

THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1902.
THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY OREGON.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. H. K. West is on the sick list this week.

O. A. Danneman was in town Tuesday from Clem.

W. A. Campbell came up from Portland Tuesday.

E. D. Huber, one of the popular citizens of Rock creek was in town Saturday.

Otis Campbell and Roma McCully two well known young men of Arlington were here yesterday.

For "Lilly Bud" whiskey, renowned for purity, excellence and maturity go to Mike Summers' Model Saloon.

Elder A. B. Moore has bought of J. E. Lancaster, two lots adjoining the Saints church upon which he will erect a residence.

Miss Scott, who has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. John Jackson, returned to her home in Portland last Thursday.

Rev. J. W. Mount, acting for the Baptist congregation, bought two lots yesterday, from J. E. Lancaster, adjoining the church, for a parsonage.

Mrs. J. K. Fitzwater's condition continues about the same as reported last week. She is very low. Mr. Fitzwater is also down with an attack of la grippe.

Grant Wade, of Olex, was in town Tuesday accompanied by his nephew Wilbur Wade, who is a recent arrival from the Valley. His family is with him and they have located at Olex.

Geo. Gibbons, of Mayville, returned from Arlington Monday where he took his daughter, Miss Agnes, on her way to The Dalles where she will enter the Sister's Academy for a course of music.

Joe Foss was in from Thirty-mile Tuesday on his way to The Dalles and North Yalima on a business trip. He expects to bring some fine blooded bulls home with him from the latter place.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Cox died at Lost Valley Tuesday. The family are recent arrivals from Nebraska and Mr. Cox is working for the Lost Valley Lumber Co. The child was about six months old.

Earnest Panwitz, the blacksmith who formerly worked in W. M. Dunlap's shop arrived in town Friday after nearly a year's absence in California. He says the Golden State is all right but the "bunch grass" country still has attractions for him.

Mrs. Than Cavin met with a painful accident Friday at her home in Ferry Canyon. She was thrown from a horse and suffered a fracture of the left forearm and a dislocation of the wrist. She was brought to town and the fracture reduced and is now getting along nicely. She will visit at Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wilcox's until she is able to return home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Edwards and Mrs. Edleman, of Mayville, were in town Saturday on their way home from a visit with friends at Alvillo. While there Mr. Edwards interviewed the people of that neighborhood on the subject of organizing a branch Grange at that place and found all enthusiastic on the proposition. He will go down and organize the Order on the 22nd inst. and expects to start them off with a large membership.

New Settlers Arrive.

S. B. Hartshorn and family, William Shaw and family, C. F. Thorpe and C. J. Komers arrived here Sunday from Lamoni, Iowa, and will invest in land and settle in this locality. Messrs. Thorpe and Komers did not bring their families with them preferring to first look over the country and secure locations.

These people all have the appearance of being substantial citizens of the right sort to bring grand old Gilliam county to the front and no doubt will meet with a hearty welcome from all our people.

They are all old neighbors and acquaintances of Wm. Hawes who came to Gilliam county two years ago and who is now counted as one of our most substantial citizens. Welcome, new comers! Here's our best.

Ground Broken.

Ground was broken Tuesday morning for the new flouring mill and work on the excavation and foundation will be pushed. It will be several weeks before the road will be in condition for hauling lumber from the Lost Valley mill and the purpose is to have the foundation completed as soon as the lumber begins to arrive.

We understand the Mill Co. will purchase all of their lumber from The Lost Valley Lumber Co. and we congratulate Mr. Halstead, the efficient manager, of that company on having secured such an important contract.

Dr. Griffin who has been visiting in Portland all winter returned home Saturday hale and hearty.

A number of Willamette Valley boys have arrived and expect to help harvest the lamb crop this spring.

Our young folks enjoyed the social dance given at the hall Tuesday night. About 30 numbers were sold.

About 30 homeseekers from the East have stopped off at Arlington the past week and struck for the interior.

Lambing commenced in our section Monday and if this weather continues some large percents will be made down here.

L. C. Montague was in from Eight Mile Monday. He says plenty of squirrels are out already but not so many as in former years.

A man was killed by the cars near Castle Rock Saturday night and owing to the distance the inquest was not held until Tuesday by the Morrow coroner.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It is absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Cold, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00 Trial bottles free at Condon Pharmacy.

Thirteen Converts.

The series of revival meetings which have been in progress for several weeks in the Baptist church under the direction of Revs. Mount and Dutton closed Tuesday evening. The meetings were highly successful thirteen converts being the result of the labor of the ministers and members of the congregation. Of this number 12 were baptized into the church Tuesday afternoon, the baptism services being held at Thirty-mile. Rev. Mount would continue the meetings for another week or so if it were not for the fact that his family is sick at Fossil and he is obliged to go to them.

Delinquent Tax List Contract.

A contract for the publication of the delinquent tax list was let by the county court Saturday. The Arlington Record was the successful bidder its bid being $9.00 per column breviter measure, a fraction under six cents a line. The list must be published in four issues of the paper and a copy of the paper must be sent to each person whose name appears in the list. The work must be carefully compared and corrected and be absolutely correct.
