

THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY OCTOBER 29, 1903.

Grover has recently been telling Chicagoans all about "American Good Citizenship." It's all lost on that crowd.

First thing we know Russell Sage will be joining Dowrie's "Restoration Host" in hopes of getting back that small piece of land that was sold for taxes.

Perhaps those Indian Territory thieves figure that if you take it from an Indian it doesn't count, but Oregon timber thieves should not figure that way. Uncle Sam is no "Sivash" and he has lately concluded that he must be respected.

Prince and Princess Andrew, of Greece, got a million dollars worth of wedding presents. At that rate they should be able to keep the divorce mill running and the marriage bells ringing pretty steady. There's money in it.

Ex-Governor Hogg, of Texas, says he would not accept a seat in the U. S. Senate if one was offered to him. That statement may "go" in Texas but it would not be safe to bank much on it if made by some Oregon politicians. They might change their minds if the seat was offered.

A noted Irish member of the British parliament is out with the announcement that the "Hon. Oliver Wendell Holmes, son of the famous author, has been promoted to the 'Lord' chief Justiceship of the United States at Washington," which is about as near as our trans-Atlantic cousins ever get to a proper understanding of our democratic ways and lack of titles. But, being an Irishman, perhaps the gentleman meant it as a joke.

It is hoped the above report will serve to arouse the interest of parents and to stimulate pupils to a more earnest effort. Fairly good work has been done the past month. I earnestly solicit the aid of parents in the great cause. Come and see our work. Any suggestions will be thankfully received and all questions answered if it is in my power to do so.

Confessions of a Priest.

Rev. Jun S. Cox, of Wake, Arkansas, writes: "For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for 12 years." If you want a reliable medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility get Electric Bitters. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Condon Pharmacy.

They Bring a Good Report.

Thompson Scoggin and Chas. Hagley have returned from British Columbia where they went to look at the range with a view to locating there. Thompson arrived Thursday via Shaniko, while Mr. Hontley remained in Portland to interview some special friends connected with the U. S. District court.

Mr. Scoggin says he saw in the territory tributary to Calgary the finest stock range he ever saw in his life, and thinks that country is the stockman's paradise. He and Mr. Hontley thoroughly investigated the conditions there, and have concluded to move to Alberta when the coming winter is over. Mr. Hontley has two brothers in the stock business up there, doing well.—Fossil Journal.

The Condon Band.

Members of the Condon Concert Band circulated a subscription paper a few days ago for the purpose of raising funds to assist the band in continuing the services of their teacher, Prof. Downey, and about $100 was raised in a short time. The band now consists of 14 members and the boys are making excellent progress in their work. The members have been putting up money to pay their instructor from their own pockets and began to feel that they were entitled to some help from the citizens. Condon now has as good a band as can be found in this section of the state but they are anxious to continue their practice and instruction until they are excelled by none on the coast. They will give a grand ball Thanksgiving evening the proceeds to go into the band fund.

A Good Pig Story.

Young Andrew Ciarno has a pig on his ranch, by the John Day river, that is a freak fit for a dime museum. The pig's mother died soon after his birth and he was adopted by a female dog, which is suckling him along with her pups. It is a tanny sight to see the pig and the pups have their breakfast at the same time, and fannier still to see the little porker take after a coyote along with the other dogs. This dogged pig turns up his nose at all the other pigs on the ranch, and will have nothing to do with them except to help the other dogs drive them away when they come too near the house.—Fossil Journal.

LONE ROCK.

Carl Stahl, an old and respected resident died at his home near this place, Tuesday morning, Oct. 20, of paralysis of the brain, aged 67 years and 10 months. Mr. Stahl had been a resident of this place for the past 19 years and leaves three sons and one daughter, all residents of this place, excepting William who lives in Minnesota but who was here at the time of his father's death. The many good qualities of "Father Stahl," as he was commonly called, will never be forgotten for he was a devoted Christian and always had a kind word and a loving heart which made friends of all who knew him. Rev. Beightol, of Heppner conducted the funeral Wednesday and his remains were laid to rest in the Lone Rock cemetery.

F. H. Robinson and family moved to Lone the first of the week. Several of our people went to Fossil to the Caledonian meeting. They were Dutch, Irish and English but when they get to Fossil are all supposed to be Scotch and drink from the same mug.

Dr. Luna was called from Condon Tuesday to administer to Maurice Giff who has been on the sick list for several days.

Rabbit Drive.

The people of Eight-mile, a valley 12 miles above Arlington, will have a big rabbit drive on Nov. 8. The drive will begin at 11:00 a. m. and it is expected that one thousand people will be present to assist in the capture of 2500 of these pests. They are becoming so numerous and destructive that the farmers are compelled to take these steps for "house protection."

It is absolutely devoid of the slightest trace of adulteration, but on the other hand is composed of the best of malt and choice of hops. Its tonic qualities are of the highest and it can be used with the greatest benefit and satisfaction by both old and young.
