Entered at the postoffice at Condon, Oregon, as second-class mall matter.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

Will practice in all the Courts of Oregon. Of-fice one door north of Dunn Bros. Store.

VOL. XIII.

CONDON, GILLIAM CO., OREGON, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1904.

Joletto's Pate," "Liftle Sweethear"," "Lottie, the Sewing Girl," Goldmaker of Lisbon," "Wedded to Win," "Diana Thorps," "Nora's Legacy," Etc., Etc.

L. W. DARLING.

CONDON, OREGON.

. 1.00

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

Notary Public and Conveyancer.

CONDON, OREGON

S. A. PATTISON.

Three months

Single copies.

W. SNOVER,

NOTARY PUBLIC.

Office in Globe Building.

J. F. WOOD, M. D.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

Day and Night Calls Promptly Answered. Office Second floor Parker Building, corner Main and Spring streets CONDON, OREGON

DR. S. K. LUNA.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

Day and Night Calls Promptly Attended.

T. L. NICKLIN.

DENTIST.

Office Over Wilson Pharmacy.

CONDON, OREGON

C. S. PALMER.

Artistic Barber

SLEEK SHAVES AND HAIR-CUTS

Razors Honed and Re-Ground

CONDON, OREGON.

EAST DAILY

Through Pullman standard and tourist sleeping cars daily to Omaha, Chicago, Spokane; tourist sleeping car daily to Kansas city; through Pullman tourist sleeping cars (personally conducted) weekly to Chicago, and Kansas City, reclining chair cars (seats free) to the East daily.

Ocean steamers between Portland and San Francisco every five days.

LOW RATES

Tickets to and from all parts of the United States, Canada and Europe. Far particulars call on or address

D. TIERNEY, Agent

Arlington, Oregon

O. R. & N. TIME TABLE Trains Depart from Arlington EAST BOUND

WEST BOUND

CHAPTER XXVIII, D. TIERNEY, Agent. CHAPTER XXVIII.

Arlington, Or. Perhaps the man in the tree may have,

He knew not at first whether it was

Fancy his feelings so close to this Rusessary to take him across the water to

For ten minutes those tiger eyes were his head again.

trouble in passing through it.

Up the stairs crept the would-be murreathing of the sleeper in the little room,

All this while the slow match he had guish. Captain Grant little knew what

To remove this to the outside was his and at the same time threw himself up-

The two of them went over with Captain Grant to overcome him.

being hurled in an opposite direction.

but the door remained fast. The spring

When the full consciousness of their position broke upon him, Captain Grant ut-

Hearing an exclamation of triumph from his enemy and recent adversary, he turned. The candle still burned feebly close at his hand, and he could see the detective half crouching on the floor, while

Captain Grant was equal to the occa-slon, however, for with one blow of his hand he hurled the candle to the further

"Hold, man!" eried the Captain, hoarsepistol was in his hand.

ward.

CHAPTER XXVII. Captain Grant-as we may still call the that indicated his surprise a little too man of many names, in order to distin- loud; at any rate the detective turned guish him from his cousin, Roger Darrel and looked toward the window, and would had proved his boldness by remaining in have discovered the spy but that he had the vicinity when everything seemed to dropped behind a limb and was hidden.

indicate that hasty flight would be the most beneficial to his interests.

He seemed completely environed by and in either case it was bad enough to foes, and no matter which way he turn- make him shiver. ed it did seem as though he was bound to meet some enemy, but he only shut his sian bloodhound who was on his track, teeth the harder and determined to beat doubtless armed with all the papers nec-them all yet.

There were several important things the most terrible doom that could befall that menaced him about which he knew a man, and beside which death at the nothing. The first of these was the cs- gibbet or guillotine lost its terrors-a life CONDON, OREGON cape of Nora Warner for the second time in the salt mines of Siberia for tremenfrom the mad house, and the fact that dons political offenses against the Czar. she and brave Jack, who loved her so Satisfied, apparently, that he had been well that he was ready to die in her ser- mistaken in thinking that he heard a vice, were even then closing in upon the noise, the man resumed his work of writman upon whom both had sworn a mighty ing, and Captain Grant gradually raised oath to be avenged. Then, again, there was another little fact of which the Captain was ignorant glued upon the detective. Then the sol--the restoration of the Russian detec- dier began to descend the tree with the tive to life. He had not the least idea sgillity and the noiselessness of a cat. in the wide world but that the fellow Once upon the ground he stood and shook had been dead in the climney for days; his fist upward, muttering low words and, not knowing that the old mill was which contained terrible threats. Turnmanetracker, who might be readily recognized as the person with whom he had when they could not tell whether it was left Richmond Terrace on the night when Roger Darrel or some one else, the two his marriage had been so abruptly brok- men being of the same build and the aten off by the flight of Carol, assisted by mosphere deceptive. valiant Roger, he was even now on his A couple of hours later Captain Grant way to the old mill with the full intention once more appeared upon the scene. In of forever hiding the body of the slain his hand he carried a large can of coal detective—for he was absolutely positive the man was dead—from the view of house. His object was apparent—he inthat the lounge had been bought by a tended to destroy the mill by fire after He had started out with a trowel and all, and if the thing were possible get rid some lime, intending to make some mor-tar and brick up the hole in the chimney | For some time he glided about tar and brick up the hole in the chimney through which he had dropped the body, but when he came to think it all over, be seen, for Carol had retired to her room there were several objections to this plan. in the dwelling and her mother had closed In the first place, any parties visiting the blinds in the lower story so that she the mill through idle curiosity—as they might be undisturbed in her occupation of were liable to do any day, and this it reading old letters from her husband. was that had urged him on to the step he was about to take-could not but notice in a short time had everything arranged. the difference in the mortar; the patch A slow match was ignited that would would be plainly seen, and their curiosity take a certain length of time to burn, and so excited that nothing would do but an during this time he meant to secure the speedily disclosed. This had so disgusted him that he had for it was only a small bull's-eye opening, hurled the trowel and little sack of lime and even a much more slender man than nto the bushes, and was about to turn the Russian detective would have had back when he suddenly became seized examination, when the truth would be with a brilliant idea. So stupendous was this new thought, coming after his late defeat, that he be- ears were on the alert for any sound, but came excited, and, losing no time, at nothing was to be heard save the heavy once recommenced his walk toward the

It was far into the night, and the bright stars looked down from above as though toward the oil saturated rags and chips, rebuking the dark thoughts that had been which once blazing nothing could extinengendered in his brain.

His new scheme, which had appeared danger he was incurring, and the terrible to him as one well calculated to bring suc- trap he was about to enter. cess with it, was to tear down the chimney, remove the body to some other part sian detective lay sleeping, having thrown of the mill where it would get the full himself upon the cot without undressing, benefit of his further actions, and then he looked in. The candle still burned, gathering combustibles about the dead but dimly from want of snuffing, and as man, set fire to the old mill. The great the door was open he saw that the key structure would burn like tinder, and his was on the inside.

secret would be well kept, Full of this idea, he hurried along the first care. This he accomplished without path he had taken on that other night, awaking the sleeper, and then all was in when with such herculean strength he readiness for the culmination of his plan, had borne the body of the detective from but he could not resist the temptation to the spot where he had struck him down, creep across the little room and gloat to the denser forest where he had after- over his enemy once more before the ward brought his horse to bear the body fire cremated him, to the mill. If he could dispose of the detective's down upon the man who had hunted him body one great object would be accom- so long, and whom his knife had failed to plished. He felt that when he struck the kill. His breath came hard, as though man-tracker down to death he had ac- excitement reigned within, and his hand complished much, for in spite of his non- unconsciously sought the weapon in his chalance in his presence he had feared pocket, this man like poison. When this work At th was accomplished he could turn upon his of the detective suddenly shot upward other foes one by one and demolish them. and clutched the throat of the soldier, Filled with these thoughts he hurried on through the gloomy forest. The mill was quite a distance away, and yet he took no note of the passage of time, and was so engrossed in his various schemes that almost before he was aware of the struggle. Each man put forth his best fact the old building loomed up before

To the surprise of the Captain he saw culty in mastering the other, for he was lights in two different parts of the mill; a man of wonderful physique, but the reone on the lower floor remote from the place where the body had been concealed. the other higher up in a sort of loft, formerly used by the miller for some pur-

The first he could comprehend, for he remembered hearing that an old woman had been known to inhabit the wing of couple of giants, swayed to and fro, as the mill for some years past, but what the other meant he had not the remotest

Then a sudden fear assailed his heartwhat if the evidence of his crime had al- their fall that they were separated, each ready been discovered? Whatever lay in his past, this man was not a coward, so far as brute courage was his knees, it was only to hear a sharp oncerned, but this was the first time his snap. The door had, moved by the viosoul had been stained with actual mur- lence of their actions, slammed shut, der, and he quivered with horror at the Remembering that it was a spring lock. thought of the doom awaiting him should the man uttered a cry full of horror, and, his crime be detected and brought home springing forward, attempted to open it, to him.

Soon the reaction came, and with it a lock had caught, and he himself had re determination to climb up and see who it moved the key to the outside, thus scalwas occupied the strong room of the dead ing his own doom, as it appeared.

This was easily done, for a tree grew close beside the building, and all that was tered a low cry of horror, for his soul ecessary for him to do was to draw him- was overwhelmed by the magnitude of self up among the branches of this until the doom he had thus cunningly brought he came on a line with the little window from whence the light proceeded. No sooner did this idea enter his head than he hastened to put it into execution. To climb the tree was an easy task, and in a very few minutes his head was on a level with the window. When his eyes fell upon the occupant of the little cham-No. 2 Chicago Special...... 2:06 P M ber his form seemed to turn into icc, such that shot through his No. 4 Spokane Flyer....... 12:40 A M frame, and from his lips, trembling with a sudden fear, there fell the words:

end of the little compartment, causing darkness to ensue of such denseness that "It is his spirit?" neither could see the other. He was gazing upon his last victim-the Russian detective, whose heart his mur derous knife had sought.

ly; "of what use are hostilities now? We are bound to die together here like rats "What mean you, serpent?" came from upon himself.

mean that we are locked in here, and the old mill is on fire. Under the light, Listen, and you will hear the voices of the fire fiends. We are doom-

"This is your work, demon!" ejaculated the detective, jumping up and vainly rattling the door. "I acknowledge it, but I have been caught in my own trap," answered the miserable Captain. in his sudden alarm, uttered the words To their ears now came a low, muttering sound, like increasing thunder. It was the savage flames eating their way upward, roaring, dancing and shooting wildly, this way and that, as they rapidly enveloped the whole of the doomed build-(To be continued.)

INGENIOUS BROOKLYN THIEVES.

Enter Buildings in Hollow Lounger and Rifle at Leisure.

Thieves in Brooklyn nowadays are not only industrious, but ingenious. A truck was driven recently to the home in the afternoon. A suave young man ments to Elihu Root, the retiring secrein charge of it said, addressing the tary. woman by name, that her husband had ordered a lounge to be sent to her, and he wished to deliver it. The woman declared that her husband had told her nothing about it, and that it must be a mistake. The young man insisted, however, that it was no mistake; that the lounge had been paid for, and he wished to obey instructions by deliveroccupied, and haunted by a fear lest his ing, he vanished from view among the ing it. The woman, in the circum-

> they left she went upstairs. About an hour afterward the suave young man returned, with his assistant, and, with many apologies, explained man of a somewhat similar name, but of a different address, and that he would take it away and deliver it to the right person. The lounge was then carted off.

Soon after the truck drove away the woman discovered that valuable clothing and jewelry were missing from a the border of Corea. room on the parlor floor. As she had The Captain used a dark lantern, and lounge was delivered, and had seen the 000, lost it all speculating in grain. clothing and jewelry in the room a short time before, she naturally decided that detective in his room. Escape by means of the window was out of the question, their disappearance of they chose to do time. so. After consulting with friends, it appears that a solution of the problem lay in the fact that the lounge was one of a well-known variety, which, when derer with the stealth of a burglar. His opened, have a hollow interior, large enough to hold a small man and afford this game has been successfully but work is stopped. The thermometer ignited down below was slowly creeping quietly played in several streets of registers 48 degrees below. Brooklyn recently,-New York Trib-

EVERYBODY HAD TO SNEEZE.

Reaching the room in which the Rus-Queer Scene When Pepper Flew is Windows of Elevated Train. "A-chew!" "A-chew!"

> It was in the last car of a Sixth ave nue elevated train speeding between Grand and Bleecker streets the other afternoon. The car was crowded, and fair portly, prosperous-looking gentleman sounded the first note of alarm. Every other man in the car laughed-for a minute-and slyly sized up the portly man with a quizzical glance, inspired by the suspicion that he had been "taking something."

How his eyes gleamed as he glared A statuesque blond young woman, smartly gowned, directed attention to erself by emitting an unmistakable At this instant, however, the right hand to look out of the window. She sneezed $2,000 a year. three times in succession. But there was no laughing this time, because every man in the car, and woman, too, came together. Three persons were for that matter, was doubled over in killed and a number injured.

paroxysm of sneezing. crash, locked in a deadly embrace, and Even the guard on the platform upon the floor there ensued a terrible oined in the chorus that came from efforts, and, had the detective been fully every seat. Twenty men "a-chewed, well, he would have had but little diffi--chewed" at the same time.

"Wonder what's the matter?" said the portly man cent cowardly blow received from this "Pepper," replied a man who said self-same man had weakened his frame he was in the spice business. considerably, so that he had all he could

"But how'd it get in the car?" perdo to equal the fierce endeavors made by dsted the portly man.

They managed in some unaccountable "Came in through the windows," said manner to gain their feet, and, like a the spice man. "You see, we have just passed through the spice district. I if they were two reeds bending in the suppose the porter is sweeping out the place where he had been packing pep-All at once they went to the floor with per for shipment, and a lot of the dust a great crash, and such was the force of ame out of the windows and was When Captain Grant managed to gain ing up the line for the next half hour > will hold a lot of sneezers." "Well-a-chew!-it's a blooming outage," said, or rather sneezed, the portly man.

"That's what it is-a-chew!" assented he spice man .- New York World.

A Philosopher.

"The hurricane blowed my house lown. "Too bad." "An' the earthquake swallowed my land." "Worse still." "But, thank heaven, there was nortgage on both of 'em, an' that's mercy of ship owners. been swallered, too!"-Atlanta Consti-

He Was Lazy. Mrs. White-Sam! Ah wish yo' was lak dat Mont Pelee. Mr. White-How am dat? Mrs. White-Had plenty ob dust en wah active. The Usual Thing. I shot an arrow into the air; It fell to earth-I knew not where-Until a neighbor set up a howl Because I'd killed a favorite fowl.

the foreign agent, who was panting heav- EVENTS OF THE DAY door even now you can see an increasing GATHERED FROM ALL PARTS OF THE TWO HEMISPHERES.

> Comprehensive Review of the Important Happenings of the Past Week, Presented in Condensed Form, Most Pope Pius is in ill health.

A Japanese warship is reported to have fired upon a Russian steamer.

The British ambassador at St. Peters The supreme court of Minnesota has ex-Mayor Ames, of Minneapolis. General Taft is now secretary of war of a woman living in Ocean Hill early President Roosevelt paid high compliinterests.

The house committee on Indian affairs has decided to report favorably the bill relating to the sale of lands on the Grand Ronde, Oregon reservation.

house and place it in the hall. After ion very warlike.

> Natives in Morocc are committing terrible atrocities on foreigners.

Roosevelt has put society at the capital in a flutter. The coroner's jury has returned a Wright case.

George A. Rose, defaulting cashier of

The senate will take the 1905 fair bill up as soon as the Panama debate Daily Graphic continues, but it refuses, her visitors could solve the mystery of is ended, and perhaps in the meansylvania where the recent disaster occurred. Extreme cold weather prevails in space in which to stow away snugly Northern Michigan. Cattle were jewelry and fine clothing. It is said frozen stiff in the barns. All outside

> The powers say mediation between Russia and Japan is impossible. Russia first suggested it.

> A cage and engine at a Victor, Colorado, mine got beyond control and 14 men rode to their death.

> adopted resolutions favoring the 1905

Roosevelt and Hanna are said to have reached an agreement by which the latter is not to be a candidate for presi-Rescuers at the scene of the great Pennsylvania mine disaster had to be rescued. Few bodies have yet been re-President John Mitchell, of the Unit-"A-chew!" and everybody in the car ed Mineworkers, refused to allow the the market. The loss is $2,000,000.

> A snow storm near St. Louis rendered lights invisible and two trains were burned.

oning is suspected.

Coates Kinney, the author and poet, is dead.

Secretary Root is prepared to turn food supplies, was destroyed. over his office to General Taft.

Japan and Russia are growing bitter and regard each other with suspicion. Mayor Carter Harrison, with seven others has been held for the Chicago theater fire.

The house has passed the army apblown into the car. Every train com- propriation bill, carrying approximately $75,000,000.

The Middle West is suffering from severe cold snap. The temperature is far below zero at many points.

false economy not to pass a river and the vice president and general manager. any offer to sell the ship." harbor bill at the present session. Roosevelt has decided to ignore the charges against H. Smith Woolley and has reappointed him assayer at Boise. Secretary Root is strongly opposed to the proposed law that all Philippine freight be carried on American vessels. He says it will place the country at the Major Hoyt Sherman, brother of General W. T. Sherman and of Secretary John Sherman, is dead.

It is reported that Pope Pius intends to retire in a short time. Japan proposes to make a military demonstration in Corea. Russian military activity at Black ea ports is greater than ever before. Although war rumors are very num- use the canal zone $8,000,000 is to re- decision was reached. Readers of the for peace.

NO. 48. GOVERNMENT FOR ALASKA.

Senator Mitchell Fathers Bill Which He Will Strongly Urge.

Washington, Jan. 30. - Senator Mitchell has introduced a bill making further provisions for a civil govern-ment for Alaska, and will strongly urge its early passage. The bill is as fol-

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States Likely to Prove Interesting to Our of America in congress assembled, That section 2 of title 1, chapter 1, of an act entitld: "An act making further provision for a civil government for Alasks, and for other purposes," approved June 6, 1900, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows: "Section 2. There shall be appoint-office and be charged with the interests the canal zone, the Colombian governof the United States government within ment intends to organize and send an quashed the bribery indictment against the district. To the end aforesaid he expedition against Panama, shall have authority to see that the laws are enforced and to require the faithful discharge of their duties by the colombia is compelled to take some officials appointed to administer the steps to prevent its downfall. This is same. He may also grant reprieves said to be imminent, as President Marfor offenses committed against the laws roquin has lost all the prestige he ever The senate has requested the presi- of the district or of the United States had. There is much speculation in Bodent to transmit Panama correspondence, if not incompatible with public thereon shall be made known. He should it be put through. thereon shall be made known. He should it be put through. shall be ex-officio commander in chief People arriving here from Colombia of the militia of the district, and shall declare the situation in that country is have power to call out the same when growing worse every day. necessary to the due execution of the laws and to preserve the peace, and to cause all able bodied citizens of the Senator Ankeny is working hard to United States in the district to enroll secret should become known, should any trees beyond the mill, and in about the stances, thought it might be all right, have Fort Walla Walla retained as a and serve as such when the public exsecret should become known, should any trees beyond the mill, and in about the stances, thought it might be an a courone by accident discover the body of the same place as where the two women had especially as there was nothing to pay, military post and it will be as a courigency demands; and he shall perform the same place as where the two women had especially as there was nothing to pay, to the senator if it is not abolgenerally in and over said district such acts as pertain to the office of governor ly, but decidedly aggressive. Last be made or become applicable thereto."

MUST MAKE WAR.

An alleged snubbing of Miss Alice Russian Reply to Last Note Will Not Be Satisfactory.

known officially today that Russia had and it was revealed that each boat carverdict of sucicde in the Whitaker completed her reply to Japan.

The Daily Mail professes to be able in, probably 200 in all. There is no doubt that their intentions were hos-Russian troops are reproted to be taking positions in Manchuria and on the border of Corea.

to amrin that Russia's dialt of the taking presented to Japan, but that it has been communicated to M. Kurina, the Japan that the taking presented to Japan, but that it has been prise the ship.

The communicated to doubt that it has been prise the ship. anese minister at St. Petersburg, who ered the gunboat cleared for action and been alone in the house before the a Cleveland bank to the extent of $187,- has transmitted the contents to Tokio, her guns were loaded and trimmed friendly powers.

The Russian reply is courteous, in uncompromising terms, to permit the reinsertion in the draft of the One hundred and five bodies have treaty of the two words, guaranteeing been recovered from the mine in Penn-her last note. The clause proposed by Japan was the air and churned the water all that Russia and Japan should mutually around them. No shots were fired at agree to respect the integrity and inde- the Bancroft, which at once sailed for pendence of China and Corea. Russia Colon to bring the report of the occurhas now stricken out twice the word rence. 'China' and it is understood this will close the negotiations. It is probable, the Daily Graphic goes on, that when this not has been presented Japan will notify Baron De Rosen, the Russian minister at Tokio. that she has no alternative but to take up arms in defense of her interests, The National Good Roads associa- and that M. Kurina will be instructed tion, at a meeting in Washington, to demand his passports. In the meantwo Japanese cruisers now at Colombo to proceed to Singapore. LARGE FIRE IN YUCATAN.

Blaze at Principal Port of Progresso

Causes $2,000,000 Loss. Mexico City, Jan. 30 .- Fire at Proresso, the chief port of Yucatan, destroyed an entire square of business houses and public buildings, including looked at her. She flushed and turned national convention to raise his salary The railway offices were also consumed. The public buildings were not insured, and the loss on them is $300,000. under control until much property Fifteen thousand bales of henequin

> The business quarter, in which the fire first broke out, is half a mile from Whitaker Wright, the noted promot- the wharves, and fronts on the Alaer, convicted of fraud and sentenced to meda, the most beautiful plaza in Proseven years' penal servitude, has cheat- greso. The origin of the fire is uned justice by dying within an hour known. The square, which was conafter sentence was pronoucned. Pois- sumed, consisted for the most part of one story buildings occupied by business houses. The market house, a large single story building, which furnished the only means of obtaining Large Coal Mine to Work.

Pueblo, Colo., Jan. 30 .- Circulars rado fuel and iron company are taken by business men to mean the early recirculars say in part: "We are now company says: pleased to announce that affairs have great interest in the building of a mod-Representative Hermann says it is ment is sent out under the direction of we feel sure that he would not consider

> Improves the Mall Service. London, Jan. 30 .- It is announced here that the Canadian government has bas notified the Austrian and Russian made a contract with the Allan line of embassies that the Macedonian comsteamers for an improved mail service mittees have arranged with the Albanibetween Canada and Great Britain, to ans for liberal rewards to have them commence next August with the turbine steamer Victorian and to be sup- provinces in connection with the reorterminus will be Quebec.

Money to Remain Untouched. Panama, Jan. 30 .- The constitution-of the new republic.

HAS THREE TIMES THE CIRCULATE OF ANY PAPER IN THE COUNTY:

leneral Reyes Largely Responsible-Told His Government That Americans Will Only Keep Troops Out of Canal Zone -Crowd of Indians Attempt to Sur-

Panama, Feb. 1 .- News has reached here from Bogota that, inasmuch as Generals Reyes and Cavallero have as-The British ambassador at St. Peters-burg has been informed that Russia shall reside therein during his term of will only object to her landing forces in cocoanuts from the Indians and paid proaching the Bancroft. The gunboat ried as many Indians as could crowd

the canoes. rain of bullets they imm

COREAN REVOLT IS SPREADING.

increased Taxation is the Signal for Lawlessness. New York, Feb. 1.-Internal disturbganized bands and government funds Details have just been received here of the disturbances at Vladivostok durhad been destroyed. latter having just returned from Rus-

The Corean minister at Tokio has been instructed especially to urge Japan's immediate recognition of Corea's

Turkey has Mot Sold Cruiser.

Philadelphia, Feb. 1.-Reiteration received in this city today from the of the story of the sale of the Turkish general sales department of the Colo- cruiser Medjidia brought forth an emphatic denial today on behalf of the Cramps company. It was stated that sumption of all departments of the big at no time has there been any negotiaplant, which closed down two months tions for the sale of the cruiser to eithago because of the coal strike. The er Russia or Japan. An official of the so shaped themselves as to enable us to ern navy for Turkey, with vessels of resume operations." This announce- the most advanced type, and therefore

Constantinople, Feb. 1 .- The porte

Little Hope for New Buildings. Washington, Feb. 1 .- The policy of al convention today approved a meas- this congress in relation to appropriaure providing that of the $10,000,000 tions for federal buildings was considto be paid to the republic of Panama ered today by the senate committee on by the United States for the right to public buildings and grounds, but no erous, the trend of affairs makes more main untouched for the future benefit house are said not to favor any extensive appropriations for new buildings.

Legal advertisements will in all cases be charged to the party ordering them, at legal rates, and paid for before affidavit is furnished COLOMBIA TO FIGHT DESIDES TO SEND AN EXPEDITION AGAINST PANAMA.

prise American Gunboat.

Try to Surprise Americans.

France deemes the Far Eastern situa- of a territory, so far as the same may Tuesday men from one of the Bancroft's boats insisted upon purchasing a few more than full value for them. To-ward 11 o'clock that night, when it was dark, 20 canoes were seen ap-London, Jan. 30. - It was made turned her searchlights on the canoes, > whence it will be conveyed to the ready for use. A quick firing Colt gun was placed near the gangway and orders were given to the gunners of this piece to keep up ceseless fire all round

> As soon as the Indians heard this gan to retreat toward the shore. The China upon which Japan insisted in gunners were given express orders not to fire at the Indians, so the bullets cut ance in Corea is spreading, cables the Herald's Seoul correspondent. It is the result of increased taxation. The time instructions have been sent to the governors of three provinces report that their officers have been captured by or-> ing the celebration of Russian Christmas. It was created by intoxicated Russian marines and Japanese women. Numerous houses were destroyed, mostly Japanese, but including the Russian theater. The usual fighting occurred. As happens on such occasions, there was considerable brutality, but no fatalities. The marines were not brought

> The notification of Corean neutrality, cabled from Che Foo to the powers, was unknown in the Corean foreign office until replies were received from the representatives abroad. The intimation was that it was arranged by Yi Yong Ik and Hyen Sang Kun, the neutrality.

Price on Heads of Officers.

plemented later with a sister ship, the ganization of the gendarmie under the Virginian. The British terminus of reform scheme of the powers. The the service will be Moville, Ireland, porte, therefore, objects to the officers the year round, while the Canadian wearing foreign uniforms, as their lives are thereby endangered.