

THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 2, 1902.

NOTICE.
The Globe in the correspondence from all sections of Gilliam county. We aim to make this paper the leading news medium of the county and invite our friends to assist us by sending in the news of their respective neighborhoods. Correspondence must be signed by the writer, and delivered to the printer, but as an evidence of good faith, and the editor assumes no responsibility for opinions expressed by correspondents.

To be right write it 1902.
Have you broken that New Year's resolution yet?

If the old saying that "the road to hell is paved with broken resolutions" is true the party business should enjoy quite a boom for the next few weeks.

If the German-American war scare should materialize we may expect to see John Pierpont form a safer kraut-linburger trust. It would be a "strong" combine.

"The Boer war is over," again announce the dispatches. Yes it is over—the ocean in Africa—but a later dispatch announces that the Boers have just licked the British a couple of times lately.

A missionary who operates in Northern China writes his home office in the United States, that the Chinese are making stupendous preparations for war with the evident intention of expelling all foreigners from the Empire. He seems to think it a most deplorable condition of affairs, perhaps because he is afraid of losing his job. If China belongs to the Chinese why have they not as good a right to keep foreign missionaries and traders out as we have to pass a Chinese exclusion law? It is their country and their religion and perhaps Chinese civilization is better adapted to their needs than is the American article. China, and the world at large might be better off if the missionaries, and other foreign exploiters will keep off the Chinamen's grass.

China Wedding.

More than a hundred people gathered at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hardie on Trail Fork on Christmas day in honor of the 20th anniversary of the marriage of that much respected couple and many were yet guests even into the third day. All were royally entertained and the way the people enjoyed themselves in the merry waits and the way that turkeys and other good food vanished was truly astonishing. The feast of Cedric the Saxon was tame compared with that of this Scottish-American host. Nor did people come empty handed, for gifts of rare and costly china were showered upon the worthy host and hostess until the latter declared it would break the ranch up to buy closets for their safe keeping. We noticed a beautiful stand plate glass from Mr. and Mrs. David Spaulding, a fine commode set from Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Russell, a magnificent pair of vases from Stewart Campbell, another pair from Joe. Trivett, a cute elephant teapot from Mr. and Mrs. Wells, a double set of floured coffee cups and saucers from Mr. and Mrs. George Stewart, a chaste table set from Mr. and Mrs. H. Halstead, a very rich Scotch plaid shawl from Jas. Campbell, a very fine set tea cups and saucers came from Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pattison, a set of rose jars in three pieces came from Fred Wilson and George Martin, a splendid cake set in seven pieces, rich enough for King Edward's table, came from Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Van Vactor, a beautiful blue twisted fruit basket from Miss Mabel Halstead, a blue green wine set in eight pieces from R. H. Wain and Miss Lorraine Maddock, a decorated wine set in seven pieces from Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Summers and rich and costly china gifts from Jas. Cameron, Wm. Stewart, the venerable Wilkinson White, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Bort, Miss Henrietta Whyte, and many others. All of the above named parties graced the occasion with their presence. Miss Anna Van Cleave and Mrs. Thos. Van Cleave of Monitor Oregon were present, also that Scotchman who is not a Scotchman I. W. Darling of Condon and Mrs. Darling and many whose names escaped our reporter. All enjoyed themselves immensely and Van Vactor actually danced the Scotch reel.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardie are very popular people and enjoy life in a very comfortable home in the foot hills and it was with pleasant memories and feelings that the party bade God speed and well wishes the next day.

SCHOOL NOTES.

GRACE BALDING, Editor

Happy New Year.

School opened Monday and now that our holidays are over we should begin the new year with a determination to do much better work.

We were very much pleased to see so many parents and friends at the entertainment Monday night. We regret that there was not seats enough for all.

Clarence Hollenbeck, Henry Stanton, and Frank Holles entered school this week.

Elmer Baker visited the school Tuesday.

Robert Fitzwater and Vivian Collins of the eighth grade, Mary Whyte, Louise Morrell, Ellis Clark and Emil Dams are absent this week.

Evangeline Snell, who has been attending school here this winter has returned home.

Two new pupils were enrolled in the intermediate room Bert Hollen in the fifth grade and Willie Hollen in the fourth grade.

Gentle Shannon has been absent a few days on account of illness.

Christmas Day at Ferry Canyon.

There was a very pleasant and happy family reunion on Christmas day at the residence of Chas. T. Pinkham and N. D. Cavin of Ferry Canyon. There were present Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cavin of Pine Creek, W. L. Wilcox wife and four children, of Condon, N. D. Cavin wife and one child and Mrs. C. T. Pinkham, and three children, John F. Pinkham, of Ferry Canyon, father of C. T. Pinkham, and Walter Grider, of Condon, seventeen in all. A splendid turkey dinner with the mince pie, cake and other accompaniments such as only the kind and good houses can prepare and serve. The evening was spent in singing, dancing, and social converse. On Thursday at the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Cavin the whole party went to their home (one half mile distant) and discussed an excellent dinner. In the evening the party returned to Charley's and had a happy time. Altogether the reunion was a very happy and pleasant one, grandfathers, grandmothers, children, and grandchildren from 75 years to six weeks old.

A GUEST.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annapolis, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which was no doubt warded off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Sold by Hudson's Pharmacy.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to sincerely thank my friends and neighbors for the kindly assistance and sympathy shown me at the time of my recent terrible bereavement. Your kind offices and tender words made a mother's sorrow a little less bitter. You have helped to "bind up the broken hearted and to comfort the comfortless."
Mrs. M. J. Rice.

Thousands Sent Into Exile.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. Don't be an exile when Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption will cure you at home. It's the most infallible medicine for Coughs, Colds and all Throat and Lung diseases on earth. The first dose brings relief. Astonishing cures result from persistent use. Trial bottles free at Condon Pharmacy. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

In Memoriam.

Whereas Death the silent messenger has again crossed our threshold and taken from our Grange our worthy Brother Lewis Edelman charter and honored member it seems fitting that in his death we revere his good deeds and worthy acts. He became a member of this Grange Jan 29 1887 and was an earnest worker always true to its principles and faithful in attendance. Therefore be it RESOLVED: That our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days.
RESOLVED: That in the death of brother Edelman this Grange has lost a useful and honored member the family a devoted husband and father.

RESOLVED: That the Grange set apart a page of their minute book and record thereon this memorial and that a copy of the same be forwarded to the family of our departed brother and also a copy to the Northwest Pacific Farmer also a copy to the Fossil Journal and to each of the Condon papers for publication.
G. T. ANGELL,
Committee

REMARKABLE CURE OF COUGP.

A Little Boy's Life Saved.

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D. and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine my boy would not be on earth today.

LONE ROCK.

The fine weather seems to be a record breaker for the winter season.

Christmas events passed off harmoniously in our vicinity the Christmas tree was an enjoyable affair, many hearts were made happy with beautiful and costly presents.

Several parties from neighboring towns and surrounding country attended the ball here Christmas night and all report having had a rip-roaring time.

A horsebuyer from the Sound country last week bought a few head of good work horses here paying from $100 to $125 per head for them. They were well broke and would weigh from 1,400 to 1,600 lbs.

DEED—At her home near Lone Rock on the morning of Dec. 26 at 3:30 A. M. Mrs. Hannah Ward aged 79 years. Grand ma Ward was one of the pioneer settlers of Lone Rock and was greatly beloved and esteemed by a host of friends and old neighbors. She leaves five sons and three daughters to mourn her loss. Deceased had been an invalid for the past five years. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Henderson at her home on the 28th and she was buried on the evening of the same day.

Pullman Ordinary Sleepers
The tourist travel between the East and the Pacific Coast has reached enormous proportions in the last few years, and calls for a special class of equipment. To meet this demand the Pullman Co. has issued from its shops what it technically calls the "Pullman Ordinary Sleeper." These cars appear similar to the regular sleepers being built on the same plan, but not furnished with the same elegance. They are equipped with mattresses, blankets, sheets, pillows, pillow-cases, towels, combs, brushes, etc., requiring nothing of the kind to be furnished by the passenger. Each car has a stove for making tea and coffee and doing "light housekeeping", and each section can be fitted with an adjustable table. A uniformed porter accompanies each car, his business being to make up berths; keep the car clean, and look after the wants and comforts of the passengers. In each of the trains which are dispatched daily from Portland by the O. R. & N. Co. is to be found one of these "Pullman Ordinary Sleepers". The car attached to the "Chicago-Portland Special" goes through to Chicago without change, and the one in the "Atlantic Express" runs to Kansas City without change. Passengers in this car for Chicago change to a similar car at Granger.

Much of the first class travel is being carried in these cars, the rates being lower, and the service nearly equal to that in the palace sleepers.
