Word reached here Monday that Dr. J. A. Lamberson, of Lebanon, had been stricken with paralysis and was in a critical condition. His mother and his brother-in-law, S. B. Couture, of Ferry Canyon, started for his bedside Tuesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palmer took them to Arlington.

The many friends of W. S. Myers will regret to learn that he is again seriously ill. A jolly party of young folks made up a bob-sleigh party Monday evening and went over to J. P. Greiner's place in Mayville precinct, where they made merry until the wee small hours. All report a fine time. The sleighing was good in places and in places the walking was still better. They reached home at daylight.

A. C. Hawson writes the Globe from Grangeville, Idaho, that Byron Murch, who was almost fatally injured at that place some time ago is now improving and is in a fair way to recover. L. W. Darling is on the crippled list this week as the result of an experience in breaking a festive Oregon cayuse one day last week. They were hitching a coil up for the first time. Mr. Darling holding a long rope attached to the animal's head when the team started to run. ## Charged With Horsestealing.

Tom Kane was arrested at Pendleton last Thursday on a warrant sworn out by R. M. Johnson, of Lone Rock, charged with horsestealing. He was brought to Condon Saturday by Special Constable Geo. Tatom, who was sent after him, and lodged in jail. Saturday morning warrants were issued by Justice of the Peace Neale, for the arrest of George Madden, Arthur Madden and John Madden Jr., of Lone Rock, on the same charge. Randle Palmer, was deputized and sent after the Madden boys returning to town with them Sunday afternoon. The boys were held in the custody of the Sheriff until Monday morning when they were arraigned. They asked for a continuance until February 12th and were placed under $500 bail each for their appearance on that date for preliminary hearing. The Madden boys gave the required bonds but, at this writing Kane is still in jail.

Democrats Confer.

At a meeting of democratic leaders in Portland last week a prolonged discussion of the coming campaign was indulged in, ideas were exchanged and much advice was given to Chairman White and his associates. Boiled down the sense of the meeting may be given about as follows: Maintain the fundamental principles of Democracy. No fusion, as a matter of principle, except in some counties where it may be necessary to get votes as a matter of policy.

Principle first, office afterwards. A constructive rather than a destructive policy.

Thorough club organization in every precinct.

Vote-getters as such were declared against. By vote-getters was meant men who are toolies and grafters; men who boost themselves into office with outstretched hands. Such men, it was declared, were never recommended for office by Thomas Jefferson.

Deputy Sheriff Palmer came up from Condon Saturday and arrested George, Arthur and John Madden Jr. and took them to Condon where they will answer to the charge of horse stealing along with Tom Kane.
