Congress is called to meet in extra session on November 9th. President Roosevelt issued his proclamation to that effect Tuesday.

Rev. Father Walsh will hold divine service at the Catholic church in this city Sunday, November 25 and at the Mayville church Sunday, November 1st.

W. L. Barker has just received a consignment of 1800 pounds of bolts, all sizes and kinds. He also has a fine assortment of all kinds of wrenches. tf

Horace Hartshorn, a brother of S. B. Hartshorn, is here from Iowa to visit his brother and look at the country. He may invest here and locate permanently.

Mrs. T. L. Nicklin and daughter, Miss Bessie Barton, arrived last week to make Condon their future home. Dr. Nicklin and family will occupy rooms in the new Palmer building on lower Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cornett returned Monday from an extended visit in the Valley and on the Sound. At Seattle they visited his sister whom he had not seen for 51 years. They enjoyed the trip immensely.

Alex, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hardie, of Trail Fork, fell from a pony he was riding Saturday evening and sustained a bad fracture of the arm at the elbow joint. Dr. Wood was called to reduce the fracture.

Owing to the sharp advance in the price of sole leather we have been obliged to raise our prices on tap soling as follows: Men's nailed work $1.00; boys 75c; ladies, 60c. For sewed work add 20 to 35 cents. O. W. Propst & Co.

Rev. F. C. Flowers returned Sunday from the Baptist State Convention in session last week at Oregon City. He says the meeting was the greatest in the history of the state in point of numbers in attendance and work accomplished.

Rev. Flowers tied his first matrimonial knot Sunday evening and so well does he like the work that he is now anxious to have other young people hurry up their arrangements and give him a job. He guarantees to tie as hard and fast a knot as the oldest and most experienced bishop on earth.

T. J. Driver, former sheriff of Wasco county, and well known through this section, disappeared from his home in The Dalles some three weeks ago and has not since been heard from. It is said that he was heavily involved and that his business was not paying. He was engaged in the saloon business.

Mrs. W. L. Barker and little daughter who have been in Portland for a month or more where the child is under treatment from a specialist, spent a few days at home last week. Mr. Barker took them to Arlington last week on their return trip. The little girl is improving rapidly under the treatment and it is believed she will be entirely cured in another month or so.

School is going on as usual this week the tempest in a tea-pot having subsided. The pupils in Professor Neal's room turned out en masse Monday morning and called on the directors, entering a vigorous protest against his resignation being accepted. Mr. Neal will recommend the board of examiners and be re-examined to make sure that the proceeding is strictly legal. In token of his appreciation of the action of his pupils he will continue to conduct the school until the board can be convened, without pay. Mr Neal has made a mistake in the matter and as he must forfeit his pay for the time he has taught it would seem that he is the only one who suffers on account of the mistake. It is fortunate for the interest of the school that the matter has been thus amicably settled.

Railroad Situation.

The plot thickens in Gilliam County railroad circles.

Three surveying parties, representing as many different Companies, are now at work between Arlington and Condon running surveys.

Mr. Simmons put his engineers to work at Arlington last Wednesday morning and the following morning the Company represented by Mr. Morris also started out a crew of stake drivers.

Saturday morning a third party commenced work at the Wm Head ranch, on Rock creek a short distance below the French Charley place and are working toward Condon. They are in the employ of the company of which John C. Ainsworth, of Portland, is President. The Ainsworth party drove across the country from Ione, to the Head place Friday.

Morris and Simmons both declare that they are in earnest and will commence grading within thirty days.

The Ainsworth people are not talking much but they are said to be "sawing wood". Ainsworth's statement of several weeks ago that he expected to commence grading soon after the first of the year, still stands. Further developments will be awaited with interest.

Application Approved.

The application of N. Farnsworth J. Frank Watson, Edward Dunn, Andrew Greiner, and George Earhart, to organize the First National Bank of Condon, has been approved by the controller of the currency and the bank will be organized and opened for business as soon as the necessary preliminary arrangements can be made. The absence of two of the incorporators, from the city at this time may delay the opening for a few days but it will be but a short time until Condon will be given the convenience of a first class banking house. Mr Watson is president of the Merchants National Bank, of Portland, which is rated among the strongest financial institutions in the north-west.

Married

Last Sunday evening, at the residence of the bride's father, Oliver G. Ward, near this city, Miss Maud Ward and Mr. Otie Jarvis were united in marriage, Rev. F. C. Flowers, of the First Baptist church, performing the ceremony. Only a few near friends and relatives of the contracting parties were present to witness the ceremony. The bride has grown to womanhood here and is highly respected and the groom, although a comparatively recent arrival from the East, is held in high esteem by those who know him as a young man of good habits and high character. The happy couple left Monday morning for Portland to spend the honeymoon and upon their return will reside in the home recently purchased by Mr Jarvis on Spring street.

Make Chinamen Hike.

China Lane, who was charged with complicity in the murder of the Chinaman at Wilkes last Summer, and who was discharged at the last term of court here because of lack of evidence to convict, returned to Heppner one evening last week but he didn't stay long. At midnight a delegation of citizens quietly went to the Chinese quarter and inquired for Lane: "We know no, him glone, me no sabe," replied the Chink who came to the door. "We want to see Lane," replied the crowd, "and if we have to waste time hunting him now we will save time later by hanging him." Lane appeared and was quietly told that if he did not quit the town forever the next morning that the Boxers were liable to get busy. Lane promised to go. The crowd then visited the other China houses and gave the inmates similar notice except that those who owned property were given time to dispose of the same and wind up their business. The belief is general at Heppner that Lane laid the plot for the murder and this is given as the cause of the action. Heppner is going to be a white man's town.
