

CAUGHT BY THE GRIP. RELEASED BY PE-RU-NA.

Congressman Geo. H. White's Case.
A Noted Sculptress Cured.

The world of medicine recognizes Grip as epidemic Catarrh.—Medical Talk.

La grippe is epidemic catarrh. It spares no class or nationality. The cultured and the ignorant, the aristocrat and the pauper, the masses and the classes, are alike subject to it. None are exempt—all are liable.

Have you the grip? Or, rather, has the grip got you? Grip is well named. The original French term, la grippe, has been shortened by the busy American to do "grip." Without intending to do so a new word has been coined that exactly describes the case. As if some hideous giant with awful grip had clutched us in its fatal clasp. Men, women, children, whole towns and cities are caught in the barefist grip of a terrible monster.

Peruna for Grip.
Mrs. Theophile Schmitt, wife of the Ex-Secretary of the German consulate, writes the following letter from 3417 Washburn avenue, Chicago, Ill.:

"I suffered this winter with a severe attack of la grippe. After using three bottles of Peruna I found the grip had disappeared."—Mrs. T. Schmitt.
Mrs. Celeste Covell writes from 219 N. avenue, Aurora, Ill.:
"Only those who have suffered with la grippe and been cured can appreciate how grateful I feel that such a splendid medicine as Peruna has been placed at the door of every suffering person."—Mrs. G. Covell.

Noted Sculptress Cured of Grip.
Mrs. M. C. Cooper, of the Royal Academy of Arts, of London, England, now residing in Washington, D. C., is one of the greatest living sculptors and painters of the world. She says:
"I take pleasure in recommending Peruna for catarrh and la grippe. I have suffered for months, and after the use of one bottle of Peruna I am entirely well."—Mrs. M. C. Cooper.

D. L. Wallace, a charter member of the International Barbers' Union, writes from 15 Western avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.:

"Following a severe attack of la grippe I seemed to be affected badly all over."
"One of my customers who was greatly helped by Peruna advised me to try it, and I procured a bottle the same day. Now my head is clear, my nerves are steady, I enjoy food and rest well. Peruna has been worth a dollar a dose to me."—D. L. Wallace.

Lieutenant Clarice Hunt, of the Salt Lake City barracks of the Salvation Army, writes from Ogden, Utah:

"Two months ago I was suffering with so severe a cold that I could hardly speak."
"Our captain advised me to try Peruna and procured a bottle for me, and truly it worked wonders. Within two weeks I was entirely well."—Clarice Hunt.

Congressman White's Letter.
Tarboro, N. C.
Gentlemen—I am more than satisfied with Peruna and find it to be an excellent remedy for the Grip and catarrh. I have used it in my family and they all join me in recommending it as an excellent remedy."—George H. White, Member of Congress.

Mrs. T. W. Collins, treasurer Independent Order Good Templars, of Everett, Wash., writes:

"After having a severe attack of la grippe I continued in a feeble condition even after the doctors called me cured. My blood seemed poisoned. Peruna cured me."—Mrs. T. W. Collins.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

A BARBAROUS PEOPLE

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE INHABITANTS OF MOROCCO.

Stagnant Land of Northern Africa Torn by Revolt—Naturally a Garden Spot, but Cursed by Misgovernment and Wild Fanaticism.

The revolt in Morocco, led by a religious fanatic and pretender, Omar Zarahuni, against the modern-minded Sultan, Mulai Abdul Ala, has assumed such proportions as to alarm the powers of Europe and has brought about a revival of interest in this ever-turbulent country.

The sultanate of Morocco, at "the gates of Europe," is the most north-westerly of the African kingdoms and covers an area about equal to that of the State of Texas. Its northern and western coasts are washed by the Mediterranean and the Atlantic ocean, while on the east it is bounded by Algeria and on the south by the desert of Sahara. The mountain of its surface is broken by the Atlas Mountains, an irregular range extending through the country from the northeast to the southwest, affording a barrier against the hot winds from the great desert. Several smaller chains break up the country between the main range and the Atlantic into fertile valleys and plains. Many of the most elevated peaks of North Africa are found in the Atlas Mountains, and the summits of these are always capped with snow, the chilling winds that blow from them down into the valleys, oftentimes making bitter cold the nights that follow upon days of extreme heat. In these mountains are the sources of many rivers—streams that are as wild and unmanageable as the tribes that drink from them.

At first it might be well to use a cowcatcher or possibly an ordinary fender, together with a catcher's mask and padded gloves. Naturally it will be well to conceal your appearance from the cow as much as possible, because so many cows are timid and easily scared by strange objects. Then when the cow slightly raises her head and shivers apprehensively along the ankle don't wait for further developments, but grasp the lower leg firmly and hang on for dear life.

A man named Mullins had a kicking cow of fourteen horse-power and somebody told him about the grab-the-leg cure. Mullins told it to his hired man.

MOORS DEFY THE AUTHORITY OF THEIR SULTAN.

Many of these torrents spend their fury in the spring and early summer and are then lost sight of in the sand.

Stagnant Land and People.
Agriculture in Morocco is in a very primitive state and but a small part of the arable land is cultivated, owing to the innate indolence of the people and the lack of encouragement from the government. Famines are not uncommon and during the best times the production is scarcely enough to supply the wants of the people. Yet, under proper conditions of education and government, Morocco could become one of the most productive regions in the world.

The hired man had had the milking stool kicked from under him several times and the milk pail battered into scrap tin and he said he would be glad to try the recipe. So he put on a pillow for a chest protector and jumped for the leg as soon as he saw the premonitory symptoms.

"Well, sir, he went through the stable window as neat as you please, taking the snail along with him. When Mullins reached him he was as dazed as a mudduck."
"Nearthquake!" he feebly muttered.
"No," said Mullins, "the cow kicked you."

"Cow kicked me!" the hired man repeated. "I wonder how it happened?"
"I wonder," said Mullins.
But Mullins thought he knew, though he hesitated about saying so for fear of hurting the victim's feelings—and he was hurt enough already.

The trouble was that the hired man was so awfully cross-eyed that he had grabbed the wrong leg!—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Had a Rough Experience.
Thomas J. Minnick, an English newspaper man, sought glory by imitating the old-time American reporter's trick of having himself locked up in a Belgian madhouse to secure a sensation. The doctors, however, "got on" to Thomas and to teach him a lesson dosed him with vomiting powders. Next he was put on a diet of sour herrings and no water; at night he wasn't allowed to sleep and when he complained he was told that he had a tumor in his brain and was imagining ill treatment. He would feel better as soon as the tumor was cut out. When finally the doctors tried to chloroform him and made preparations to operate upon him Thomas disclosed his identity. But the doctors would not let him off. They sent him under guard to the police station, where he was booked as an impostor and for obtaining the county's charity under false pretenses.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. STILL ANOTHER PIANO CLUB.

Good Pianos at Wholesale Prices and on Terms Equal to Small Piano Rent—Eilers Piano House Has Organized Another Co-operative Club — Terms $6 Down and $6 Monthly.

Having received another large shipment of fine pianos, we are now able to meet the numerous applications we have received from persons desiring to purchase pianos on the co-operative club plan, which was so popular some time ago. This plan, owing to the exceedingly low prices and easy terms it offered, created such a sensation and widespread discussion at the time it was originally inaugurated, that further explanation seems unnecessary. Many maintained that it was simply impossible for us to sell such fine pianos at the prices asked. Investigation, however, proved the absolute truth of every one of our statements, and our clubs became so immensely popular that in five weeks we had a membership of four hundred. Three delivery teams and six men could not deliver the pianos fast enough to buyers. The present club is organized upon the same principle as the former ones, which is the wholesale principle applied to retail buyers, who join a club of 100, the club standing in the same relation to us that a wholesale purchaser or large dealer does.

The pianos are the finest, high grade, brand new regular $350 instruments, and will go to members of this new club—"P"—at $17, $19 and $27, according to works, style and design. There are no dues, no extras, nor any liability on the part of members for any possible failure or shortcoming on the part of the others or any of them.

ONLY ONE CLUB.
This being, as we have stated, an accommodation club, organized for the purpose of accommodating the many persons who applied for membership in our former ones after it was too late to secure a piano, we shall have but this one club, so all those desiring to take advantage of this rare opportunity had better make application at once. We will take special pains during this sale to see that inquiries reaching us through the mail or by telephone receive immediate attention, in order to give out-of-town buyers every advantage in securing membership. All instruments handled by us are fully guaranteed. Money back if not satisfactory. Eilers Piano House, Park and Washington streets, Portland, Oregon. Other large houses at Spokane, San Francisco and Sacramento.

The Dangerous Blue Eye.

My observation has been that most of the bad men of the border were blue-eyed. A man with a soft blue eye will always be selected by a bully as a victim in preference to those snapping black, brown or cold gray eyes. On the average, men possess about the same amount of courage, and when the blue-eyed man has been imposed on by a precipitate another, till he gets up a reputation which he feels he must live up to. There is your fighting man.—Everybody's Magazine.

His Unlucky Choice.
"Miss Ginx," began young Gaboy, "—or may I call you Ginevra?"
"Call me what you like," she said, with a bright smile.
"Well, I like Ginx," he whispered.
And then he realized, as she turned her phis from him, that he had blundered.—Chicago Tribune.

Nature Improved.
That looks like an extravagant statement, but we believe you will agree with us that it can be done after you have tried in your home a can of Monopole peaches, or pears or cherries or other fruits. If you want to be convinced that all we say of them is true, buy a can from your dealer. Most dealers carry Monopole. Wadham & Kerr Bros., Monopole grocers, Portland.

Might Not Bother Him.

Liquidity of the German Language.

Mr. Casey, under the impression that the perforating machine was a phonograph, dropped a coin in the slot and placed the tube to his ear.
