We have the agency for the Fairbanks & Morse pumps, windmills and gasoline engines. Clarke & Hartshorn.

You should clean your soil wheat before sowing. We sell the best makes of Fanning Mills. W. L. Barker.

The cold weather of the past few days would almost make one believe that old Winter was on his annual tour.

Wm. Norbridge, of Mayville, is preparing to move to Grass Valley where he will take a course in the Baptist Academy.

Wm. Norbridge will sell his farm and household effects at public auction at his ranch near Mayville next Saturday, Nov. 14 see bills.

Geo. Wanson has bought the interest of his partner, Dave McMullen, in the Alville confectionery store and will continue the business.

Mrs. J. M. Downing has returned from Portland and other Valley points where she has been visiting with relatives and friends for some time.

Mrs. Mont Ward who has been in a Portland Hospital for some time has recovered sufficiently to come to Arlington and will soon be able to return home.

J. L. Ross, of Portland, has purchased the Kentucky Liquor Store at Arlington and is remodeling and renovating the place. His advertisement appears in another column.

A. M. Kendall last week closed a deal with J. E. Lancaster, for a lot north of Mrs. Mary Brown's residence near the school house. He will build a residence thereon at once.

Rev. P. O. Bailey, a well known Baptist evangelist, began a series of revival meetings at the Fossil Baptist church last Monday evening. He will go from there to Mayville.

Dr. Brown was called to Lone Rock Sunday to prescribe for Maurice Goff who has been seriously ill for some time. He is reported to be improving at the present writing however.

The Condon Milling Co. began putting up wire for the new electric light plant and Condon will not much longer be in the dark. This modern convenience will be a boon to the town.

Rev. Frank Simmons leaves this week for Grass Valley where he will enter the Baptist Academy. Mr. Simmons is one of our brightest young men and we predict for him a bright future.

C. W. Wester, of Clew, was called to Portland during the week by the illness of his daughter who is attending a business college in that city. She is suffering from an attack of appendicitis.

Mont Ward last week sold 160 acres of land, the Stitt place, two miles east of town to L. D. Mulkey, consideration $2500. Mr. Mulkey has leased the place to Oliver Ward and returned to the Valley.

R. K. Wilson, the famous goose hunter, came near shooting himself while hunting at Arlington last week. The gun he was carrying was accidentally discharged and the charge of shot took away a good section of his hat brim.

Owing to the sharp advance in the price of sole leather we have been obliged to raise our prices on tap soles as follows: Men's nailed work $1.00; boys 75c; ladies, 60c. For sewed work add 20 to 35 cents. O. W. Propst & Co.

B. K. Searcy and Nott Londermilk returned Monday from the wife of Wheeler county where they went to capture a fresh supply of venison but the deer must have learned that B. K. was coming as they had hiked out for new stamping grounds and the hunters returned empty handed.

Two inches of snow this morning. H. N. Fraser is here from Portland on business.

Mrs. Robt McKinnay is suffering from an attack of typhoid.

R. M. Johnson, of Lone Rock, was in town during the week.

Mrs. Cass Simon and Mrs. Dennis arrived Tuesday from Ukiah to visit at the home of their father, G. H. Parman.

A heavy fall of snow came down Monday night which about midnight turned to a heavy rain which continued until daylight.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fortwood and little son, Hal, left for Portland Sunday. They expect to visit friends up the Valley before returning.

Miss Anna Palmer, who went to Portland a short time ago to spend the Winter, returned Friday, being called back here to attend to some business matters.

At the Congregational church next Sunday at 11:00 a. m. Rev. Strang will take for his text Help the Man that is Down. At 7:30 Right and Wrong Purposes in Life.

Wm. Pentecost and family, of near Mayville, expect to leave Monday for Eastern Washington where they go to visit friends. They will be gone most of the Winter.

Jim Caldwell is back from Southern Oregon where he and his brothers took their sheep last Summer. He is much pleased with the country there and is back here to look after business matters.

J. W. Snover went out to Trail Fork Monday when the motion for a new trial in the Hardie-Parks hog trespass case was argued before Justice Mattingly. The motion was granted and another trial will be held on Monday, November 23.

The regular services will be held in the Baptist church next Sunday. The subject at the morning service will be "The Sun's Anchor," at the evening service "From Royalty to Ruin," a sermon especially for young people. All invited.

W. L. Barker and son, Frank, went to Portland the first of the week to attend to business matters and visit Mrs. Barker who is spending the Winter in Portland having their little daughter treated for spinal trouble. The child is improving rapidly.

Jim Stewart, of the Fossil Journal, went to Portland last week to look up the football situation in the metropolis. Mr. Stewart is arranging to take an eleven composed of Condon and Fossil players, to Portland this Winter for a match game and expects to put the Portland players out of business.

There has been no startling developments in the railroad situation during the past week. All three companies are still at work surveying. Mr. Morris outst is on Rock Creek, below Olex, the Simmons people are in the neighborhood of Clew and the Alsworth party is at work on the ridge near S. A. D. Hart's place about seven miles from Condon.

Mr. Morris visited Portland during the week to make a formal demand on the O. R. & N. office as for track connection with that company at Arlington, and in case of refusal, which he expects, he will institute condemnatory proceedings to force that company to connect with him.

Quite a snow storm visited the foot hill country Sunday and Monday leaving a white covering on the ground a couple of inches deep.

R. M. Johnson and wife went to Arlington the first of the week.

W. T. Matlock made a business trip to Heppner this week.

The new mercantile firm has been scattering fresh paint inside and out their new store making it quite attractive.

Kindeman & Brown passed through a few days since on their way to Heppner with about 100 head of beef cattle purchased in the John Day country. They report the beef market looking up considerably.

Manrice, youngest son of J. B. Goff, is seriously ill with typhoid fever. Drs. Luna and Brown, of Condon, have made several trips to see him and Dr. Kistner of Heppner, came over and assisted the attending physicians while Dr. Swinburna was also consulted. All agree that the case is very dangerous having progressed 25 days.

Our newly appointed P. M. Mrs. May E. Ham will take charge of the office in a couple of weeks.

Otho Ward has returned from a couple of months stay in the Valley and will probably remain all Winter.

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Condon Pharmacy.
