VOL. XI.

ask her if she ever thought of me in her

I began to sound the driver, cautiously eliness and friendlessness.

HAS THREE TIMES THE CINCULATION

* The Doctor's Hilemma

By Hesba Stretton

matic enterprise

at onse now."

gether this time."

"Well, Martin," she said that evening

"you need suffer no more anxiety. Offvia has gone as English teacher in an excel-mestic arrangements being on a thoroughly liberal scale.' Here is also a photographic view of the place; a charming

The lady's husband is an avocat; and everything is taught by professors-cosmog-raphy and pedagogy, and other studies of which we never heard when I was a girl.

Olivia is to stay there twelve months, and in return for her services will take les-establishment. Your mind may be quite know she has changed her name alto-

CHAPTER XX .- (Continued.) "You love her?" said Johanna.
"Certainly," I answered, "as my sis-

"Better than any woman now living?"

"That is all Julia requires," she continued; "so let us say no more at pres-ent, Martin. Only understand that all idea of marriage between her and my brother is quite put away. Don't argue with me, don't contradict me. Come to see us as you would have done but for that unfortunate conversation last night.

All will come right by-and-by."
"But Captain Carey—" I began.
"There! not a word!" she interrupted imperatively. "Tell me all about that wretch, Richard Foster." How did you come across him? Is he likely to die? Is he anything like Kate Daltrey?-I will never call her Kate Dobree as long as the world lasts. Come, Martin, tell me everything about him."

She sat with me most of the morning. talking with animated perseverance, and at last prevailed upon me to take her a walk in Hyde Park. Her pertinacity did me good in spite of the irritation it caused me. When her dinner hour was at hand I felt bound to attend her to her house in Hanover street; and I could not get away from her without first speaking to Julia. Her face was very sorrowful, and her manner sympathetic. We said only a few words to one another. but I went away with the impression that her heart was still with me.

At dinner Jack announced his intention of paying a visit to Richard Foster. You are not fit to deal with the fellow," he said; "you may be sharp enough upon your own black sheep in Guernsey. but you know nothing of the breed here. Now if I see him I will squeeze out of him every mortal thing he knows about Jack returned, his face kindled with excitement. He caught my hand, and grasped it heartily.

"I no more believe she is dead than I am," were his first words. "You recollect me telling you of a drunken brawl in a street off the Strand, where a fellow, as drunk as a lord, was for claimfollowed her out of Ridley's agency office, and was just in time to protect her from him. A girl I could have fallen in love with myself. You recollect?"
"Yes, yes," I said, almost breathless

"He was the man, and Olivia was the girl?" exclaimed Jack. "No!" I cried. "Yes!" continued Jack, with an affectionate lunge at me; "at any rate I can swear he is the man; and I would bet a thousand to one that the girl was Olivia,' "But when was it?" I asked. Since he married again," he answered; "they were married on the 2d of October, and this was early in November I had gone to Ridley's after a place for a poor fellow as an assistant to a druggist, and I saw the girl distinctly. She gave the name of Ellen Martineau, Those letters about her death are all forgeries." "Olivia's is not," I said; "I know her handwriting too well."

"Well, then," observed Jack, "there is only one explanation. She has sent them herself to throw Foster off the scent; she thinks she will be safe if he believes her dead.'

"No," I answered hotly, "she would never have done such a thing as that." "Who else is benefited by it?" he asked gravely. "It does not put Foster into possession of any of her property, or to do it. But he gains nothing by it; and he is so convinced of her death that he has taken a second wife."

aloud, though I was thinking to myself. "Martin," replied Jack, gravely, "isn't it wisest to leave the matter as it stands? If you find Olivia, what then? She is as much separated from you as she can be by death. So long as Foster lives it is worse than useless to be thinking of her."

"I only wish to satisfy myself that she is alive," I answered. "Just think of it, Jack, not to know whether she is living or dead! You must help me to satisfy myself. This mystery would be intolera

"You're right, old fellow," he said, cordially; "we will go to Ridley's together to-morrow morning."

We were there soon after the doors were open. There were not many clients present, and the clerks were enjoying a slack time. Jack had recalled to his mind the exact date of his former visit; and thus the sole difficulty was overcome. The clerk found the name of Ellen Martineau entered under that date

"Yes," he said, "Miss Ellen Martineau. English teacher in a French school; premium to be paid, about £10; no salary; reference, Mrs. Wilkinson, No. 19, Bellringer street."

- "No. 19 Bellringer street!" we repeated in one breath. "Yes, gentlemen, that is the address." I write it down for you? Mrs. Wilkinour commission; as you perceive, a premlum was required instead of a salary given. We feel pretty sure the young lady went to the school, but Mrs. Wilkinson denies it, and it is not worth our while to pursue our claim in law." "Can you describe the young lady?" I inquired. "We'l, no. We have such hosts of young ladies here,".... 'Do you know where the school is?" "No. Mrs. Wilkinson was the party." he said. "We had nothing to do with it.

except to send any ladies to her who thought it worth their while. That was

As we could obtain no further information we went away, and paced up and trees standing in long straight rows in her. A sweet face, with down the tolerably quiet street, deep in the hedges. If I found Olivia at the end but a little more somber. consultation. That we should have need of that star-lit path my gladness in it for great caution, and as much craftiness as we both possessed, in pursuing our in- what then? I should see her for a few eling about the object of my excursion into those remote regions. I had tramped through Normandy and Brit- ill with the fever, me tany three or four times, but there had been no inducement to visit Noiresu, I will ask her."

Which resembled a Lancashire cotton He returned town, and I had never been there. } "There are not many English at Not-reau?" I remarked suggestively. "Not one," he replied—"not one at this ter herself? At any rate it would not do noment. There was one little English mam zelle-pentel-a very pretty little for either of us to present ourselves there in quest of Miss Ellen Martineau. It English girl, who was voyaging precisely like you, m'sieur, some months ago. There was a little child with her, and the was finally settled between us that Johanna should be entrusted with the diplotwo were quite alone. They are very intrepid, are the English mam'selles. She did not know a word of our isnguage. But that was droil, m'sieur! A French Johanna put in the next day following down the clews Jack and 1 had discovdemoiselle would never voyage like that."

The little child pussled me. Yet I could not help fancying that this young has gone as English teacher in an excel-lent French school, where the lady is thoroughly acquainted with English ways At any rate it could be no other than and comforts. This is the prospectus of the establishment. You see there are "Where was she gold "Where was she going to?" I asked. extensive grounds for recreation, and the "She came to Noireau to be an incomforts of a cheerfully happy home, the structress in an establishment," answered the driver, in a tone of great enjoyment

"an establishment founded by the wife of Monsieur Emile Perrier, the avocat! villa, you see, in the best Freuch style. He! he! he! how droll that was, m'sieur! An avocat! So they believed that in England? Bah! Emile Perrier an avo-

"But what is there to laugh at?" I ask

"Am I an avocat?" he inquired derissons from any professors attending the ively, "am I a proprietor? am I even a cure? Pardon, m'sieur, but I am just as much avocat, proprietor, cure, as Emile "But where is the place?' I inquired. Perrier. He was an impostor. He be-"Oh! it is in Normandy-Noireau," he came bankrupt; he and his wife ran away said-"quite out of the range of railways to save themselves; the establishm and tourists. There will be no danger of was broken up. It was a bubble, m'sleur, any one finding her out there; and you and it burst."

My driver clapped his hands together lightly, as though Monsieur Perrier's bub-"Did you discover that Olivia and Ellen ble needed very little pressure to dis-Martineau are the same persons?" I ask-

"Good heavens!" I exclaimed, "but

SITTING BESIDE THE DRIVER.

"No. I did not," she answered; "I what became of Oll-of the young Enghought you were sure of that." was not sure of the color either of her Somebody will tell you down there," hair or eyes, and made blundering guesses It was nearly eleven o'clock before we at her height.

What was I to believe? rier boarded with her when she was in self she must be her very counterpart. that would have been a motive for him London. But she might begin to talk to I started out early the next morning "What can I do now?" I said, speaking Olivia might plunge her into fresh diffi- There were two houses, one standing in ter or his wife.

> my place, Jack. How can I rest till I know more about Olivia?"

> "I do put myself in your place," he a run down to this place in Basse Normandy, and seeing for yourself whether Miss Ellen Martineau is your Olivia?" "How can I?" I asked, attempting to hang back from the suggestion. It was a busy time with us. The season was in full roll, and our most aristocratic patients were in town. The easterly winds bronchitis and diphtheria. If I went blood in my voins." Jack's hands would be more than full. I paid monsieur a compliment upon the Had these things come to perplex us only a holiday with a clear conscience,

"Dad will jump at the chance of comrid of you."

nel to Havre, and found myself about Perrier rented it from me for two hunfive o'clock in the afternoon of the next dred francs a year. I permitted him to said the clerk, closing the book. "Shall day at Falaise. It was the terminus of pass along this walk, and through our the railway in that direction; and a very coach house into a passage which leads son was the party who should have paid ancient conveyance was in waiting to to the street where madame had her carry on any travelers who were venture school. Permit me, and I will show it some enough to explore the regions be- to you.'

the driver, a red-faced, smooth-cheeked at the back. A small, miserable-looking Norman, habited in a blue blouse, who house stood in it, shut up, with broken could crack his long whip with almost the persiennes covering the windows. My skill of a Parisian omnibus driver. We heart sank at the idea of Olivia living were friends in a trice, for my patois was here, in such discomfort and neglect and almost identical with his own, and he sordid poverty. could not believe his own ears that he was talking with an Englishman.

The sun sank below the distant horizon, with the trees showing clearly her." against it, and the light of the stars that came out one by one almost east a defined shadow upon our path, from the poplar One must have been blind not to observe would be completed. Yet if I found her, inquired. quiries was quite evident. Who could be this Mrs. Wilkinson? Was it possible that she might prove to be Mrs. Fos-lish lady, and the child?" But I was not sure of it; neither could "Ah, m'sieur!" he said, "I do not know Jack be sure. He puzzled himself in I do not live in Noireau, but I pass to trying to give a satisfactory description and fro from Falaise. She has not reof his Ellen Martineau; but every an- turned in my omnibus, that is all I know. swor he gave to my eager questions But she could go to Granville, or to Caen. plunged us into greater uncertainty. He There are other omnibuses, you see, entered the town; but I learned a few more particulars from the middle-aged It was running too great a risk to woman in the omnibus bureau. She recmake any further inquiries at No. 19 ollected the name of Miss Ellen Marti-Bellringer street. Mrs. Wilkinson was neau, and her arrival; and she described the landlady of the lodging house, and her with the accuracy and faithfulness she had told Johanna that Madame Per- of a woman. If she were not Olivia herher other lodgers, if her own curiosity to find the Rue de Grace, where the inwere excited; and once more my desire scription on my photographic view of the to fathom the mystery hanging about premises represented them as situated. culties, should it reach the ears of Fos- the street, the other lying back beyond a very pleasant garden. A Frenchman was 150 years old. A coachman in Moscow

"I must satisfy myself about her safe- pacing up and down the broad gravel ty now," I said. "Only put yourself in path which connected them, examining critically the vines growing against the walls. Two little children were gamboling about in close white caps, and with answered. "What do you say to having frocks down to their heels. Upon seeing me he lifted his hat. I returned the sal utation with a politeness as cerem as his own.

"Monsieur is an Englishman?" he said in a doubtful tone.

"From the Channel Islands," I replied "Ah! you belong to us," he said, "but you are hybrid, half English, were bringing in their usual harvest of French; a fine race. I also have English result of the admixture of blood in his two months earlier, I could have taken own instance, and then proceeded to unfold my object in now visiting him. "Ah!" he said, "yes, yes, yes; Perrier ing back for a week," replied Jack; "he was an impostor. These houses are is bored to death down at Fulham. Go mine, monsieur. I live in the front ronyou must, for my sake, old fellow. You der; my daughter and son-in-law occupy are good for nothing as long as you're so the other. We had the photographs takdown in the mouth. I shall be glad to be en for our own pleasure, but Perrier must have bought them from the artist, In this way it came to pass that two no doubt. I have a small cottage at the evenings later I was crossing the Chan- back of my house; monsieur! there it is.

He led me through a shed, and along a I very much preferred sitting beside dirty, vaulted passage, into a mean street

"Did you ever see a young English lady here, monsieur?" I asked; "she arrived about the beginning of last Novem-

"But yes, certainly, monsieur," he re plied, "a charming English demoiselle her. A sweet face, with hair of gold,

"What height was she, monsieur?" "A just height," he answered, "not tall ted Noireau during the last month.

reaus, where we made orgent inquiries incerning the passengers who had quit see the drivers upon their return in the evening; and I was compelled to give up the pursuit for that day. (To be continued.)

SPOILED THE FLIRTATION.

Was a Racer and Had to Keep in the Front.

A gentleman who is a member of the Meadow Brook Hunt Club and delights in horseback riding received a few days animal had some speed and an easy galt, and, after riding it around the country roads a few days, he rode it, gentlemen who were out for a moonlight canter.

The party split up into couples, and while the gentleman in question would much prefer to have taken the rear of the line with the lady whose escort he was, yet the pony developed an unexpected ambition to lead the procession, secording to the New York Mail and Express. He let the "cayuse" have its own way only to find that the headstrong animal insisted on being at hearty support. least one-half a length in front of the

to "go to the front and stay there."

Where Centenarians Dwell. has lived for 140 years.

Further Information Wanted. In one of the later settlements of had been very conflicting, and as the that if he could give any assistance in the way of smoothing out possible diffi-was in deep trouble.

"Well, sir," remarked the Judge, "is ask me before you retire?" The juror's face brightened, and he replied eagerly: "I would like to know, my lord, if you the watch." Wanted to Be a Heathen. ers)-I wish I was a heathen!

as that? somethin'."-Harper's Bazar.

What He Was Doing Of. Mrs. Kelly-Did yez hear of the felly perosht the way dyin' of Anglophobia? Mrs. Googan-Yes mean hydrophobia! Mrs. Kelly-No: I mean Anglophobia! He wus cheerin' fer King Ed-

Speed of Ocean Steamers. The speed of our fastest ocean steam

Few Millionaires in France. There are four millionaires in En gland to one in France.

myself that she was living. There could I it could be no other than my Olivin! EVENTS OF THE DAY be nothing more between us. I dared She had been living here, then, in this not tell her how dear she was to me, or miserable place, only a month ago; but where could she be now? How was I "I will make some inquiries from my daughter," said the Frenchunu; "when the establishment was broken up I was ill with the fever, monsieur. We have THE WORLD.

fever often here. But she will know-He returned to me after some time, with the information that the English demoiselle had been seen in the house of a woman who sold milk, Mademoiselle Rosalie by name; and he vo accompany me to her dwell It was a poor-looking h room only, in the same at school; but we found no one an old woman, exceeding told us that Mademoiselfe gone somewhere to nurse a was dangerously ill, and she ing of an Englishwomen and I turned away bafiled and to find any trace of her?

CONDON, GILLIAM CO., OREGON, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1901.

but my naw friend was not se quickly depressed. It was impossible, he main tained, that the English girl and the child could have left the town unnoticed He went with me to all the omnibus b places had been taken for Miss Eller taxes. Martineau and the child, for there was no such name in any of the books. But at each bureau I was recommended to trial for murder at Seattle. ago a wiry "cayuse" or cow-pony, as they are called in the Northwest. The one evening, with a party of ladies and

There was no holding that pony N. S. Loss, $50,000. back on even terms with the other horses. It pranced about, jumped from side to side and pulled the bit and would be quiet only when it had its nose well to the front. The lady enwhich he had planned to say to the young lady when they started on the Subsequently the gentleman ing in the West and had been trained still entombed.

More people over one hundred years old are found in mild climates than in the higher altitudes, according to the "Family Doctor." According to the last census of the German Empire, of a population of 55,000,000 only 78 have passed the hundredth year. France, with a population of 40,000,000, has 213 centenarians. In England there are 146; in Ireland, 578; and in Scotland, 46. Sweden has 10, and Norway 23; Belgium, 5; Denmark, 2; Switzerland, none. Spain, with a population of 18,-000,000, has 401 persons over 100 years of age. Of the 2,250,000 inhabitants of Servia, 575 have passed the century mark. It is said that the oldest person living is Bruno Cotrim, born in Africa, and now living in Rio Janeiro. He is

New South Wales a man was put on trial for stealing a watch. The evidence jury retired the Judge remarked kindly culties he should be happy to do so. Eleven of the jury had filed out of the box, but the twelfth remained, and the anarchists" was prohibited by the expression on his face showed that he there any question you would like to and the officials believe that even sessions twice daily. The afternoon ask me before you retire?" this speed can be beaten.

could tell us whether the prisoner stole bank robbery in Iowa within a month.

Little John (after casting his penny into the fund for the Bamalam Island-Sabbath-School Teacher-Oh, Johnny! Why do you wish such an awful thing

"The beathen don't never have to give nothin'-they are always gettin' says that she was once asked if an ward, an' de gang heerd him!-Judge.

ers is now greater than that of express trains on Italian railways.

a man to lose a first-class friend.

FROM THE FOUR QUARTERS OF

Comprehensive Review of the Important Happenings of the Past Week Presented in a Condensed Form Which is Most national tragedy which took from us

The transport Hancock is ashore in apanese waters. More shipwrecks are reported on he English coast. A mounted force of Cape Dutch sur-endered to the Boers, be recognized in army promotions.

Aguinaldo declines the offer of an merican lawyer to work for his re-State of Oregon will make a survey of arid lands in eastern part of Insane man killed an officer at Cos-mopolis, Wash., shot a friend, and was seriously wounded himself. Tom Considine broke down while testifying in behalf of his brother, on

WHY LIPTON SUCCEEDS. My receipt for prosperity, in such a concern as mine, is at the disposal of all. Here it is: "Work hard, deal hencetly, be enterprising, exercise careful judgment, advertise freely but judiclously."—Sir Thomas Lipton, in Saturday Evening Post.

Fire in Boston destroyed property valued at $100,000.

The secretary of the interior has created a bureau of forestry. President Roosevelt has pledged the Lewis and Clark Centennnial his Fire destroyed every mercantile 13th day of November, 1901. and several fine houses in Pucwash.

Latest advices from Miss Stone's place of confinement state that her imprisonment is affecting her reason. Burglars blew open the safe of the joyed it immensely, but the gentleman bank of Chatham, Ill., and secured -well, he left unsaid many things $1,500. The burglars escaped on a handcar.

found the pony had been used for rac- at Stassure, Prussia. Thirteen are delegates of other nationalities, was The owners of the petroleum works > reckless competition. A flow of oil has been struck in 200 feet. A gushing oil field is ex- ald extended by the United States, he pected to be developed. King Edward has decided to have the celebrated Koh-I-Noor diamond trine, safeguard of the New World. mounted in the crown of Queen Alexandra for the coronation. The presidente of Tacloban, Leyte, has been arrested for treason.

Count von Hatzfeldt, German am bassador to England has retired.

A Colombian soldier shot at, but fca." missed, United States Minister Hart. Wind, rain and snow are playing havoc with the shipping of the Brit-The business portion of Berlin,

The United States Steel Corporation is endeavoring to enlarge by buying up the independent companies. Hereafter Australian mail for Lon-don will go via San Francisco and and no return has been made of the New York instead of the Suez canal. A London anarchist meeting to to show to what purposes these loans to show to were applied during the eight years.

police. A German elecrtic railroad has at-

The first day of the deer season in Wisconsin was marked by three casualties, the men in each instance being taken for deer. One of them will die and the other two crippled for actress did not sacrifice her finer nature by permitting "stage embraces." In reply she declares with some spirit: Such a question demands the application of only a fair degree of common sense to ensure a negative an-

Stage Hugging.

The leading sugar refining company is now turning out 25,000 barrels of tons, is one of the curiosities of Petersburg, Russia. Here is a simple method of making haif a ton of coal go as far as fifteen hundredweight. The plan is to place a quantity of chalk in the grates. A second-class joke has caused many man to lose a first-class friend.

Once heated, this is practically lnex-haustible from combustion, and gives out great heat.

Once heated, this is practically lnex-haustible from combustion, and gives exported. The shipment of immature but few of these experiments were in fruit will shortly be prohibited by law.

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION. Proclaims November 28 to Be a Day

Vregon Historia

Thunksgiving. Salem, Nov. 13. - Governor Geer today issued a Thanksgiving procla-mation, designating November 28 as the day to be observed. The proclamation follows:

"Although not yet passed from beneath the shadow of the great Likely to Prove of Interest to Our Many loved chief magistrate, we find reason for national thanksgiving in the unifying effect the great affliction has bad upon the different sections of our common country, and for the prospect of a continued era of good feeling. At no time within 50 years has party feeling been less bitter, or our country so harmonious in matters concerning its domestic welfare. Twenty persons were killed by the earthquakes in Frarcum.

The President's Thanksgiving procamation was cabled to Manila.

Merit and not political influence will has provided the necessaries of life in the second e recognized in army promotions. in abundance among our people, all Ways and means committeemen are classes of whom are engaged in redivided on the subject of reducing war munerative employment, and the taxes. tions of our great country in synony-mous with steady progress and an

> the hand and mind of an overruling Providence who doeth all things well. and that a spirit of gratitude suggests an acknowledgement of the many favors enjoyed by us as a com-monwealth, I hereby recommend, in conformity with the proclamation of the president of the United States, that Thursday, the 28th of November, 1901, be observed as a day of membering the poor with appropriate gifts and cheerful words, desist from their usual vocations, and, in their shipment weighs 103,000 pounds and ance, for the past mercies, and invoke the Divine aid along the pathway of national righteousness as our country assumes the leading position n power and influence among the nations of the earth.

"In witness whereof, I have here- Rogue river is greater than for 10 unto set my hand and caused the years. great seal of the state of Oregon to be

F. I. DUNBAR, Secretary of State. THE DIAZ DOCTRINE.

Friendly Remarks by a Mexican at Pan-American Banquet. City of Mexico, Nov. 18 .- The toast delivered by Alfred Canavero, on be-Three persons were killed and 25 half of the Mexican delegation, at a Pendleton cigar store and left all others injured in a mining accident banquet in honor of the pan-American fastenings undisturbed. noteworthy, on account of its friend-liness for the United States. Mr. Can-so that it may be worked and made The owners of the petroleum works in Gallicia, Austro-Hungary, have Mexico during the Civil War in the decided to form a trust to end the United States was in the hope of eatablishing an empire and dismembering the American Republic, thus bringwell at Debeque, Colo., at a depth of ing republics into disrepute. The des- freight steamer between that city perate resistance of Mexico and the > said, saved both nations. Said he: "We already had the Monroe Doc-The Diaz Doctrine constitutes its combe expressed in this apothegm: 'The international law of America is foundon the respect for the sovereignty, independence and territorial integrity of each and all the republics of Amer. reported to be $3,000,000.

City Ledgers Missing. Chicago, Nov. 18 .- The finance committee of the City Council has discovered that the city's ledgers covering its accounts from 1876 to 1884 are Md., was practically destroyed by fire. missing. This was discovered in an investigation of the sinking fund accounts in which a discrepancy of more than $2,100,000 was recently an- $16.00 per ton. nounced. It is claimed that previous administrations have borrowed from dling, $20@21; shorts, 19@20; chop, amounts so diverted. There is no record, according to the City Controller, $7@9.50; Oregon wild hay, $5@6 per Schley Court Works Overtime Washington, Nov. 15 .- The Schley tained a speed of 105 miles an hour court of inquiry began today to hold The bank of Plymouth, Ia., was This change was made in the interest dynamited. Fifteen hundred dollars of more rapid progress in the work bewas secured. This is the seventh fore the court, for it is the general desire to have the findings presented 4.00 for young; geese, $6@7 per dozent the earliest possible date.

Exchange of Prisoners.

New York, Nov. 18 .- Negotiations are under way for the first time to exchange prisoners, says the Panama correspondent of the Herald. General Domingo Diaz, chief of the revolu-Miss Julia Marlowe, writing in the tionary party in the Department of Dramatic Number of Collier's Weekly. Panama, sent a committee to see General Alban and to give him a letter. The committees were Senor Isalas Rodrigues and Aizphpura. The in-surgents hold four captains, two lieusurgents hold four captains, two hold tenants, five sub-lieutenants, and 30 tenants, five sub-lieutenants, and 30 soldiers. General Alban agreed to an 20@21c per pound.

Potatoes—65@85 per sack.

Movements of Gunbosts. Washington, Nov. 18. The Navy Department has been informed of the arrival of the gunboat Concord at Aca-A cast bronze statue, weighing 110 pulco, and of the Marietta at Key West. These vessels are to relieve the Iowa at Panama and the Machias the storage of 500,000 to 600,000 bags at Colon.

NEWS OF THE STATE

TEMB OF INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS OF OREGON.

commercial and Financial Happenings of Importance-A Brief Review of the Growth and Improvements of the Many Industries Throughout Our Thriving Commonwealth -Latest Market Report

Material is being hauled for a new saw mill near Oregon City. Gold worth 50 cents was taken from the craw of a duck raised at Scotts Mills.

Thieves broke into a Eugene store and stole a number of small articles. of little value.

A recevier has been appointed for the Columbia Logging Company, near St. Helens.

Superintendent Brown, of the Falls River fish hatchery, says the outlook there is very favoral Practically all the hops about Dallas have been shipped. Prices were from 816 to 10 cents per pound. assuredly prosperous future.

"Recognizing in all these things Senator Mitchell has announced that he will endeavor to have a new federal court district established in Eastern Oregon,

Roseburg's city council has let the contract of grading and surfacing with crushed rock about 10 blocks of the principal streets.

Thirty dwelling houses have been built in Dallas since January 1. thanksgiving and prayer, and that all our people on that day, while re-Nine carloads of wool left Harrisburg the other day for the East. The usual places of worship, or elsewhere, give praise to Almighty God, upon whom our fathers so firmly relied for national as well as individual guidcounty met at the court house in Albany and began arrangements toward securing legislation by the next congress granting pensions to all veterans entitled to them. The fall run of silverside salmon in

W. T. Grier has sold his fruit farm affixed, at the capitol, in Salem, this of 10 acres, two miles from La Grande, for $3,000. The Hodson farm of 225 acres, three miles southeast of Salem, has been sold for $6,500. About 75 men of the coast artillery will complete their terms at Fort Stevens next month and will receive their discharges.

A mysterious burglar got away with a large amount of goods from A receiver will be asked for the

A movement is under way to organize a company composed wholly of Astoria business men to operate a and Portland, in consequence of excessive freight charges by the transportation lines. A syndicate, of which the principal is a millionaire lumberman of Minneement, and the Diaz Doctrine may apolis, is about to acquire the immense lumber, railroad and sawmill holdings of the Siskiyou Lumber &

Portland Markets. Wheat - Walla Walla, nominal, 55@55%o?; bluestem, 56c; Valley, Flour-Best grades, $2.65@3.50

Barley-Feed, $15@15.50; brewing, Millstuffs - Bran, $17@18; mid-

Butter-Fancy creamery, 25@27 1/4c; dairy, 18@20c; store, 14@15c per Hay-Timothy. $11@13; clover.

Eggs-Storage, 20e; fresh, 23@24c, Eastern 20@21. Cheese-Full cream, twins, 121/6 13c; Young America, 131/2@14c. Poultry-Chickens, mixed, $2.50@ 3.00; hens, $4.00; dressed, 10@11c per pound springs, $2.50@ 3.00, per dozen; ducks, $3 for old $3.00@

8@10c per pound. Mutton-Lambs, 3 40 gross; dressed 6@6% o per pound; sheep, $3.25 gross; dressed, 6c per pound. Hogs-Gross, heavy, $6@6.25; light, $4.75@5; dressed, 7@7% o per pound.

Veal-Small, 8@8%0; large, 7@7%c Beef-Gross top steers, $3.50@4.00; cows and heifers, $3.00@3.50; dressed beef, 5%@6%c per pound. Hops-8@10%c per pound.

Eastern Oregon, 8@1214c; mohair, The assessed valuation of Idaho has Wool-Valley, 11@13 1/2 per pound; increased $4,649,580 in a single year, and the total now is $52,195,486. Thirty-two additional warehouse are to be provided in New York for

Tax on Orange Exports.

The total number of experiments on Kingston, Jamaica, Nov. 18.—The living animals in the United Kingdom government intends to levy a tax of in 1900 was 10,839, 2370 more than in