A pleasant dance was held in Armory hall last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Adlard, of Ferry Canyon were in town Tuesday.

Miss Carrie Danneman, of Clem, was a visitor in Condon during the week.

Milk Shakes, Lemonade, Soda and Ice Cream at Jackson's ice cream parlors.

Hon. W. W. Steiwer was over from Fossil Sunday taking in the ball game.

Mrs. Sheridan, of Baker City, is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. J. Rice of this city.

Wm. Eddon, of the Condon Meat Co., spent several days in The Dalles during the week.

The very latest creations in Spring millinery. Buy your Easter hat early and get first choice, at Miss Dora Downing's.

M. E. Dukek and Jas. Ramsay, of Mayville, went through Sunday on their way to Portland to attend the I. O. O.F. Grand Lodge session.

Dr. W. T. Brown went to Fossil Monday and sized up the town. He says that Fossil may be all right but Condon is good enough for him.

The New Curved Hoisting Single Tree does away with drgging heavy rigging at the horses heels; used single or double with derrick or hay fork. Clarke&Frazer.

W. H. Snell and Guy Nott, of Olex, were in town Saturday. We understand these gentlemen expect to engage in business in town in the near future.

Mrs. E. L. Madden has a fine line of Spring and Summer millinery consisting of trimmed and untrimmed hats Ladies, call and see them. Trimmed hats from $2 00 up.

All persons desiring to settle their accounts with us during our absence from town can do so by calling at the Condon Pharmacy where our books have been left. 10tf SPRINGSTON & ROGERS.

The Arlington Lumber Co.'s office and sheds have been completed and stock is arriving daily. They expect a car load of Mitchell wagons next week. Call and see them in their office opposite the mill.

Shingles, Doors, Windows and Mouldings. Do we meet competition? It rained shingles in Condon last week and everything is covered up competition and all. See Arlington Lumber Co.'s stock and get prices.

Header Box Floors, tanks, and wagon wheel Felloes are kept from shrinking or warping by painting with CARBOLINEUM. It will double the life of a fence post at the cost of one cent per post. Clarke & Frazer.

J. E. Lancaster is building an office on Main street just north of Earhart's furniture store. He expects to have it completed in a couple of weeks and anyone wishing to purchase lots will then find him at the new stand.

B. K. Searcy will erect a brick building on Main street on the lot recently purchased from Elgin Myers. The structure will be 24x50 one story high. S. P. Wattenburg, of Fossil, has the contract for the brick and carpenter work.

W. L. Barker is building an extensive addition to his place of business on Main street. The annex is 30x50 feet and will be used for storing wagons, farm machinery etc. Mr. Barker is enlarging his business to much more than its former proportions.

The new color press for the Oregon Daily Journal has been installed and the first issue printed from it arrived Sunday. The Journal now ranks as one of the foremost papers on the Pacific coast and is rapidly growing in favor of all classes of people.

Paul De Laney, correspondent, and E A. Paterbaugh, solicitor for the Oregon Daily Journal, spent a couple of days in town during the week. Mr. De Laney is gathering data for a sketch of Eastern Oregon for the Journal and Mr. Paterbaugh is soliciting subscriptions for the same.

Hartshorn & Moore have closed their confectionery and grocery for the present having disposed of their stock to Dunn Bros. and John Jackson. They could not secure a long lease on the building they occupied but may build for themselves and open a new store later in the season.

R. Wattenburg and Barney Gaffeney of Fossil, went through to Portland Sunday as delegates to the I.O.O.F. Grand Lodge. Mrs. Gaffeney accompanied them. Editor Stewart, of the Journal was also one of the party. Jim will look after the Roosevelt reception and will also keep a weather eye out for banquets, feasts and other good things which may be floating around the metropolis.

Fred Cornett returned from the John Day country Friday where he has been gathering a band of horses recently purchased by W. L. Barker and George Knox. Fred says that they have most of the band gathered and they are as fine a lot of heavy horses as were ever together in this section. One valuable mare was drowned in crossing the John Day and Manley Downing and Earnest Stockdale each lost a valuable rawhide rope which was on the mare when she sank to her watery grave.
