The "Holy Rollers," of Corvallis have been in trouble again and their leaders have been committed to the asylum for the insane. That is where they should have been months ago.

The meetings which were announced to begin at the Baptist church last Monday evening have been postponed on account of the absence of Rev. Bailey, who is holding services at Mayville.

The Republican County Central Committee met last Saturday to fill out the vacancies in the republican county ticket and attend to other business matters. Pearl Jarvis was nominated for sheriff and Jesse Barton for surveyor.

Word reached here a few days ago that R. E. Armstrong, who has been in a hospital in California, for several months has so far recovered as to be able to leave the hospital and return to the home of his brother. It is not known just when he will be able to return to Oregon.

Manager Siebels, of the Condon ball team, informs the Globe that the team will play at Fossil next Sunday and at Lone Sunday following. It is the intention to play away from home for a few weeks and then arrange to play a series of games here. The team is composed of excellent material as now lined up and it is safe to predict that they will have a record at the end of the season of which they will have no occasion to be ashamed.

O. S. Palmer was called to The Dalles Friday by the serious illness of his father. The old gentleman has been visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Dan Cameron, of near Centerville, Washington, for some time and was brought to The Dalles to undergo an operation. Mr. Palmer returned home Tuesday night and reports that the operation was successful and that his father has a fair chance for recovery. His advanced age is the worst feature of his condition at this time.

Wm. Brown, a cattle buyer from the Lone Rock country, was interviewing cattlemen in the north part of Grant county last week and while there purchased 100 head of two-year-old steers of H. H. Arbogast and Fred Senn, the Blue Mountain Eagle being informed that the consideration was $18 per head. This is the first sale of stock of this kind that has taken place this Spring and whether the price paid is the market price remains to be seen. However, it is generally believed that $18 is not far from what will be paid for two-year-old steers during the present season, and that price of other stock will be in proportion.—Canyon City Eagle.

Condon Wins.

The base ball game between the Olex and Condon teams which took place on the Condon grounds Sunday afternoon was interesting from first to last. The Olex boys came up with the intention of winning another game from the Reds but "the best laid schemes" etc. and after the first two innings had been played the hopes of the visitors had gone a'glimmerin'. Following is the lineup and score as given us by the official score keeper:

Condon	Olex
J. Jarvis	P	Chandler
Parker	c	Collins
P. Jarvis	1b	Little
Edwards	2b	McPherson
Burns	ss	Huber
Block	3b	Boynton
Simpson	lf	Bowman
Bowen	cf	Flett
Hall	rf	McCalloch

Innings 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Total
Condon 11 5 5 12 9 0 11 * 13
Olex 10 12 0 0 2 1 15 0 0 10

Notes.
It was a good game.
A fine day to play ball.
The brass band was out in full glory.
The new grand stand is O. K. and was well filled.
Jarvis did smoo good work in the box. So did Chandler.
Gerald Burns holds down short in a creditable manner.
With a little practice Condon will have the best team in the county.
While the Olex boys lost the game they gave the home team something to do to win it.
For good all 'round ball playing it is hard to beat catcher Parker of the Condon Reds.
The Condon rooters and fans did nobly but there were about four Olex girls who left them completely in the shade.
Jack Jarvis made the only home run of the day. Here's the way it happened: Jack picked out the biggest bat he could find and took his position. We noticed blood in his eye so did the Olex pitcher and it is supposed that he was slightly unnerved. He threw the ball and Jack swung his bat back until it almost touched the back stop and the next instant that ball was going down town like a shot from a Hotchkiss gun and before the fielder had caught up with it Jack was safe home.

To Exchange.

We desire to exchange a fine upright piano for a good young team of horses of not less than 1300 weight. Piano may be seen at Condon. For particulars write, Elgers Piano House, Portland, Oregon.

L. T. Price has a change of ad in this issue.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wallace in this city Monday.

Wm. Twilley, of Ajax, was in town Monday. Mr. Twilley will soon put a salesman on the road with some proprietary remedies which he controls.

Take your dry hides and pelts to the Arlington Lumber Co.'s yard at Condon and receive highest price. Will pay 11 1/2 cents per pound or better for dry cow hides. 8-10

Drapers for any make of machine. Order early and get the reinforced draper, protected where it wears out first. When you see it you will buy no other. Arlington Lumber Co., Arlington and Condon. 8-10

A slight blaze occurred in the Belvedere Saloon yesterday forenoon the ceiling catching fire from the stovepipe. A small stream of water from the bar hose was sufficient to extinguish the incipient blaze, however, and the damage was practically nil.

J. K. Fitzwater, of Ferry Canyon and Chas. Little, of Mayville, each delivered a car of fat steers at Arlington Monday which were sold to C. W. Webley, of Portland, the price paid being 4 1/2 c per lb on foot. The steers averaged 1172 pounds and one bull in the Fitzwater bunch tipped the scales at 1850.

Convicts at the Salem pen went on a strike the other day claiming that they did not have enough to eat. After gazing down the barrels of a lot of Winchester in the hands of the guards, for about 90 seconds, however, their stomachs lost that feeling of all goodness and they concluded they were not hungry and went back to work.

That Spelling Match Again.

Quick Arrest.

J. A. Gullidge, of Verbena, Ala., was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Backlen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pains. 25c. This remedy is for sale by Condon Pharmacy.

A Close Shave.

Stories that have leaked out since the adjournment of the late democratic county convention, and which are apparently well founded, go to show that in spite of the smooth surface of that convention which seemed to indicate such complete harmony a condition existed which might easily have proved terribly disastrous to the aspirations of one of the most prominent candidates. After the delegates had gathered in Condon, as the story goes, it was discovered that a large majority of the delegates were not favorable to the re-nomination of the present incumbent of the sheriff's office and a strenuous effort was made to find some true blue democrat who would accept the nomination. A man was agreed upon of whose integrity ability and pure democracy there is not the slightest question, and the place was offered to him. This gentleman however, as it is said, thanked his friends and admirers for their expressions of confidence but stated that because of a press of personal and business matters at this particular time it would be absolutely impossible for him to accept the nomination or the office at this time. This being the case, and in order to fill out the ticket, the re-nomination was made but it is said to have been with rather bad grace on the part of many of the delegates. It is probable that the present sheriff does not yet know by what a narrow margin he escaped annihilation at the hands of the democratic delegates. Had it come, thus unexpectedly, it would have been a mighty sore job.
