

THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 3, 1903.

A Hillsboro man was presented with a new coat by the citizens of his town the other night, the design of which is not shown on the tailors' fashion plates. It was a coat of tar and feathers.

Committees whose duty it will be to decide which is the cutest, smartest and prettiest cherub at the baby shows at the coming Fall fairs are advised to take to the woods before rendering a decision and to send the same in by "wireless." It is safer you know.

The Portland Journal is looking for the oldest man in Oregon. Condon wouldn't cut much ice in the centenarian class but we could show more bald headed young men for a while this Summer than any town of its size in the state. Shaved heads was the popular fad and there were many faddists.

"Carnival queens" are becoming so numerous in the Northwest this Summer that, after reading the daily papers and looking at the numerous portraits of the royal personages with their prettily dressed-in-waiting and their elegant gowns it would puzzle Uncle Sam himself to tell whether he was on the Pacific coast, U. S. A., or in the center of "Yurrupe."

A preacher came to a newspaper man in this way: "You editors do not tell the truth. If you did you could not live, your newspaper would be a failure." The editor replied: "You are right, and the minister who will, at all times and under all circumstances tell the truth about his members, alive or dead, will not occupy his pulpit more than one Sunday and then will find it necessary to leave town in a hurry. The press and the pulpit go hand in hand with white wash brushes and pleasant words magnifying little virtues into big ones. The pulpit, the pen and the gravestone are the great saint making triumvirate." The minister went away looking very thoughtful.—Ex.

Fearful Odds Against Him.
Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief, was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Haven, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel complaints. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Condon Pharmacy.

MAYVILLE.

(Received too late for last issue.)
Miss Frances Parsons, of Twickenham, one of Gilliam and Wheeler's leading teachers was here a day or two during the week greeting her many Mayville friends.

Threshing is now under good headway and there is quite a predilection for "blowing" as that puts the straw in the sheds you know. Wheat is "busheling up" pretty well to the acre.

They are coming, millions of them—grasshoppers. But they are small yet and it is hoped they may be too late for all crops except "garden sass and sich" of which they have previously shown themselves to be passionately fond.

We are having ideal harvest weather warm, sunny days, cool, pleasant nights with plenty of fine breeze to temper the sun's rays.

Miss Iva Shelton, who has been visiting Miss Bessie Rinehart has returned home.

Mrs. Stinchfield has again assumed charge of the hotel at this place.

Uncle Jim Edelman, as he is familiarly called, is still quite ill at the residence of Mrs. Mary Edelman.

The following letter addressed to Jim Ramsey has been found here:

Albany, Ore., August 12, 1903.

Dear Old Friend:—

The happy announcement that a son and heir has been born to you gives satisfaction. I always thought you would distinguish yourself in some way and do something whereby your name might descend to posterity and now it seems that you have done it. I will not draw any picture of the cares and anxieties of fatherhood such as carrying a squalling young one in your arms at three a. m. when he has wind colic, opening your eyes with astonishment at the bills for shoes, dresses etc. but will content myself with sharing the joy you must feel at being daddy of a fine big boy. Your old friend,

Stock Hogs for Sale.

A Boy's Wild Ride for Life.

With family around expecting him to die and a son riding for life, 18 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs, Colds and Consumption, W. H. Brown, of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma; but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and Grip prove its matchless merit for all Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free, Condon Pharmacy.

THE CELEBRATED .. COLUMBIA BREWERY ..
AUGUST BUCHLER, Prop.
Of the product of this well-known brewery the United States Health Reports for June 25, 1900, says: "A more superior brew never entered the laboratory of the United States Health reports. It is absolutely devoid of the slightest trace of adulteration, but on the other hand is composed of the best of malt and choice of hops. Its tonic qualities are of the highest and it can be used with the greatest benefit and satisfaction by both old and young. Its use can conscientiously be prescribed by the physicians with the certainty that a better, purer or more wholesome beverage could not possibly be found."
