

THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY, MARCH 27, 1902.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY OREGON.

LOCAL NEWS.

H. T. Propst was in town Tuesday. Miss Stella Darling is still on the sick list.

Jim Cooke visited Arlington the first of the week.

John Clarke was in from Ferry Canyon Tuesday.

John Dyeart is moving out to his ranch this week.

S. V. Moore was in from his Ferry Canyon home Tuesday.

Mrs. E. H. Wain will open a fine line of millinery tomorrow.

T. G. Johnson is on the sick list with symptoms of pneumonia.

Miss Grace Balding commenced a term of school near Clem Monday.

E. D. Hatch, of Arlington, has accepted a position in Wilson's Pharmacy.

Abel Moyer, of Matney Flat, left Sunday for a visit with friends in Michigan.

Boss—Thursday morning, March 20, 1902, to Mr. and Mrs. Will Adlard, of Ferry Canyon, a daughter.

For "Lilly Bud" wife, renowned for purity excellence and maturity go to Mike Summers' Model a loon.

Mrs. Allie Balding and her daughter were baptized into the Saint's church at Thirty-mile Monday afternoon by Elder Crumley.

Dr. J. F. Wood yesterday bought a half interest in the Wilson Pharmacy and will have full charge of the business after this date. Charlie Hatch will continue as prescription clerk.

O. D. Stargess, cashier of the Arlington National Bank is here as a delegate to the republican convention. J. M. Johns, Mr. Gates, Mr. Fran and E. W. Daggett are the other delegates from Arlington.

John Knox returned Monday from an extended visit with friends in Arkansas. He looks hale and hearty and says the pawpaws, possum and persimmons agreed with him as of yore. His mother, Mrs. Huffman accompanied him on his return and will spend the Sun here. A young man named Murray also came out with him to try Gilliam county for a while.

The Arlington Lumber Company is still in the lead. Orders continue to come in. One of the latest being the furnishing of the heavy timbers and the fine finishing Lumber for the Condon Flouring Mill. We are in the business to do business, and unless we have business the moss will grow on our backs and the hinges on our doors will become rusty. Don't forget the place, the latch string hangs outside at the Arlington Lumber Company's office.

A. J. Moore was in town Monday and bought two fine residence lots of Lancaster & Pattison just north of the water tank. He will build a residence this spring and himself and wife will move to town. Mr. Moore is one of the pioneers of the west having crossed the plains in 1852. He was born in Ohio 71 years ago, and kept so near the outposts of civilization all his life that he saw his first railroad train at Los Angeles California, when the Southern Pacific reached that place. He has never rode on a railway train and hopes to take his first ride on the Condon-Arlington road as soon as it is completed.

Henry Steers, a former resident of Fossil, now of Portland was in town Monday on his way home from a visit to his former stamping ground. Mr. Steers first came to this section of Oregon in 1865 and brought the first band of cattle from the Willamette valley in 1868. He served on the jury at The Dalles with men who had come a distance of 350 from the eastward, the limits of Wasco county, Oregon then extending to Fort Hall on the Snake River near where the city of Pocatello, Idaho, now stands. At that time, Mr. Steers says, the tax levy in Wasco county, amounted to 15 mills, which is in marked contrast with the usual 25 mill or so levy of Eastern Oregon at the present day.

S. B. Conture was in town Saturday from his Ferry Canyon ranch. Steve tells of treating a young man on a fence post out on his ranch the other night while the swain was on his way to a dance accompanied by two young ladies. He was taking a short cut through Steers' ranch and had just made an opening in a new wire fence when Steve appeared on the scene and pointed out the gate and a good graded road. Mr. Conture wishes to announce to all travelers through that part of the country that when coming through his place from Bert Cason's they will find a gate to the left of the house and a good graded road from there to the county road and if they will follow it they will add much to his peace of mind and happiness.

Elder Crumley, general missionary for the Saint's church, was here for a few days during the week and held service in the Saint's church Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings and Sunday forenoon. Mr. Crumley is an eloquent speaker, an earnest preacher and a polished and scholarly gentleman. He is liberal and progressive in his ideas and gives the impression of being earnest and sincere in his work. In his sermon Sunday evening he stated the creed of his church to consist of but two words "All Truth" and said that truth should be recognized and accepted wherever found, whether in the works of Paine, Ingersoll, Confucius or the bible. "Truth is truth wherever found, on pagan or on christian ground." Such a doctrine as that will neither harm an individual nor retard the progress of civilization. Elder Crumley left Tuesday morning for Lamoni, Iowa to attend the annual meeting of the general conference of his church.

The Condon Mill.

Carl Marquardsen, of the Condon Milling Co. returned from the East Friday where he has spent the winter selecting machinery for the new mill. He says the winter was most severe in Kansas there being more snow and cold than he had ever before experienced there during a residence of 18 years. His purchases of machinery for the mill include all the newest and latest improved machinery which, with a thoroughly practical miller such as the company has secured will insure an output of flour which will be second to none in quality in the North west. Work is being pushed on the foundation and the superstructure will be under way as soon as lumber can be secured.

Republican Primaries.

The republicans of Condon precinct and, if all reports are true, some who are not republicans, or not of Condon precinct, held a real warm primary last Saturday afternoon in Armory Hall. The principal bone of contention was the contest between the Moody and Williamson factions for control of the delegation to the county convention and the Moody men got the best of the deal. The delegates chosen were Jay Boxerman, J. F. Reischer, Frank Wilson and S. B. Barker, the three first named being understood to be Moody men and the last named being claimed for Williamson.

Considerable feeling was manifested in the primaries and afterward around town many of the old line republicans expressing themselves in a way that indicated that they had been jobbed. Republicans from the country objected to the delegates chosen being all from town, and expressions from different ones indicate that the belief in the existence of machine politics in Oregon is not confined to the Portland Oregonian and the Condon Globe but that such a belief is becoming quite prevalent among the people.

H. N. Frazer, who was not in harmony with the Moody machine, proposed that the republican voters of Condon precinct should occupy seats separate from the spectators, who belonged in other precincts and to other parties, but while the request seemed reasonable and just it was not a part of the machine program and was turned down cold blooded. Perhaps the machine managers needed some outsiders in their business.

Reports from other precincts show that the result in the county is very close.

Mr. C. B. Wingfield, of Fair Play Mo., who suffered from chronic dysentery for thirty-five years, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy did him more good than any other medicine he had ever used. For sale by Hudson Pharmacy.

City Primaries.

Persuant to call posted the citizens of Condon met in primary convention Saturday evening in Armory Hall and nominated the following persons to fill the city offices for the ensuing year, to be known as the citizen's ticket.

For Mayor—M. O. Clarke.
For Councilmen—A. S. Hollen, S. B. Barker, T. G. Johnson, E. M. Pitter.
For Treasurer—E. W. Moore.
For Recorder—E. A. May.
For Marshal—W. M. Danlap.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 55 pounds." It is also fully guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Condon Pharmacy.

We Meant George.

The Condon Globe states that Mike Dukek is mentioned as a possible candidate for sheriff of Gilliam county. Mike is a resident of Wheeler county, and, while we have prospective sheriffs to burn over here, Mr. Dukek is not one of them.—Fossil Journal.

But Wheeler could loan us a candidate or two from so many.

Wheeler County Convention.

At the republican county convention for Wheeler county held at Fossil last Saturday, W. T. Johnson was nominated for Sheriff, C. D. Butler for Clerk, Joe Anthony for Assessor and Joseph Frizell for Commissioner. The delegates chosen to the congressional convention are straight Williamson men which is somewhat of a surprise to the Moody people in this county and is supposed to have made Judge Steiner somewhat dizzy. It is a new deal for Wheeler county republicans to tell the judge to "go 'way back and sit down," but the world do move.
