

THE CONDON CLOSE

THURSDAY, JUNE 5, 1902.

"AFTER THE BALL"

The election is over and now that the smoke of battle is clearing away it will be well enough for the people to let politics rest for another two years and, laying aside all political differences, stand together as neighbors and friends should do, and pull for the material and moral welfare of Gilliam county. There is plenty to do along such lines and it can be done to much better advantage if we all try to quickly forget the little differences of the past few weeks and get in line for an aggressive campaign in the interest of the development of our county. As citizens and neighbors our interests are mutual and we will prosper most when our efforts are united.

Perhaps we Gilliam county people are disposed to take political campaigns a little too seriously. We all have our choice in men and measures in all that relates to our biennial elections, as we should have, but in the excitement and turmoil of the campaign we are apt to forget that our neighbor has the same right to his opinion and the right to advance and advocate that opinion as we have and that is wrong. These differences are natural and they are necessary but if we are to be real good Americans we should grant to our opponents the same rights which we reserve to ourselves and we should bury our differences when the campaign is over and forget, as nearly as may be, that they ever existed. Politics should now be relegated to the rear and progress and neighborliness and good feeling, with a desire to promote the prosperity and happiness of ourselves and our neighbors—each for all—should be striven for.

Furnish furnished the money, the Oregonian furnished the cartoons and the people furnished the votes. Chamberlain was elected.

In the death of ex-Governor Sylvester Penney, Oregon has lost a distinguished citizen and an honest man. He served his state well as governor and gave all to understand that no man or corporation, no matter how powerful, had any strings on him. He has, perhaps, been made the butt of more ridicule and has had more personal abuse heaped upon him than has any other man in Oregon and through it all he has so lived as to prove to the world that he was greater than his enemies and his traducers. May he rest in peace.

Read It In His Newspaper.

George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volunteering. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take on her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes all suffering likewise will bear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by Condon Pharmacy.

Sheep Shot.

Word reached town Sunday night of another sheep shooting scrape on Buckhorn back of Lost Valley, which occurred Friday night. Geo. Hardie and W. J. Smith's hands were fired into by unknown persons and two or three in each band were killed and a number wounded. The night was rainy and very dark all the hunters could see of the attacking party being the flash of their guns. Bud Mattingly, who was in charge of Hardie's band was armed with a Savage rifle and sent about a dozen shots after his assailants. One of the attacking party is said to have called out that he was hit but it is not known whether or not such is the case. It is feared there will be further collisions between the sheeps and the settlers before the summer is over.

How to avoid trouble.

Now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over, and if procured now may save you a trip to town in the night or in your busiest season. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful medicine in use for bowel complaints both for children and adults. No family can afford to be without it. For sale by Condon Pharmacy.

To cure a cold in one day.

Take Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box.

Memorial Day at Mayville.

The people of Mayville and vicinity observed Decoration Day last Friday with appropriate ceremonies. A large congregat on came to the church to hear an appropriate program. Rev. Lawson delivered the principal address of the day and recitations were rendered by Eva Townsend, Ross Besom and Willie Lillie. The program was interspersed with excellent music rendered by James Keno, the Mayville choir and the Mayville Cornet Band. At the conclusion of the services at the church, a procession was formed and headed by the band, the people marched slowly to the cemetery where a committee of young girls placed beautiful bouquets and wreaths of fragrant flowers on the graves of the departed ones. The procession is said to have been fully 1/2 of a mile long and at least 350 people are said to have been present.
