

THE CONDON GLOBE.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1902.

The Canyon City Eagle says in its last issue that the sensational story recently published purporting to describe the tragic death of Wm. Percival, of Bear Valley, who was alleged to have been shot by Charlie Ladigos, of this place, during an attack on Barker's sheep, of which Charlie has charge, was utterly false in every detail. Mr. Percival, it is said, was not engaged in any sheep shooting adventure, was not shot in the leg, did not have gangrene or his leg amputated one or two times and is not dead. The question now is who, if anybody, did Ladigos shoot?

Of course Bryan always did talk too much. That must be conceded in deference to all the big (and little) republican papers for the last six years. But now gentlemen, in all seriousness, how about Teddy. He's getting to be considerable of a talker himself.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.
"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford county, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip. When editor Ward of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me. For sale by Condon Pharmacy."

Claudia Joy Kinsly.

After several days of suffering, Claudia Joy Kinsley fell asleep August 27, 1902. Her spirit went home to be with the Savior she had learned to love and her frail little body sleeps in the Condon cemetery to await the Resurrection morn. She was just a little over eight years old and was a sweet, bright child. Her middle name was "Joy" and she was well named, for she carried sunshine and joy into the hearts of all with whom she came in contact. She was the idol of the home. She was an attendant of the Congregational Sunday School and always loved to read and study about Jesus. Even after she was too sick to go to the church she would have her mother read to her the Sunday School lesson and papers. Only a short time before she went home she asked her mother to read to her about Jesus; amid her surlings she loved to hear of that dearest friend who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." The writer and Rev. Itely, of the Congregational church, conducted a short funeral service. Claudia cannot come back to us but, by the grace of God, father, mother, brother and sisters can all go to her.

"And thou shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death neither sorrow nor crying. Neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away."—Rev 21-4. F. G. Flowers.
