Howard Propst, a former well known resident of this county, now of Spokane, was here during the week visiting friends. Mr. Propst recently purchased 320 acres of land in Northern Manitoba and expects to locate there and engage in farming. Mr. Stapleton, of Portland, was here last week in company with B. F. Tennis of Arlington. Mr. Stapleton is the representative of a syndicate of Portland capitalists who are in the market for a large body of Gilliam county wheat lands. He is having a fine visit with old friends and expects to leave in a couple of days for Ben Lomond, Santa Cruz county, where he will spend the summer. He orders the Globe to keep him posted in Condon events during his absence.

The Pope is Dead.
Pope Leo XIII is dead. The end came peacefully at 4:04 p. m. last Monday. After a lingering illness several weeks duration this great man has succumbed to the Grim Reaper and the whole Christian world mourns. He was 93 years old. It is expected that Cardinal Oreglia will succeed the late pope to the head of the Catholic church.

Obituary.
Christopher Rogers, an old resident of Benton county, died at his home at King's Valley on the 13th, inst., aged 69 years. He leaves a widow and eight children, three of whom, Frank Rogers, Ray Rogers, and Mrs. L. T. Price, are residents of this county. He was a resident of this county for some time and left here a year ago for his old home in Benton county. A large circle of relatives and friends in this county will mourn his death.

Fearfully Burned.
Mrs. Loui Comini, wife of the well known marble dealer, of The Dalles, met with a fatal accident at her home in that city, last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Comini was at home with her five children, her husband being away from home on business, and preparing to retire for the night she fell down a stairway while carrying a lighted lamp in her hand. The lamp was broken and the oil, which saturated her clothing, became ignited burning her frightfully. She rushed from the house screaming and a neighbor extinguished the flames but not until she was fatally burned.
Mr. Comini is well known here and his many friends will deplore this terrible misfortune which has befallen him. Only a few years ago his home and place of business were destroyed by fire at The Dalles and a little later he lost the sight of one eye by a chip of marble striking that organ and this additional misfortune seems to be rather more than one man's share.

Some Fine Wheat.
Andrew Greiner, of Mayville, one of our most successful farmers has propagated a new variety of wheat which gives promise of eclipsing anything in the cereal line ever introduced in Oregon. Mr. Greiner was exhibiting a sample of the wheat heads in town Monday and it certainly surpasses anything shown here. The heads are long and big and show by actual count to contain from 80 to 100 exceptionally large grains.
Mr. Greiser secured the new variety of wheat in a somewhat novel manner. About five years ago while attending a Portland exposition he secured a few grains of about 50 different varieties on exhibition. He mixed them together and planted them. The first year he selected three different varieties of the hybrid and planted them together, the next year he selected two and last year one. He has 100 acres of the new wheat this year and it promises to yield 40 bushels to the acre.
He has not named the new cereal but has the matter under advisement.

Newspaper Bargain Day.
The Portland Journal has inaugurated a new idea in the newspaper business. That paper proposes to have a "bargain day" on August 28, 1903, when they will receive subscriptions to the daily at $2.50 per year, semi-weekly 75 cents per year and weekly 50 cents per year. This offer is only good for one day. As a further inducement to swelling the business of that day cash prizes will be given to persons sending in clubs at the reduced rate.
The Journal is rapidly becoming a power in Oregon journalism and by its fearless stand for the right and against official corruption it is entitled to a liberal patronage.

Attention I. O. O. F.
Installation of officers will be held in their lodge room next Saturday evening by Summit Lodge, No. 130 I. O. O. F. All members are expected to be present. A special invitation is extended to visiting brothers. Don't forget the date, Saturday evening, July 25th.

A Better and Safer Light for All.
A better and safer light is now within reach of all the people of Gilliam county. Lamberson's Patent Non-Explosive Safety Lamp Burners with patent wick is the most important invention ever put on a coal oil lamp. These burners give a large bright light from the poorest quality of coal oil and don't smoke the chimney up like the old style of burners. They have a small lever for extinguishing the light and a tube for filling the lamp without removing the burner and if the lamp accidentally upsets the light goes out. The burners with patent wick are guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded upon the return of the burner to the dealer.
So don't sit in the dark or stand in your own light by not giving them a trial.
These burners are for sale by Shurtz & Weir, Arlington. Wade Bros., Olex. E. T. Hollenbeck, Condon. Wm. Keys & Son, Mayville. Matlock & Ham, Lone Rock. So help yourselves to a better and safer light. 19420

A Promising Mine.
C. L. Rowe recently received a letter from the president of the Roseland Consolidated Mining Co. which stated that the property is showing excellent increase in values as development progresses. The last assay was very flattering. Stockholders or others who wish to purchase stock before another advance in price should see Mr. Rowe at once as he is the Company's agent here. The stock is now selling at 20 cents a share. 19422

Oregon's Exhibit at St. Louis.
The Lewis and Clark Commission made a good start at its monthly meeting held in Portland on the 11th of July and actual work was begun in preparing a creditable exhibition for Oregon at St. Louis. Ex-Senator H. W. Wehring, of Hillsboro, was elected General Superintendent. A. F. Miller is Superintendent of Horticulture and Agriculture a position which he has heretofore held with the State Fair, and Mr. J. H. Fisk, of Portland, a well known and very competent mining man, was elected Superintendent of Mines and Mining.
$2,000.00 was set aside for the purchase of so much of the exhibits at district and county fairs as the Commission may find to be of value for an exhibit at St. Louis. This should encourage the exhibitors at these fairs to do their best in preparing something that will be selected by the State Commission. This is in addition to the $1,500 already set aside by the State Fair for the same purpose.
The Commission has had Hon. Henry Blackman, of Heppner, Ex-Collector of Internal Revenue for Oregon, securing Eastern Oregon for fine fleeces of wool, and he has had such success that it is expected that as fine a wool exhibit as was ever got together will be the result of his work.
Although no vote has taken on the matter, it is practically settled that no part of the appropriation for an exhibit at St. Louis will be expended for a building there, as no exhibit placed in such a building can compete for premiums, and only such of our citizens as are fortunate enough to go to St. Louis can derive any benefit from a state building. The same amount of money expended in showing our resources through judicious advertising, and a fuller display of the wonderful agricultural, mineral, stock and other resources, will be of much greater advantage to the people in general. A cheap building, and we could build no other out of our appropriation and leave enough for other purposes, would be worse than none as compared to the elaborate buildings of other states, while a fine display of our natural resources will capture for us the premiums as we excel nearly every other state in such resources.
The Commission wants to represent every nook and corner of our State, and to the wheat and President Myers will be pleased to receive communications from anyone who has any project or idea which he thinks will be of benefit to our exhibit at St. Louis.

Rinehart Family Reunion.
Geo. W. Rinehart, of this place, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Edwards, of Mayville, returned Sunday from Summerville, Union county, where they attended the Rinehart family reunion which was held at the home of Jas. H. Rinehart, near Summerville last week. About 80 members of the family, including three generations, were present and a most delightful meeting was enjoyed. The Rinehart family is one of the oldest in the state and includes many prominent men. Uncle George says was one of the most pleasant events of his life.

She Finds Mines.
The Globe has just learned that a well known Condon man, who is somewhat interested in mining, has for some time been in communication with an eastern lady who possesses the somewhat unusual faculty of locating water, coal, oil, gold, silver, or any other mineral wealth. The lady's name is Miss Stella Teller, and she is said to be a cousin of Senator Henry M. Teller, of Colorado. Her family is a rich one, their wealth running into the millions, and because of this occult power of hers her brothers had her adjudged insane and committed to an eastern asylum. About a year ago she escaped from the mad house and succeeded in establishing her sanity and since that time she has been engaged in pointing out the location of hidden things. The Condon man above referred to has submitted township plats of this and adjoining counties to her and she has declared that within a comparatively short distance from Condon mineral wealth in gold, coal, oil, and gas, representing untold wealth abounds. He is now arranging to have her visit here and point out the exact location of the treasure and we hope to have some startling news to chronicle along this line in the near future.

Night Was Her Terror.
"I would cough nearly all night long" writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis, and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Guaranteed by Condon Pharmacy. Trial bottles free, regular sizes, 50c and $1.00.
