F. M. Springston and J. A. Rogers last week purchased the Joe Frizell ranch in Lost Valley consisting of two and one quarter sections of fine grazing land. This is one of the finest stock ranches in the section and the owners and the new owners will put it in first-class repair and engage in the cattle business. They will take possession at an early date.
The Yelnam Dramatic Co. held the boards in Armory hall Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. They gave an excellent performance, much better than the average show that strikes Condon. The wardrobe is magnificent and the acting up to the mark. They appear tonight in the drama "Golden Giant Mine" proceeds to go to the relief of the sufferers of the Heppner disaster.
Last Saturday was the date of an important live stock auction in Condon. W. L. Barker, of this place, and George Knox, of Fossil, sold 43 head of horses and at the same time and place Than Cavin sold about 16 head. W. S. Myers sold 15 head of cattle after the horse sale. The prices realized for horses averaged a little better than $25 00 a head and cattle, consisting of yearling steers and heifers and cows brought all the way from $16.00 to $28.00. The horses sold by Barker & Knox were out of the Chapman band and were good stock.
Pat Connolly, who purchased the Thomas Dillon land of sheep a short time ago, started for the mountains Saturday morning. His band contains about 2500 head. Mr. Connolly is a practical sheepman and is sure to succeed in his venture as a flock owner. He is thoroughly familiar with the mountain grazing grounds and anticipates no trouble with the settlers with whom he may come in contact. He has rented the Dillon ranch for two years and will run his sheep there during the winter months.

HUNDREDS LOSE THEIR LIVES AT HEPPNER.
Town almost Wiped out of Existence by a Waterspout which burst on Willow Creek Sunday Afternoon.
NO WARNING GIVEN. PEOPLE COULD NOT ESCAPE.

Wall of Water Ten Feet High Sweeps over City in an Incredibly Short Time Leaving No Chance for Escape.
PROPERTY LOSS CAN ONLY BE ESTIMATED AT THE TIME OF THIS WRITING.
Estimate can hardly be placed short of One Million Dollars.

(Staff correspondence.)
HEPPNER, Or., June 15.—The cloudburst which swept over this city Sunday afternoon was the most disastrous to human life ever chronicled in the Pacific Northwest. Four-fifths of the city was totally destroyed and perhaps one-third of the population is dead. The estimates tonight of lives lost range all the way from 400 to 700. One hundred and fifty bodies were recovered today and all but one of these have been identified and buried. The unknown was a young girl 16 or 18 years old. As fast as the bodies are identified they are washed, wrapped in sheets, placed in plain wooden boxes and buried in separate graves which are carefully marked. The scene of ruin wrought by the flood beggars description. From the Palace hotel to the depot all is ruin. Immediately below the hotel is a mass of wrecked and twisted buildings a mile and a half further down where once stood rows of elegant homes with well kept lawns and gardens there is left today not so much as a foundation stone to mark the spot where they once stood. Sam. E. Van Vactor is here and safe. He gives a vivid description of the flood as he saw it from the door of the Palace hotel. It was not, he says, more than a minute from the time the flood—a wall of water ten feet high—swept in sight around a bend in the canyon just above the hotel until the water was surging around the building two or three feet deep. The hotel was only in the edge of the flood and was not materially damaged. Mrs. Van Vactor and children are safe at Columbus Washington, where they are visiting. Mr. Van Vactor's partner, C. E. Redfield, lost his wife and only child. The mother's body was recovered today but the baby has not yet been found. Mr. Redfield was in Portland but is expected home tonight. Charlie Jayne is safe but his mother was drowned. Her body was recovered and buried today. It is reported but not authenticated that Miss Nita Davis, formerly of Condon, was here and among the missing. The Condon boys, more than 50 in number, met tonight and organized to assist with the work of rescuing bodies tomorrow. The delegation was divided into three squads and R. E. Armstrong, J. E. Brown and S. A. Pattison were chosen as leaders of the respective parties. All are to be ready for duty at four o'clock in the morning. Teams and saddle horses will be used to pull apart the piles of debris and a hack, drawn by four horses, will accompany each party to haul the bodies. Among those here from Condon to help care for the dead and injured are: Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Barker, Mrs. John Jackson, Drs. J. F. Wool, W. T. Brown and S. K. Luna, R. E. Armstrong, Ed McKinney, S. A. Pattison, H. N. Frazer, G. L. Rinehart, Rube McKinney, Jim Poindexter, Winnie Kelzer.

Condon Won the Game.
At the base ball game played here last Sunday between the Arlington and Condon teams Condon won out by a score of 16 to 13 with one more chance at the bat had they needed it. Things looked rather bad for the home team at the end of the first inning when the Arlington team had nine runs to their credit but the twirler for the home team got limbered up and played ball with the result that Arlington made only four runs in the other eight innings. The game was intensely interesting from start to finish and the Condon boys redeemed themselves and at this writing are not down in the mouth as they were a week ago. Pearl Jarvis and Joe Block each made a home run and the Condon rosters broke all previous records. Bert Wells served as umpire and, while there was the usual amount of kicking, he stuck to his decision and showed no partiality. Arlington has some husky ball players whom it is no easy thing to defeat.

A Pleasant Affair.
The young people of the Christian Endeavor Society gave a pleasant entertainment and basket social in Armory hall Friday evening which was well attended. The entertainment consisted of musical and literary selections and an excellent dialogue entitled "Gossip" which was exceptionally well presented by six young ladies. After the entertainment the lunch baskets, which were prepared by the young ladies, were sold at auction to the highest bidder and brought good prices. One young gentleman who attempted to "run up" the price of every other fellow's girl's basket got coppered and paid $2.55 the highest price of the evening, for the basket he had to have. It was one of the most pleasant social events of the season and reflects much credit on those who assisted in making it a success.

Worst of all Experiences.
Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur Ala. "For three years" she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was marvellous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For Liver, Kidney Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. Guaranteed by Condon Pharmacy.
