

Scrofula

It is commonly inherited. Few are entirely free from it. Pale, weak, puny children are afflicted with it in nine cases out of ten, and many adults suffer from it. Common indications are bunces in the neck, abscesses, cutaneous eruptions, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, rickets, emaciation, and general debility.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Eradicate it, positively and absolutely. This statement is based on the thousands of permanent cures these medicines have wrought.

"My daughter had scrofula, with eleven sores on her neck and about her ears. Hood's Sarsaparilla was highly recommended and she took it and was cured. She is now in good health." Mrs. J. H. Jones, Parker City, Ind.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

"They are reconciled." The Renning of a Vanderbilt Scion and His Wife.
A reconciliation has taken place between Elliott Fitch Shepard, Jr., of New York, a grandson of the late William H. Vanderbilt, and his wife, Esther W. Shepard. For six months they were separated by reason of allegations of impropriety on his part, because of which Mrs. Shepard brought suit for a legal separation. The influence of peace-making members of the family prevailed, and, presumably, there will hereafter be smooth sailing.
The marriage of these young people was a society sensation. Elliott Shepard, whose father was the famous publisher, was one of the liveliest young men Yale ever turned out. His bride was the daughter of a grocer who kept a small store in Greenport, L. I. She was the prettiest girl on the island, could swim, ride a horse and play tennis. Mrs. Elliott F. Shepard, the mother of the defendant, who was instrumental in reconciling the young people, lives at Woodlee, which is situated at Scarborough-on-the-Hudson, and is one of the finest country estates in America. The Pompeian gardens there are marvels of the gardener's art.

VALUE OF BABY'S CRY.
It Helps to Make a Healthy Pair of Lungs.
The early cry, which is painfully trying to some young mothers, especially to a nervous one, becomes less distressing if she stops to think that the lungs, never having been used, need exercise in order to make them strong. For the first three months the infant is too weak, even with a fair amount of crying, to develop the lungs more than one-third their normal capacity, and that these organs cannot be considered perfect until they are inflated to their utmost is enough to make her tolerant of a fair allowance of crying. A year of simple breathing would not accomplish as much toward developing the lungs as a moderate amount of crying each day for a month. It is the deep inhalation, such as accompanies a good cry, which alone can make the lungs strong. Healthful infants cry normally, and they should be allowed to do so a portion of each day. When the cry is whining or continuous it is usually caused by overindulgence of some kind, or by mistakes, such as handling the baby, when he is more comfortable left alone. Too much entertaining causes nervousness and cold extremities, which make necessary too many wraps or too hot a room; this results in discomfort and weakness and lack of fresh air. Sleeping in a bed with older persons is bad for a baby; it draws upon the vitality. Indigestion is never natural; it is caused by overfeeding or improper feeding.—Harper's Bazar.

IS ROOSEVELT'S INTIMATE.

Chester J. Long, Recently Elected Senator from Kansas.

Kansas has recently elected a United States Senator to succeed W. T. Harris. The chosen individual is Chester J. Long, the Congressman, who is 44 years old and is the youngest Senator ever elected in the State. He is a native of Pennsylvania, a former resident of Missouri, and a graduate of the law office of George R. Peck, now of Chicago, who induced him to enter politics. He is now serving his fourth term in Congress. He is a personal friend of President Roosevelt.

Where She Drew the Line.
Kinglake, the Oriental traveler and historian of the Crimean war, never married. This was strange, says his biographer, because he admired women, and formed his intellectual friendships with them.

He thought that there should be priestesses as well as priests in the churches, the women as the Egerias of the men as the pontiffs of women.

A friend of his tells us that when he was attacked by gout, Kinglake wished for the solace of a woman doctor, and wrote to one, asking if gout were beyond her scope.
She answered: "Dear Sir—Gout is not beyond my scope, but men are."

THE PINKHAM CURES

ATTRACTING GREAT ATTENTION AMONG THINKING WOMEN.

Mrs. Frances Stafford, of 243 E. 114th St., N.Y. City, adds her testimony to the hundreds of thousands on Mrs. Pinkham's files.

When Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies were first introduced skeptics all over the country frowned upon their curative claims, but as year after year has rolled by and the little group of women who had been cured by the new discovery has since grown into a vast army of hundreds of thousands, doubts and skepticisms have been swept away as by a mighty flood, until to-day the great good that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and her other medicines are doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many of our leading scientists, physicians and thinking people.

Merit alone could win such fame; wise, therefore, is the woman who for a cure relies upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

He Feels It.

"Does a draft give you cold chills down your back?" asked the philosopher.

"It does," replied the wise guy, "when my bank account is overdrawn."

Bobby's Comment.

Little Bobby was inspecting the new baby for the first time, and his dictum was as follows:
"I s'pose it's nice enough, what there is of it, but I m sorry it ain't a parrot."

The Popular Profession.

The reason why giving advice is so much more popular than taking it, is that it doesn't require one to be so many different kinds of people.—Washington Times.

Fined for Dancing.

At Luchow, Germany, 125 fathers have been fined one mark each for allowing their children, under 10 years of age, to dance at the harvest festival of a village nearby. The village pastor objected to the dancing and reported the case to the police. It was discovered, however, that his children had danced, too, and he was fined with the rest.—Tit-Bits.

Net "Just as Good."

Your dealer may tell you that some other brand of peaches and pears and other fruits is as good as the same as Monopole. Don't you believe such a statement. It isn't so, and your dealer wouldn't make it if he would only compare all the other so-called high class brands with Monopole. Monopole fruits are packed in order in special canisters and are packed in a special way. They are, therefore, sweeter, more natural in flavor and more delicious than any other brand. Get Monopole from your grocer. Wadhams & Kerr Bros., Monopole grocers and dry coffee roasters, Portland, Oregon.

Advantages of Saving.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surface, such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is too told to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c per bottle. Coughs

"My wife had a deep-seated cough for three years. I purchased two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, large size, and it cured her completely."
J. H. Burge, Macon, Col.

Probably you know of cough medicines that relieve little coughs, all coughs, except deep ones!

The medicine that has been curing the worst of deep coughs for sixty years is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Three sizes: 25c, enough for an ordinary cold; 50c, just right for bronchitis, hoarseness, hard colds, etc.; $1, most economical for chronic cough and for use by hand.

J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

One Example.

"Yes, indeed," said the other. "I have been trying for a year to break a marriage tie. I've tried Dakota and Oklahoma both, and we are still united."—New York Times.
