

INTERESTING FACTS About Gondon and Gilliam County.

Gilliam County has a present population of about 4,000. Condon has a present population of about 600. Gilliam County contains more than 500,000 acres of tillable lands, less than one-third of which is now in cultivation. Condon is centrally located in the midst of this rich region and is the permanent county seat of the county.

Have you stopped to think what this means to Condon? It means that the county when fully occupied will furnish homes for 40,000 people, and that Condon will, in less than five years have a population of 4,000 or more.

Taking these facts into account and the further fact that property has advanced 50 per cent during the past year it is reasonable to conclude that values will continue to advance rapidly within the next few years.

"MIGHT MAKE HIM SLOW"

A fellow by the name of Cowgill, at Baker City, who makes his living by fawning on railroad magnates, publishes in the Baker Democrat an article in which he accuses the Oregonian of "hammering Harriman" and of "hounding his movements in the Northwest." The Oregonian has expressed a very earnest desire that Oregon shall not forever be neglected in the operations of the great railway syndicate of which Mr. Harriman is the head. No part of the Union Pacific system is more profitable than the O. R. & N.; and the Oregonian would like to see Mr. Harriman do something for the development of the newer parts of this country, which are without railroads and can't make another step of progress till railroads are assured.

To the north of us a great railway combination is making immense efforts for development of the country and extension of commerce to the south of us another great railway combination is doing a like thing. The system to the north of us merely touches Oregon; no more. The one to the south of us covers Oregon and the great valley of the Columbia. But it ceased years and years ago to give Oregon and the country of the great Columbia Valley new facilities. It sits on this vast empire, and has done so these twenty years. The Oregonian would be glad to see it stirred into action.

This is the reason why the Oregonian has spoken so earnestly. The fellow Cowgill asks: "Is there not something behind these attacks on Harriman and may they not be the very means of making him slow in moving in Oregon?" Yes there is something behind the criticisms of the Oregonian. That something is its earnest desire to get something done in this state, commensurate with what has been done in the States of California and Washington. Small danger either that the management of the railroads here will "be made slower in its movements in Oregon" than it has been. There is the whole Eastern Oregon country. There is the whole Northwestern Oregon country. There is the whole Southwestern country. Into these great regions only the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific combination can make entrance or get footing. And there is the great Snake River and Clearwater country which the Union Pacific has allowed itself to be bluffed out of as it has been hitherto out of the Nehalem and coast country. It is just as well, as the Oregonian humbly conceives, to speak plainly about these things. The notion that criticism might "make the movement slow" is worth a leather medal. "Slow" indeed! Pity, indeed, if in the matter of opening and developing Oregon somebody should be irritated to a point of slowness!—Oregonian.

Notice.

To whom it may concern: Notice is hereby given that any person or persons found guilty of leaving unburied the carcass of any dead animal of which they are the owner or have the care of within 1/2 mile of any county road, will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

TRUE TO THE COMMON READER.

Now and then someone ventures to declare that a newspaper man usually finds an easy way into politics. He must of necessity become informed on political questions and he learns the byways and methods of practical politics. The versatility of newspaper work qualifies the newspaper man for a career in politics, say these writers. The newspaper man bows and says thank you but he smiles at the innocence of the man of compliments.

There is one thing the pleasant scribbler forgot to mention. That is that the newspaper man learns to observe. He finds men without a principle they would not sacrifice cheaply. He comes in contact with men whose promise is water and whose friendship is mercenary and vanishing. He sees men in politics who are not qualified to guard a penny bank instead of the interests of many people. He sees men in "bossdom" and among leaders who trample ruthlessly beneath their feet the sacred rights of the men who vote for them, and rather than to seek political "dishonor" the newspaper man prefers a higher position of exposing political dishonor and political shame and ignorance. Garfield once told a young man never to seek a position that he was not more than big enough to fill, and he might have told him not to leave it until he had filled it well. The greatest evils in our political life is that too many men of insufficient ability are selected to fill our offices. Nominations are too often made with regard to political pull, locality the control of a few votes, etc., and the duties of the office are not considered. The most practical results should be able men in office, and newspapers should be independent enough to "show up" inefficiency and corruption. No newspaper fills its mission that is not loyal to the people and no newspaper succeeds that does not remain true to the common reader.—Pendleton Tribune.

Starting Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonville, Va. serves as example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles entirely cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia, Grip, etc. Guaranteed by Condon Pharmacy. Trial bottles free, regular size, 50c and $1.00.

POPULAR NORTH BEACH.

Excursion Steamer T. J. Potter goes into service June 27.

Those who are planning their vacation this year will be interested in knowing that the popular excursion steamer, the T. J. Potter,—queen of river boats—goes into service June 27, and that she will leave Portland, during the season, every day from Tuesday until Saturday inclusive. To see the beauties of the picturesque and mighty Columbia from the decks of the Potter is a treat never to be forgotten. For speed and grace nothing in river or lake service in the entire West equals this side-wheeled beauty. Five hours from Portland and one from Astoria, through the famous fishing waters of the Columbia, past scores of salmon traps and nets and as many white winged fish boats, lands the passengers at Ilwaco, where close connection is made for beach points with trains of the Ilwaco Railway & Navigation Co., whose cars stand on the wharf awaiting the steamer. The beach is 27 miles long two hundred yards wide at low tide, and so long that carriages wheeling and the surf bathing is unsurpassable. The excellent hotels and boarding houses provide good accommodations at prices ranging from one dollar to three dollars per day.

The round trip rate from Portland to Astoria is $2.50; to Ocean Beach points $4.00, good until October 15th. On Saturdays, during July and August, round trip tickets are sold to beach points at $2.50, good for return leaving the beach the following Sunday evening.

The Oregon Railroad & Navigation Co. has just issued a new summer book, (free for the asking) which tells all about the delightful resorts of the Valley of the Columbia River. This can be obtained from any agent of the O. R. & N. Co. or by writing A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Oregon.

For Trade.

We have a client who wants to get into the stock business and would like to trade an elegant eight room cottage for good range horses or stock cattle. The property is situate three blocks from The Dalles High School, has two lots 50x100 feet each; bath hot and cold water; nice lawn; 6th basement; all kinds of bearing fruit and berries; also has a good barn, corral, chicken house and lots carriage house and other necessary outbuildings. The property is nearly new and was erected at a cost of about $2,500. Would make a very desirable home for a family retiring from active life or wishing to give children the advantage of a high school. For further particulars see or write Hudson & Brown Hill Real Estate & Investment Co., 208 Washington street, The Dalles, Oregon.
