

NO EXTRA SESSION.

Governor Geer has declined to call a special session of the legislature. He sets forth his reasons in a lengthy letter made public on Tuesday.

DAD.

I happened in a home last night, and over the door saw the legend worked in letters of red: "What is Home Without a Mother."

Across the room was another brief desire: "God Bless our Home." Now what's the matter with "God Bless our Dad?"

He gets up early, lights the fire, boils an egg, grabs his dinner pail, and wipes the dew of the dawn with his boots while many a mother is sleeping.

If Johnnie needs a new pair of boots "cause he's just walking on the ground," dad goes down in his dip and comes up with the price of a hard day's sweat.

But if he buys a new pipe for a quarter because the old one was getting kinda strong, he is warned that smoking is an expensive habit.

When there's a noise during the night he is kicked in the back, and made to go down stairs and find the burglar and kill him.

Mother darns the socks, yes, she does, but dad bought the socks in the first place, and the needle and yarn afterwards.

Dad, here's to you! You've got your good points and they'll miss you when you're gone.—Ex
