on fly-leaf. Suitable reward if returned to Mrs. Ois Propst or left at this office.

W. A. Campbell came in from Sherman County during the week and while here leased his Ferry Canyon ranch to Wm. Twilley, late of Shaniko, for two years. Mr Campbell has given up planting bananas on the land for a couple of three years.

John Fectna was in town Tuesday looking as though he had been mixed up with a nest of hornets. The trouble was caused, however, by a colt in his barn kicking a pole against his head causing a severe scalp wound and some swelling of the optics.

"A List of Goods Made in Seattle" is the title of a neat pocket directory of manufacturing firms of that city. It is issued by the Manufacturer's Association. A copy can be secured by sending your address to the secretary, 218 Second Avenue South, Seattle, Wash.

An effort is being made to organize a football 11 at this place to compete with Fossil on the day of the Caledonian club meeting which will be held at Fossil on or about October 19. Should the organization be effected and a game played on that day a return game will probably be played at Condon on Thanksgiving day.

Prof. Patterson, principal of the Lone Rock school, opened the term Monday morning but before the day was over he suffered an alarming attack of heart trouble and was carried to his home. His death is expected at any time. The school officers sent a request to Superintendent Neal's office Tuesday morning to recommend a suitable principal to take charge of the school.

Reiplinger & Bates who have purchased the Hawson saloon at Arlington, have improved the place very much and are rapidly building up a flourishing business. They are also agents for the celebrated Hop Gold beer and, through the Star Brewery's Arlington cold storage plant, they handle all the beer used in this entire section of country. The new firm has an ad in this impression which shows that they desire a share of the patronage of the entire county, and we take pleasure in recommending them as courteous and obliging gentlemen.

Townsite Changes Hands.

An important real estate deal was closed Saturday whereby Mr. John E. Lancaster became the owner of the Condon townsite having purchased the property from the Arlington National Bank. The property includes about 320 town lots, besides a 40 acre tract not platted which lies immediately north of the road. Mr. Lancaster came to Condon from Seattle, last June and since that time he has become so favorably impressed with the advantages and resources of this region of the country, and of Condon that he decided to invest, remain here and help make a better town of Condon than it is today. He has been engaged in the real estate business in Spokane, Portland, and Seattle for the last 15 years and the fact that he has taken hold of such a large block of Condon property argues well for his strong faith in the future of the town. We understand that Mr. Lancaster will place a limited number of lots on the market at the old prices but he seems to think there may be a sharp advance in price within a few months. Mr. Lancaster has taken desk room in the Globe office where he may be found by anyone having business with him.

Married.

Wednesday evening, October 2, 1901, at the M. E. parsonage in Arlington, Mr. R. S. McKinney of Olex, and Miss Edna Pearl Hurt of Clem, were united in marriage, Rev. Baker officiating. The happy couple immediately after the ceremony took the train for Spokane, and other points of interest in Eastern Washington to spend their honeymoon. They have many friends to join in wishing them a long and happy life.

Mrs. Sam E. Van Vactor, and children left Tuesday morning for Columbus, Washington, to visit her parents.

Milton Washburn was kicked by a horse Tuesday morning at his place in Ferry Canyon and severely injured.

Struck Hard Coal.

James Cordell, who, in company with James Rimal, has been out on a hunting and prospecting tour throughout southern and eastern Oregon, called on the Globe last Thursday evening long enough to relate a few of his experiences. He claims that they have located a fine ledge of coal at the head of Lost Creek, in the vicinity of Lost Lake, and that it is one of the most extensive deposits of hard coal ever found in that section of the country. The ledge is fully fifteen feet deep and crops out in plain view for over half a mile.

Samples of this coal have been tested by Pennsylvania experts, he says, and they have pronounced it far superior to the product of the Keystone state for black-smithing purposes.

Should this prove as good as the boys expect, they easily have a fortune of no mean proportions within their grasp.

Blacksmith coal is as valuable as the average gold quartz. About the lowest price a good quality of it commands is $12 per ton, while here in Condon it is worth not less than $20 per ton. Quartzite that can command such a price is a very fair quality. This latest find will mean much for Oregon, and we hope Messrs. Cordell and Rimal will be successful with their enterprise.

A New Enterprise.

John Shriver is fitting up an up-to-date lunch counter and short order house in the Fix building and expects soon to launch a business which will be a new departure in Condon. In addition to catering to the wants of the hungry public he will do a retail business in all kinds of fish, shell fish, game, vegetables, etc. in season. He has made arrangements with his Portland houses and the express company to co-operate in sending his goods through direct without delay on the route and will be able to furnish his customers with strictly fresh, reliable goods. The lunch counter and short order business will be run on the check plan—pay for what you get—whether it be 5 cents or $5. Mr. Shriver is a hustler and we predict for him a big degree of success in his venture. The rooms which he will occupy will be thoroughly overhauled and renovated.

When you have no appetite, and do not relish your food and feel dull after eating you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets Price 25 cents. Samples free at Hudson's Pharmacy.

A Trip to the North End.

The writer enjoyed a trip to the north end of the county during the past week and found all the good people of that section prosperous and bustling as they always are. Many substantial improvements were noted at Olex which is fast becoming one of the main business centers of the county. Wade Bros, big general merchandise emporium is crowded with reasonable goods and many customers were on hand to get their share of the Fall and Winter bargains. A neat drug store owned by Hatch & Fletcher and a new hotel of which Geo. Taylor is host are among the late additions to the business enterprises of the town. Arlington is the same busy town it has always been, although the busy season in marketing wheat from the interior has hardly opened.

Lord & Co are easily the biggest and busiest merchants in the city their complete stock of everything being a drawing card which buyers are looking for. We did not hear any kicking around the Lord establishment about lack of business.

The two big warehouses, the Arlington (Kerr Gifford & Co.) and the Interior, (Balfour Guthrie & Co.) handled a large amount of wool during the season and are prepared to handle all the wheat which two counties can produce. Judge Eli's soda works are still busy turning out first class "soft" drinks and the general body is as smiling as of yore.

Everybody down there is talking railroad and they all seem to think the Eastern Oregon Co. people mean business.

A new remedy for biliousness is now on sale at Hudson's Pharmacy. It is called Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. It gives quick relief and will prevent the attack if given as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appears. Price, 25 cents per box. Samples free.

The Railroad Survey.

The survey of the Eastern Oregon Railroad Co. is making favorable progress. The line has been completed to the ridge a mile or so south of Clem and an excellent grade has been secured. Work in the field has been discontinued for a few days while Engineer Mohr and his assistants are catching up with their office work at Arlington. Complete maps, plats etc., of the line are being made and as soon as that branch of the work is brought up with the field work they will return, and complete the line into Condon. The consensus of opinion in Arlington is that the road will be built and an evidence that the enterprising people of that town are friendly to this project, which means so much in the development of Gilliam County, is the fact that the city authorities have granted a franchise for a right-of-way through the town.

Indications seem to indicate a rosy future for grand old Gilliam within the next year or so.
