THE CONDON CLUBE

THUBSDAY, JULY, 24, 1902. THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Joe Trevett is quite ill this week S. A. Thompson is building a new residence on the East Side. Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Farrar were in from Ferry Canyon Saturday. Nortce-Cash paid for County and City warrants. Enquire at this office. Rev Flowers will preach in the Baptist church next Sunday morning and a short visit at Arlington, and The evening. W. A. Darling returned from Portland

Sunday where he went to purchase stock for the new harness shop,

The Condon Furniture and Hardware Co, have a new ad in this issue. They will open their store for business about August 15th.

Mrs. F. M. Pliter and children, Matt and Lydia, returned yesterday from an extended visit with friends and relatives in Portland.

Geo. Earhart and C. E. Ranons expect to leave for Portland Monday to select the stock for their new furniture and hardware store. C. J. Quinn was over from Mayville yesterday. Mr. Quinn fears that the hot weather has injured the wheat to some extent in his section. Read the new ad af the Condon Meat

Co. They will announce the routes and dates, which will be made by their wagon in the country districts, next week. Every trace of Tracy has been lost and the tracers have retraced their steps and gone home to rest. The whole chase has borne a trace of medieval romance. Clyde Flint and C. H. House were in from Ajax Sunday. Mr. House will have a sale of horses here next Wednesday and he says the horses offered are to be Wm. Winters, who has been overin on the sick list lately and is home to re-Miss Dora Downing goes to Arlington

Jim Poindexter returned yesterday from a visit to his old home in the Valley. Again Jim's heart failed him when the critical moment arrived and hereturned to Condon single and alone.

Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Searcy expect to leave next Monday for the mountain on a camping trip. They will spend some time at the Springs where B.K. goes under the advice of his physician.

R. B. Lucas came in Monday from Hood River where he and Mrs. Locas are spending the Summer. Mr. Lucas never fully appreciated our glorious Condon climate until he left it for awhile and returned to enjoy it anew. . .

R. B. Pong, who is extensively engaged in the wood business in Lost Valley, has already sold more than 1000 cords of wood this season besides several thousand posts. Like all other lines of business the wood business is growing.

P. H. Stephenson returned from the sheep, which he shipped, back to Omaha, at good figures he went on down to St. Louis to enjoy a visit with his broth-

Jose, California, where he goes to superintend the picking and marketing of the erop on his fruit ranch, near that place. From reports received from his foreman there he expected to market 150 to 200 will keep the machine going day and tons of fruit from his orchard this seas- night after it is once started.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Pong were in from Lost Valley Saturday and while here they bought two choice residence lots on the East Side where they will erect a dwelling at once. Mr. Pong wishes to get his residence completed and his family moved to town before school opens

G. W. Rinehart was attacked by a andden illness Tuesday and lost consciousness. The report gained currency that he had suffered from a stroke of paralysis but Dr. Wood, his physician, says the illness is from other causes. His condition was but little improved

J. G. Stevenson moved his steam thresher from its winter quarters to town Monday and is having it put in shape for the season's run. He will move from here to Rock creek where he will start threshing next Monday morning. The threshing season promises to he a long and busy one and profitable for the machine men.

Otis Propet, the enterprising shoe dealer, is building an addition to his store to make more room in which to handle his rapidly growing trade. New counters and shelving are being put in, the interior will be repapered and when completed the store will be one of the neatest places in town. Mr. Propet attends strictly to business and his store shows that such a course pays.

I. A. Hendereon, who, with his wife, has been enjoying an outing in the mountains near Ritter for several weeks writes this office as follows: "Please send our copy of the Grone to Mayville Condon, 150 acres good plow land; 35 instead of Ritter hereafter as we will acres broke. Good house and never failleave here this week. We have enjoyed ing well of water. All fenced. For price the GLOBE very much out here in the and terms apply to mountains; hardly think we could have gotten along without it."

J. F. Pinkham was in town yester-

Buford, with 15 charter members. The organization will be completed and new officers will be elected and installed this evening. After the lodge a social will be held and refreshments served to the mambers and their friends.

The new lodge starts off under most favorable auspices.

Steam Well Drill.

L. R. Price W. M. Hawes and Carl Marquardson linve orderel a new steam traction well drill from the factory at Beaver Falls Pa., and as soon as it arrives they will engage in the cold water business on a large scale. The new machine is an 11-horse power engine with upright boilerwith a capacity for 800 feet depth. It is self propelling when moving from one job to the next and is said to be a strictly modern and up-to-date machine. It is expected to arrive in 15 or 20 days and will be started to work on a new well for the city which will be put down to a depth of 200 feet, or more if necessary to secure East Monday. After disposing of the an adequate supply of water, Many persons are of the opinion that artesian water may be secured here by going down to a sufficient depth and the er. He reports having had a delightful advent of this machine into the neighborhood will make it possible to test J. H. Downing left Monday for San the truth or fallacy of this opinion in better shape than has yet been done. The new firm has plenty of work in sight to insure them steady drilling for several months and it is probable they

A Double Wedding.

A double wedding was solemnized at Goble, Oregon, last Sunday when Mr. John C. Farr and Mies Mary Near and Mr. G. F. Farr and Miss Myrtle Fowler were united in marriage. All the parties are residents of Goble and the bridegrooms are brothers of W. S. Farr, of Rock ceeek. The happy couples came up to Rock creek to spend their honeymoon, the guests of W. S. and family.

Young people, farr and near, have a habit of getting married and the GLOBE has for them all the best wishes for happiness and prosperity.
