The University of Oregon

Will open its twenty-seventh session at Eugene, Wednesday, September 17th. The outlook for the year seems at present, very promising. A number of new men have been added to the faculty, all thoroughly fitted both by preparation and by experience for their work. The University buildings are being repaired and improved during the summer, the dormitory, gymnasium, and Deady Hall receiving special attention.

Students intending to enter this fall are invited to correspond with the president relative to their work. Catalogues will cheerfully be sent on application.

Crowned at Last.

After a seven weeks battle with death Edward VII was crowned King of Great Britain, at Westminster Abbey, August 9, at 12:21, p. m.

Although curtailed of its spectacular side the event was marked with great enthusiasm and when the announcement was made that the crown had been placed on the King's head the crowds gave vent to their feelings in prolonged cheers. As soon as the ceremony was over His Majesty returned to Buckingham where it was officially announced that he had borne the ceremony well and had suffered no fatigue.

To Save Her Child.

From frightful disfigurement Mrs. Nanette Gallego, of La Grange, Ga., applied Bucklen's Aroclia Salve to great sores on her head and face, and writes its quick cure exceeded all her hopes.
