The Condon ball club went to Mayville Sunday to try conclusions again with the Mayville nine and the way both sides piled up tallies indicated that the boys are better adapted to foot racing than to the national game. The score stood 30 to 43 in Mayville's favor. The Condon kids are now talking big and declaring that they will wipe the earth with the old nine and they may do so. A game is being arranged for next Sunday between the Olex and Condon nines on the Condon diamond.

MARRIED—At the residence of W. L. Wilcox in this city, Monday evening, May 9, Mr. John Cavin and Miss Lydia Kraus were united in marriage, Judge Neale officiating. Both the contracting parties are residents of Fossil where Mr. Cavin conducts a prosperous barber business. At about 10 p. m. the Buffalo band, Condon's renowned musical organization turned out and treated the newly married couple to a delightful serenade to the amount of about six dollars' worth which the groom gladly paid on condition that it would not be repeated.

Ed McDaniel, a former resident of this place and who is well known here met with a painful accident in Porland a few days ago which may result in leaving him a permanent cripple. He was employed in the Eastern Lumber Co's mills operating a planer when, by a misstep he was thrown in to the machine and his right arm horribly mangled. He is in the Good Samaritan hispital.

Barker & Pliter are preparing to ship 3,800 head of mutton to the Chicago market. Unless a sale should be made to a buyer who is now here they will ship from Arlington in a few days. The shipment will aggregate about 15 car loads. Messrs. Barker, and Pliter will both accompany the shipment. Andrew Greiner, Jim Burns, W. A. Darling and perhaps several others will embrace the opportunity of making a visit to the east.

Hymenial.

At the Grande Hotel, Arlington, Saturday evening, June 7, 1902, Rev. Ed Baker officiating, Mr. James M. Cameron and Miss Mabel Halstead, both popular and highly respected residents of this place, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The GLOBE has been waiting for some time for an opportunity to chronicle this happy event and it now hastens to extend all sorts of congratulations and good wishes.

The bride is one of the most highly esteemed young ladies of this county and for several years has been a successful teacher in the Condon public schools while the groom has grown up in and with this county and is now one of its most successful stockmen.

The judgement and good taste of both are to be commended and it is not too much to say that both are worthy of all the good wishes which they will receive from their host of friends.

Shall We Celebrate?

Is Condon to have a Fourth of July celebration this year? This question is being discussed by some of our citizens and many are said to favor it and some are said to be opposed to the proposition.

There is not much time now to make arrangements and if there is to be a celebration it will be necessary to get to work at once. If anything is attempted it should be a united effort by all the people of the town otherwise it will be hard to make it a success. The GLOBE is in favor of a celebration if all the people want one and they will all unite in making the affair creditable to the town and it has but one suggestion to make viz: If we celebrate let us be sure to include the reading of the Declaration of Independence in the program this year.
